Man of Two Tribes Arthur William Upfield, 1969 Crime fiction set in the Nullarbor Plain region      Man of Two Tribes Arthur W. Upfield, 2020-06-01 Myra Thomas apparently dressed only in nightgown and slippers has walked off the train somewhere along the 650 kilometres of track that crosses the Nullarbor Plain With two camels and a dog Bony begins to search the desert in search of her He finds more than he bargains for only to find a group of people imprisoned in the extensive limestone caves beneath the desert plain This is surely one of the two or three strongest of Upfield's novels It is an eerie mixture of Aboriginal folk customs and white man's greed and lust for revenge Something of a study of abnormal psychology it nevertheless turns on people's very natural and nasty feelings This book is a splendid combination of plot setting and development from The Spirit of Australia by Ray Browne      Investigating Arthur Upfield Carol Hetherington, Kees de Hoog, 2011-10-18 Arthur Upfield created Detective Inspector Napoleon Bonaparte Bony who features in twenty nine novels written from the 1920s to the 1960s mostly set in the Australian Outback He was the first Australian professional writer of crime detection novels Upfield arrived in Australia from England on 4 November 1911 and this collection of twenty two critical essays by academics and scholars has been published to celebrate the centenary of his arrival The essays were all written after Upfield's death in 1964 and provide a wide range of responses to his fiction The contributors from Australia Europe and the United States include journalist Pamela Ruskin who was Upfield's agent for fifteen years anthropologists literary scholars pioneers in the academic study of popular culture such as John G Cawelti and Ray B Browne and novelists Tony Hillerman and Mudrooroo whose own works have been inspired by Upfield's The collection sheds light on the extent and nature of critical responses to Upfield over time demonstrates the type of recognition he has received and highlights the way in which different preoccupations and critical trends have dealt with his work The essays provide the basis for an assessment of Upfield's place not only in the international annals of crime fiction but also in the literary and cultural history of Australia      General Catalogue of Printed Books British Museum.
