This book takes as its focus film stars from the past and present from Hollywood, its margins, and beyond, and analyzes them through a close consideration of their films and the variety of contexts in which they worked. Essays spread the net wide, looking at past stars from Rosalind Russell and Charlton Heston to present-day stars including Sandra Bullock, Jackie Chan, and Jim Carrey, as well as those figures who have earned a certain film star cachet, such as Prince and the martial artist Cynthia Rothrock. The Outline of Man's Knowledge Clement Wood, 1927 Stars in Our Eyes Angela Ndalanian, Charlotte Henry, 2002-03-30

The media star has become a powerful, almost unparalleled cultural sign, even as the star system has undergone radical transformation since the era of the Hollywood studio system. Today's film industry continues to market and promote its products through actors in ways that seek to capture the often elusive quality that a star can embody. Using contemporary stars such as Robert De Niro, Keanu Reeves, Arnold Schwarzenegger, and Dennis Hopper, this anthology of essays applies a variety of theoretical tools in its attempt to understand how we interpret stars and how we can begin to understand their cultural significance. Likewise, the study explores how the star system has become an increasingly complex phenomenon within society at large, extending its impact beyond the cinema into music, sports, and fashion. Many of the essays collected here consider this shift and examine how personae, including the director Sam Peckinpah, the royalty Princess Diana, and even the digital star Lara Croft, have captured the cultural imagination and have come to attain qualities as star-like as those of the silver screen. Spectacular Passions Brett Farmer, 2000-10-30

An examination of how cinematic spectatorship is articulated, practiced, and experienced in the contexts of gay male subjectivities. Men, Masculinity and the Media Steve Craig, 1992-02-26 Although studies of men and masculinity have gained momentum, little has been published that focuses on the media and their relationship to men as men. Men, Masculinity and the Media addresses this shortcoming. Scholars from across the social sciences investigate past media research on men and masculinity. They also examine how the media serve to construct masculinities, how men and their relationships have been depicted and how men respond to media images From comic books and rock music to film and television this groundbreaking volume scrutinizes the interrelationship among men the media and masculinity The Star Machine Jeanine Basinger, 2009-01-06 ONE OF THE HOLLYWOOD REPORTER S 100 GREATEST FILM BOOKS OF ALL TIME From one of our most distinguished film scholars comes a rich penetrating amusing book about the golden age of movies and how the studios worked to manufacture stars With revelatory insights and delightful asides Jeanine Basinger shows us how the studio star machine worked when it worked how it failed when it didn t and how irrelevant it could sometimes be She gives us case studies focusing on big stars groomed into the system the awesomely beautiful and disillusioned Tyrone Power the seductive disobedient Lana Turner and a dazzling cast of others She anatomizes their careers showing how their fame happened and what happened to them as a result Deeply engrossing full of energy wit and wisdom The Star Machine is destined to become an classic of the film canon The Star System Paul McDonald, 2000 Looks at the development and changing organization of the star system in the American film industry Tracing the popularity of star performers from the early cinema of attractions to the Internet universe Paul McDonald explores the ways in which Hollywood has made and sold its stars Through focusing on particular historical periods case studies of Mary Pickford Bette Davis James Cagney Julia Roberts Tom Cruise and Will Smith illustrate the key conditions influencing the star system in silent cinema the studio era and the New Hollywood Catalog of Captioned Films/videos for the Deaf , 1991 The Subject of the Nation and his 'Others' in Hindi Cinema MK Raghavendra, 2025-09-17 This book analyzes the representations of the subjects of Hindi cinema as a way of gaining insights into the hegemony of the upper caste Hindu male in narratives of nationhood Given that Hindi cinema has narrativized the nation after 1947 the book examines how these subjects were chosen and argues that they were upper caste Hindu and predominantly male The author s analysis shows asymmetries in the constitution of the imagined nation in the public consciousness Women the marginalized categories and minorities were presented as others with separate stories for the issues dealing with them but distinct from that of the nation Stories centered on women primarily highlight their position within society In this context the book argues that it is the male protagonist whose story mirrors that of the nation as allegory A novel contribution to the field of Bollywood Studies this insightful work will be of interest to those studying Hindi cinema and film studies political science and history as well as gender studies Ageing Masculinities in Contemporary European and Anglophone Cinema Tony Tracy, Michaela Schrage-Früh, 2022-12-30 This volume offers a unique exploration of how ageing masculinities are constructed and represented in contemporary international cinema With chapters spanning a range of national cinemas the primarily European focus of the book is juxtaposed with analysis of the social and cultural constructions of manhood and the anti ageing impulses of male stardom in contemporary Hollywood These themes are inflected in different ways throughout the volume from considering how old age is not the monolithic and unified life stage with which it is often framed to exploring issues of queerness sexuality and asexuality as well as themes
