long boom in child centered science museums Onion looks at how the United States has increasingly focused its energies over the last century into producing young scientists outside of the classroom She shows that although Americans profess to believe that success in the sciences is synonymous with good citizenship this idea is deeply complicated in an era when scientific data is hotly contested and many Americans have a conflicted view of science itself These contradictions Onion explains can be understood by examining the histories of popular science and the development of ideas about American childhood She shows how the idealized concept of science has moved through the public consciousness and how the drive to make child scientists has deeply influenced American culture

Profusely illustrated with over three hundred photographs, Forty Years of Airfix Toys gives the full history of the Airfix toy range, including year-by-year listings of all the toys sold by Airfix, logs and packaging, Airfix's magazines, and a full listing of Airfix pattern numbers. Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1928.

American Illustrated Magazine, 1920. The Christian Union, 1889. The Winds of Change in the Life of a 20th Century Man Eldon Mackridge, 2021-02-18. This is a story of Eldon James Mackridge's life starting in South London during WWII and being forced out of his family home in London by Hitler. Then his experiences in Norfolk with local relatives, country folk, and American airmen. His struggles with school work. And returning home to post-war South London. The joys of being a choirboy, cub scout, newspaper boy, and keen cyclist. His first job is an engineering apprentice before joining the British Army and travelling overseas to Libya and Kenya, which was a great education in itself. Returning to the UK to become a Personnel Manager, a Special Constable for two Counties, and Clerk to local parishes and councils. Forming his own company and then ending up as a self-employed chauffeur. His experiences as a Freemason. Finally his retirement and being honoured with the Freedom of the Town of Haverhill, Suffolk. Material Change Jan De Maeyer, Peter Jan Margry, 2021-12-17. The long nineteenth century, c. 1780–c. 1920, in Western Europe saw an unprecedented rise in the production and possession of material goods. The material culture diversified and led to a rich variety of expressions dovetailing with a process of confessionalisation that manifested itself quite simultaneously. Material religion witnessed its heyday in this period, from church buildings to small devotional objects. The present volume analyses how various types of reform, state, societal, and ecclesiastical that were part of the process of modernisation affected the material devotional culture within Protestantism, Anglicanism, and Roman Catholicism. Although the contributions in this book start from a comparative European perspective, the case studies mostly focus on individual countries in North West Europe, namely Germany, Belgium, the Netherlands, the United Kingdom, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark. The concept of material religion is approached in a very inclusive way The volume discusses amongst others parish infrastructures and religious buildings that are part of land and cityscapes but also looks into interior design and decorations of chapels churches monasteries cemeteries and educational charitable and health institutions It comprises the fine arts of religious painting and sculpture the applied arts and iconographic designs As far as private material culture is concerned this volume examines and presents objects related to private devotion at home including a great variety of popular devotional and everyday life objects such as booklets cards photographs and posters American Book Publishing Record ,2003 Bookseller & Stationer and Office Equipment Journal ,1919
