Harry Stephen Keeler

Man They Couldnt Hang:

The Man They Couldn't Hang Michael Crowley, 2010-09-01 A play in two Acts with an Introduction by the author The story of John Babbacombe Lee is one of the most bizarre in English criminal history Lee is the only person to have been reprieved by a Home Secretary after standing on a gallows trap which failed to open This happened at Exeter Prison in 1885 when the notoriously inept public hangman James Berry gave up after three abortive attempts Lee spent 22 years in prison before being released On retirement Berry from Heckmondwike Yorkshire who carried out 134 executions was the first executioner to write about his experiences in My Experiences As An Executioner His resulting celebrity led to him taking to the boards spinning gruesome tales of his former trade and showing audiences his dark souvenirs Michael Crowley's imaginative play is set in a down at heel northern music hall where the proprietor is bent on reviving the venue's glory days by persuading the now released Lee to team up with Berry in a double act Did John Lee commit the murder for which he was due to hang Did poetic justice intervene on that fateful day in Exeter to prevent a miscarriage of justice Will Lee stand on the scaffold once again with the noose around his neck on stage and for the paying public And will the truth come out or not as Lee begins to confide in the woman designated as leading lady during rehearsals The Man They Couldn't Hang by prison writer in residence Michael Crowley is an ideal vehicle for raising issues of crime and punishment It will be particularly useful for drama groups in and out of prison and tutors or group leaders seeking innovative ways of involving those they work with in issues of criminal justice and crime and punishment The play is also suitable for full scale drama productions

The Peel Sessions Ken Garner, 2010-12-15 This is a story of teenage dreams which as any Peel fan knows are hard to beat Between 1967 and 2004 John Peel picked over 2000 bands to come and record over 4000 sessions to be played on his radio show Many were young and had never been in a recording studio before for some it was the start of an illustrious career for others it was the only recognition their musical talent ever got For over 35 years the cream of British musical talent made the journey to the BBC's studio in Maida Vale from Pink Floyd to Pulp the Small Faces to the Smiths And because John Peel was so respected his sessions took on a legendary status they were a rite of passage that every new band wanted to go through Unfettered by commercial pressure the Peel Sessions were a unique British institution an archive of music that reflects one man's passion for finding and encouraging new music Includes a full sessionography listing songs band members and broadcast dates Jarvis Cocker writing about his first Peel Session aged 18 Wayne the drummer was 15 We travelled down to Maida Vale in a van driven by a very strange man we'd contacted via a card pinned to the Virgin record shop noticeboard We d had to borrow lots of equipment from a band called The Naughtiest Girl Was a Monitor cause we didn t have enough stuff of our own The session was to be produced by Dale Griffin who used to be the drummer in Mott the Hoople I seem to remember that he was wearing cowboy boots I think the crisis point came when Wayne was attempting to get a home made synth drum to work that a friend of his at school had made out of a rubber burglar alarm mat and an old electronic calculator Dale Griffin looked at this 15 year old kid crouching on the floor bashing what looked like a doormat with some wires coming out of it and just put his head in his hands But to his credit the session did get finished and after it everything else started for me
