The Plum in the Golden Vase or, Chin P'ing Mei, Volume One ,2013-05-02 The first volume of a celebrated translation of the classic Chinese novel This is the first volume in David Roy s celebrated translation of one of the most famous and important novels in Chinese literature The Plum in the Golden Vase or Chin P ing Mei is an anonymous sixteenth century work that focuses on the domestic life of Hsi men Ch ing a corrupt upwardly mobile merchant in a provincial town who maintains a harem of six wives and concubines The novel known primarily for its erotic realism is also a landmark in the development of the narrative art form not only from a specifically Chinese perspective but in a world historical context With the possible exception of The Tale of Genji 1010 and Don Quixote 1615 there is no earlier work of prose fiction of equal sophistication in world literature Although its importance in the history of Chinese narrative has long been recognized the technical virtuosity of the author which is more reminiscent of the Dickens of Bleak House the Joyce of Ulysses or the Nabokov of Lolita than anything in the earlier Chinese fiction tradition has not yet received adequate recognition This is partly because all of the existing European translations are either abridged or based on an inferior recension of the text This translation and its annotation aim to faithfully represent and elucidate all the rhetorical features of the original in its most authentic form and thereby enable the Western reader to appreciate this Chinese masterpiece at its true worth

C. T. Hsia on Chinese Literature C. T. Hsia,2004-03-10 Best known for the groundbreaking works A History of Modern Chinese Fiction 1961 and The Classic Chinese Novel 1968 C T Hsia has gathered sixteen essays and studies written during his Columbia years as a professor of Chinese literature Wider in range and scope C T Hsia on Chinese Literature stands beside his two earlier books as part of his critical legacy to all readers seriously interested in the subject C T Hsia s writings on Chinese literature express a candor rare among his Western colleagues Thus the first section of the book contains three essays that place Chinese literature in critical perspective examining its substance and significance and questioning some of the critical approaches and methods adopted by Western sinologists for its study and appreciation The second section has two essays on traditional drama one on the Yuan masterpiece The Romance of the Western Chamber and the other a sophisticated study of the plays of the foremost Ming dramatist Tang Hsien tsu The third section is the richest and longest of the book containing six essays on traditional and early modern fiction At least four of these on The Military Romance and the novels Flowers in the Mirror The Travels of Lao Tsan and Jade Pear Spirit are among the author's finest works Finally the fourth section of the book covering modern fiction includes one essay on the novel The Korchin Banner Plains an essay on women in Chinese communist fiction and three concise yet illuminating studies of the short story during the three republican decades before Mao the first dozen years under Mao and in Taiwan during the 1960s

Unnatural Narrative across Borders Biwu Shang, 2018-12-07 This book actively engages with current discussion of narratology and unnatural narrative theory in particular Unsatisfied with the hegemony of European and Anglo American narrative theory it calls for a transnational and comparative turn in unnatural narrative theory the purpose of which is to draw readers attention to those periphery and marginalized narratives produced in places other than England and America It places equal weight on theoretical exploration and critical practice The book in addition to offering a detailed account of current scholarship of unnatural narratology examines its core issues and critical debates as well as outlining a set of directions for its future development To present a counterpart of Western unnatural narrative studies this book specifically takes a close look at the experimental narratives in China and Iraq either synchronically or diachronically In doing so it aims on the one hand to show how the unnatural narratives are written and to be explained differently from those Western unnatural narrative works and on the other hand to use the particular cases to challenge the existing narratological framework so as to further enrich and supplement it The book will be useful and inspiring to those scholars working in such broad fields as narrative theory literary criticism cultural studies semiotics media studies and comparative literature and world literature studies
