money my strong advice is don't gamble. If you want to believe casinos are playgrounds built for your amusement, this is not the book for you. I use statistical concepts and common sense to strip away the bright lights and glamor to reveal the mathematical realities of gambling. For the most part, it's not pretty. Not if you want to make money instead of lose it. But there are opportunities there for people willing to work hard and understand the obstacles so they can surmount them. If you're still an emotional child needing the adrenaline rush and excitement of winning money, this is not for you. And not only the casinos want to take your money; hordes of online scammers selling bogus systems online also are after the money belonging to would-be pro gamblers. Until you can enter a casino and remain blind to the red carpeting, the flashing lights, dinging slots, and the entire aura of glamorous partying, you'll remain a loser. If you have enough money to pay for a mirage that's up to you. Most people don't. American Book Publishing Record, 2000. Keeps Pete Fowler, 2000. Castle Frazer is a 27-year-old gambler and steering man. Rich Stillman is an 11-year-old poolshark. The two meet in Kentucky in the early 1940s and under Castle's tutelage, little Rich quickly graduates from pool to poker and later money gin games for which he has an exceptional aptitude. Castle guides Rich and his team of kid card players into games with police, priests, moonshiners, high rollers, even the mob. As Rich evolves from a small-time take-off artist to a wizard-like games master, the stakes get bigger and bigger. But there is a price to be paid in the end. This is the story of the turning out of a genius card player, a rare look into the dangerous world of a high-stakes hustler. And amazingly, it's all true. Comp City Max Rubin, 2001-06. Originally published in 1994, this expose of the guarded world of the casino comp system, penned by a former casino executive, has shown tens of thousands of gamblers how to setup their own free Las Vegas vacation business. The 2nd edition is completely updated and revised, includes information on Bellagio, Venetian, Mandalay Bay, Paris.

Adopting the Track of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Man With The 100000 Breasts And Other Gambling Stories

In some sort of consumed by monitors and the ceaseless chatter of quick connection, the melodic elegance and psychological symphony created by the published word often diminish into the back ground, eclipsed by the persistent noise and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, nestled within the pages of Man With The 100000 Breasts And Other Gambling Stories a marvelous literary value overflowing with natural feelings, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a wonderful musician of language, this captivating masterpiece conducts viewers on an emotional journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden tunes and profound influence resonating within each carefully crafted phrase. Within the depths of the touching examination, we will explore the book is central harmonies, analyze their enthralling publishing model, and submit ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
