Man Who Shot Che Guevara:

The Man Who Killed Apartheid: The Life of Dimitri Tsafendas Harris Dousemetzis, 2024-03-04 On 6 September 1966 inside the House of Assembly in Cape Town Dimitri Tsafendas stabbed to death Hendrik Verwoerd South Africa's Prime Minister and so called architect of apartheid Tsafendas was immediately arrested and before he had even been questioned by the authorities they declared him a madman without any political motive for the killing In the Cape Supreme Court Tsafendas was found unfit to stand trial on the grounds that he suffered from schizophrenia and that he had no political motive for killing Verwoerd Tsafendas spent the next 28 years in custody making him the longest serving detainee in South African history For most of his incarnation he was subjected to cruel and inhumane treatment by the prison authorities From 2009 to 2018 Harris Dousemetzis extensively researched the assassination of Verwoerd and the life of Tsafendas For this research he travelled to South Africa Mozambique Greece France and Turkey and interviewed about 150 people who either knew Tsafendas or Verwoerd or were involved with the case of the assassination He discovered about 12 000 pages of documents on the case most of them previously unpublished in archival collections in South Africa Portugal and the UK Dousemetzis collaborated with prominent South African jurists psychiatrists and psychologists and concluded his research by writing the Report to the Minister of Justice in the Matter of Dr Verwoerd's Assassination The report conclusively proved that Tsafendas had assassinated Verwoerd for political reasons and that the apartheid authorities had orchestrated a massive operation to declare him insane and apolitical This ground breaking report and this book corrected the historical record regarding Verwoerd's assassination and Tsafendas The Man Who Killed Apartheid based on Dousemetzis's groundbreaking research chronicles in detail Tsafendas's life and conclusively demonstrates that he was a perfectly sane and deeply political person with a long history of political activism At the same time the book exposes the lie at the heart of apartheid's posture on the assassination of Hendrik Verwoerd and provides a rare picture of how the racist regime operated and what it was like to live and die under apartheid ground breaking and intensely revealing examination of the life of the 20th century's most iconic writer Ernest Hemingway was an involuntary chameleon who would shift seamlessly from a self cultivated image of hero aesthetic radical and existential non conformist to a figure made up at various points of selfishness hypocrisy self delusion narcissism and arbitrary vindictiveness Richard Bradford shows that Hemingway's work is by parts erratic and unique because it was tied into these unpredictable bizarre features of his personality Impressionism and subjectivity always play some part in the making of literary works Some authors try to subdue them while others treat them as the essentials of creativity but they endure as a ubiquitous element of all literature They are the writer's private signature their authorial fingerprint In this new biography which includes previously unpublished letters from the Hemingway archives Richard Bradford reveals how Hemingway all but erased his own existence through a lifetime of invention and delusion and provides the reader with a completely new understanding of the Hemingway oeuvre
