Howard, August Nemo, 2020-05-02 Welcome to the 3 Books To Know series our idea is to help readers learn about fascinating topics through three essential and relevant books These carefully selected works can be fiction non fiction historical documents or even biographies We will always select for you three great works to instigate your mind this time the topic is Dublin Dubliners by James Joyce The House by the Church Yard by Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu The Cairn on the Headland by Robert E Howard Dubliners is a collection of fifteen short stories by James Joyce first published in 1914 They form a naturalistic depiction of Irish middle class life in and around Dublin in the early years of the 20th century The House by the Churchyard is a novel by Sheridan Le Fanu that combines elements of the mystery novel and the historical novel Aside from its own merits the novel is important as a key source for

James Joyce's Finnegans Wake The Cairn on the Headland is a short story by American writer Robert E Howard with elements of fantasy and horror. As often in Howard stories there is a link to the Cthulhu Mythos in this case mixed also with elements of both Norse Mythology and Catholic Christianity. This is one of many books in the series 3 Books To Know If you liked this book look for the other titles in the series we are sure you will like some of the topics Dubliners James Joyce, 2008-06-12 I regret to see that my book has turned out un fiasco solenne James Joyce's disillusion with the publication of Dubliners in 1914 was the result of ten years battling with publishers resisting their demands to remove swear words real place names and much else including two entire stories. Although only 24 when he signed his first publishing contract for the book Joyce already knew its worth to alter it in any way would retard the course of civilisation in Ireland. Joyce's aim was to tell the truth to create a work of art that would reflect life in Ireland at the turn of the last century and by rejecting euphemism reveal to the Irish the unromantic reality the recognition of which would lead to the spiritual liberation of the country. Each of the fifteen stories offers a glimpse of the lives of ordinary Dubliners a death an encounter an opportunity not taken a memory rekindled and collectively they paint a portrait of a nation.
