Kass, 2017-12-19 Most American young people like their ancestors harbor desires for a worthy life a life of meaning a life that makes sense But they are increasingly confused about what such a life might look like and how they might in the present age be able to live one With a once confident culture no longer offering authoritative guidance the young are now at sea regarding work family religion and civic identity The true the good and the beautiful have few defenders and the higher cynicism mocks any innocent love of wisdom or love of country We are super competent regarding efficiency and convenience we are at a loss regarding what it's all for Yet because the old orthodoxies have crumbled our interesting time paradoxically offers genuine opportunities for renewal and growth The old Socratic question How to live suddenly commands serious attention Young Americans if liberated from the prevailing cynicism will readily embrace weighty questions and undertake serious quests for a flourishing life All they and we need is encouragement This book provides that necessary encouragement by illuminating crucial and still available aspects of a worthy life and by defending them against their enemies With chapters on love family and friendship human excellence and human dignity teaching learning and truth and the great human aspirations of Western civilization it offers people who are looking on their own for meaning and as well as to people who are looking to deepen what they have been taught or to square it with the spirit of our time The Household of Sir Thomas More Anne Manning,1911 The Neon Wilderness Nelson Algren,2002-01-08 As rock and roll novelist Tom Carson writes in his introduction The Neon Wilderness is the pivotal book of Nelson Algren s career the one which bid a subdued but determined farewell to everything that had earlier made him no more than just another good writer and inaugurated the idiosyncratic bedevilled cantankerously poetic sensibility that would see him ranked among the few literary originals of his times Algren s classic 1947 short story collection is the pure vein Algren would mine for all his subsequent novels and stories The stories in this collection are literary triumphs that don t fade away Among the stories included here are A Bottle of Milk for Mother about a Chicago youth being cornered for a murder and The Face on the Barrame Floor in which a legless man pummels another man nearly to death the seeds that would grow into the novel Never Come Morning Algren s World War II stories whose final expression would be in the novel The Man with the Golden Arm are also part of this collection So Help Me Algren s first published work is here Other stories include The Captain Has Bad Dreams in which Algren first introduced the character of the blameless captain who feels such a heavy burden of guilt and wonders why the criminal offenders he sees seem to feel no guilt at all And then there is Design for Departure in which a young woman drifting into hooking and addiction sees her own dreaminess outlasting her hopes The Parish Monthly ,1908 The Church Historians of England ,1855 *Many thoughts of many minds.
