

Materialism has cast man into such depths that a mighty concentration of forces is necessary to raise him again. He is subject to illnesses of the nervous system which are veritable epidemics of the life of the soul.

Man Materialism:

Metaromanticism Paul Hamilton, 2003-07-15 This bracing study redefines romanticism in terms of its philosophical habits of self consciousness According to Paul Hamilton metaromanticism or the ways in which writers of the romantic period generalized their own practices was fundamentally characteristic of the romantic project itself Through a close look at the aesthetics of Friedrich Schiller and Jean Jacques Rousseau and key works by Samuel Taylor Coleridge Percy and Mary Shelley John Keats Sir Walter Scott Jane Austen and many others Hamilton shows how the romantic movement s struggle with its own tenets was not an effort to seek an alternative way of thought but instead a way of becoming what it already was And yet as he reveals the romanticists were still not content with their own self consciousness Pushed to the limit such contemplation either manifested itself as self disgust or found aesthetic ideas regenerated in discourses outside of aesthetics altogether

10 Books Every Conservative Must Read Benjamin Wiker, 2010-06-15 Features a range of works that the author argues are essential reading for conservatives and Republicans including Democracy in America The Federalist Papers Sense and Sensibility and much more all of which hold important lessons within their pages By the author of 10 Books That Screwed Up the World Original Discovery of Prehistory Ancient India Dr. Jagat K. Motwani, 2018-02-22 Nationalist and Revolutionary While a high school student I actively participated in the Mahatma Gandhi's 1942 movement Quit India I felt disappointed because only a few prominent leaders like Gandhi and Nehru were imprisoned On Sept 9 1945 under the patronage of the Dadu District British Collector the town dignitaries including my grand father and Mr Tuljaram Nagrani the principal of the town High school along with the matriculate students had assembled at the Hindu temple to celebrate the victory of the Allies at the WW II Sweets were distributed I threw the sweets on the floor The reason I did this was not because I sided with the Axis powers But because Indian soldiers were fighting for Britain as India was not a free country Next morning the Principal got me in his office and whipped me several times on my palms and ordered me to leave the school and come back with my parent The principal told my father that Jagat to pay a fine of Rs 5 and threatened that in case of denial I will be rusticketed expelled from school as a bad character student and no school would admit me I am proud of my father that he said that only Jagat to decide I said that paying fine means admission of the guilt In my opinion it was not a guilt I with recommendation of my class teacher Mr Chandnani got admission in the P H High School Dadu only about 50 miles away from my home town In 1947 on the eve of partition there was an accidently bomb explosion in Karachi suspected of an RSS activity Several RSS leaders were arrested A Khalsa police officer secretly alerted my grand father to hide me to avoid arrest I along with a few RSS pracharaks secretly reached Karachi to take a ship for Okha Gujarat then train to Baroda In 1948 Mahatma Gandhi was assassinated by Nathuram Godse Because Godse was an RSS member the whole RSS all over India was banned I participated in the collective protest against the injustice of punishing the whole RSS organization because of the crime by its only one RSS member Whole family can not be punished because of the crime of its one member I was imprisoned in Baroda jail for four months Thousands of RSS members all over India were imprisoned Dr Jagat K Motwani

The Shape of the Signifier Walter Benn Michaels, 2013-10-31 The Shape of the Signifier is a critique of recent theory primarily literary but also cultural and political Bringing together previously unconnected strands of Michaels's thought from Against Theory to Our America it anatomizes what's fundamentally at stake when we think of literature in terms of the experience of the reader rather than the intention of the author and when we substitute the question of who people are for the question of what they believe With signature virtuosity Michaels shows how the replacement of ideological difference we believe different things with identitarian difference we speak different languages we have different bodies and different histories organizes the thinking of writers from Richard Rorty to Octavia Butler to Samuel Huntington to Kathy Acker He then examines how this shift produces the narrative logic of texts ranging from Toni Morrison's Beloved to Michael Hardt and Toni Negri's Empire As with everything Michaels writes The Shape of the Signifier is sure to leave controversy and debate in its wake Property and Justice Zhang Wenxi, 2023-11-30 This book attempts to answer the question what on earth is the Marxist political philosophy The author discusses Karl Marx's vision of the good life and the good society focusing in particular on the interrelationship between property and justice Strictly speaking the subject of this book should not be placed within an a priori conceptual framework which essentially focuses on academic notions of the good society good government and justice However for the purposes of this book Marxist political philosophy namely communism is already embodied in two aspects This book argues that it is the noisy and confusing modern political philosophy that obscures the actualization of human nature unfolded by the Marxist political philosophy before us The book will be essential reading for students and scholars of philosophy Marxism Chinese studies and Chinese Marxist philosophy The Contemporary Review, 1896 Contemporary Marxism J.J. O'Rourke, J.E. Blakeley, F. Rapp, 2012-12-06 A New Approach to Kant Zehou Li, 2018-05-21 Originally written during the Cultural Revolution this book introduces and interprets Kant's critical philosophy through the lens of its author Li Zehou's own philosophical approach anthropological historical ontology Li argues that the process of human development begins with and is shaped by the practical material activities associated with making and using tools in primitive societies Over millions of years these ever evolving practices accumulate and become sedimented into archetypical forms that shape history social relationships and human psychology Li's views draw upon Marx's theory of practice and as those familiar with his work will recognize his reinterpretation of Confucian thought with its emphasis on material life and worldly existence Beginning with the assumption that the question at heart of Kant's philosophy is What is the human being Li offers a highly original answer by arguing that the root of Kant's transcendental knowledge universal forms moral autonomy and aesthetics can be found in the practical and social activities associated with tool making Li offers a new reading not only of Kant but of modern European philosophy including Hegel and Marx that forces us to rethink our understanding of the relation between individuals and communities and challenges us to ask ourselves how we can best achieve both harmony and freedom in our shared human future Faith and Reason in the Reformations Terence J. Kleven, 2021-12-06 The five hundredth anniversary of the Protestant Reformation reawakened a long standing and spirited conversation between philosophic science and religious faith a conversation which continues to have consequences on how we understand both science and faith This book brings scholars together to reflect on the topic of the Protestant Reformation as well as the Roman Catholic Counter Reformation the nature of science and the unity of the Church Five chapters in this collection represent five distinct theological formulations within Christianity the other seven chapters are from a variety of historic philosophic and theological starting points on the topic These twelve accounts range from theologies informed by the Classical Philosophy of Plato and Aristotle medieval Jewish and Roman Catholic writers Moses Maimonides and Thomas More writers of the Protestant Reformation Martin Luther John Calvin Richard Hooker and
