Man With The Golden Arm 1st Edition:

The Man with the Golden Arm Nelson Algren, 2011-01-04 A novel of rare genius The Man with the Golden Arm describes the dissolution of a card dealing WWII veteran named Frankie Machine caught in the act of slowly cutting his own heart into wafer thin slices For Frankie a murder committed may be the least of his problems The literary critic Malcolm Cowley called The Man with the Golden Arm Algren s defense of the individual while Carl Sandburg wrote of its strange midnight dignity A literary tour de force here is a novel unlike any other one in which drug addiction poverty and human failure somehow suggest a defense of human dignity and a reason for hope Huxford's Old Book Value Guide Bob Huxford, Sharon Huxford, 1992 This totally new fourth edition is intended to be a companion volume Over 25 000 listings are included with current values More than just a price guide you ll also find scores of buyers listed by the type of subject matter they are looking for so it s a selling guide as well Books and Pamphlets, Including Serials and Contributions to Periodicals Library of Congress. M. Wijdicks, 2024 As a medium that aims to connect people through the communication and interpretation of experiences cinema is uniquely positioned to showcase cultural misunderstandings around issues of mental health Frames of Minds traces a history of psychiatry in film concentrating on the major paradigm shifts in neuropsychiatry over the last century Oftentimes representations of psychiatry mental illness and psychotic breakdown are reduced to tropes and used by filmmakers as a tool for plot progression Conversely films can be used as an avenue to voice common concerns about the missteps of psychiatry including overdiagnosis and mistreatment Dr Eelco Wijdicks provides fresh insights into the minds of filmmakers and how they creatively tackle this complex topic How do filmmakers use psychiatry and what do they want us to see What is their frame of mind psychoanalytically biologically sociologically anthropologically Were they influenced by their own prejudices about the origins of mental illness How does this influence the direction of their films Examining the history of film alongside developments in neuropsychiatry Frames of Minds uncovers a cinematic language of psychiatry By taking chances to portray mental illness filmmakers aim to achieve a sense of reality and provide catharsis for viewers through the act of dramatization Ultimately the history of psychiatry in film is a history of the public perception of medicine and the ways psychiatry is understood by directors writers actors and audiences The Official Price Guide to Collecting Books Marie Tedford, Pat Goudey, 2008 The antiquarian s reference to old books features thousands of listings including hundreds of new titles a new Internet buying guide a complete glossary of book collecting terms research resources information on dealers and advice on buying selling and maintaining fragile acquisitions Original AB Bookman's Weekly, 1996 Ghosts and Goosebumps Jack Solomon, Olivia Solomon, 1994-03-01 Ghosts and Goosebumps is a rich collection of folktales and superstitions that capture the oral traditions of central and southeastern Alabama In its pages one can glimpse the long lost horse and buggy times when people sat up all night with the dead and dying hoed and handpicked cotton drew water from wells and met the devil rather regularly The book is divided into three parts tales superstitions and slave narratives The spirits of treasure keepers poltergeists murderers and the murdered wicked men and good men and true float through the book s first section Sue Peacock for example recalls seeing the ghost of her brother and E C Nevin describes a mysterious light in a swamp In other tales reports of supernatural experiences are proved to be rationally explicable Lee Wilson s devil in the cemetery turns out to be a cow and chains rattling near New Tabernacle Church in Coffee County belong not to specters but to hogs The superstitions are arranged according to subject and include such topics as love and marriage weather and the seasons wish making bad luck signs and portents Anonymous tellers confide that it is bad luck to carry ashes out after dark to let a locust holler in your hand to rock an empty rocking chair to let your fishing pole cross someone else s or to have a two dollar bill unless one corner has been removed The slave narratives selected from the Works Progress Administration Folklore Collection are substantial and yield a fascinating view of nineteenth century African American folk life replete with sillies and lazy men preachers and witches brave little boys and reluctant bridegrooms Although the times and places have changed the spirit of the folk is unaltered Taken together these folktales are marvelously diverse by turns fearsome fantastical witty ribald charmingly innocent showing people from all backgrounds their endless vices and occasional virtues their hopes fears and loves
