Man is an Onion Dennis Joseph Enright,1973 Man Is an Onion Dennis Joseph Enright,1972 Western Writers in Japan S. Okada,1998-11-25 This book relates the experiences of a range of Western writers who went to Japan as teachers and lecturers covering a period of over 100 years It discusses East West cultural differences Western individualism encountering Japanese formal society and draws on the author s interviews with many of the writers featured It includes some hitherto unpublished correspondence as well as comments on their published works The author hopes her book will encourage a deeper understanding between East and West Stevie Smith and Authorship William May,2010-08-12 The most useful critical guide to the Movement that has appeared in recent years Alan Brownjohn Literary Review The Sum of No Equation Sabine Freyling,2008 Starting with the social and psychological side of the person Naipaul one can summarise some reasonably simple discoveries that can be extracted from both his autobiographical pieces and his seemingly fictional books published within a period of more than fifty years Naipaul suggested that the way to approach the author is not through finding out as much as possible about the man and one could easily argue that the idea shall simply be used in conversion One can learn more about the person when taking into account all that has been produced by the author who is part of the person By this means one can extract valuable information about both person and author and thus can easily uncover some mysteries that have been established by the author person to conceal the reality behind a fixed idea that has always played a significant role in Naipaul s life Having studied English Naipaul was aware of all the tools available and of the aims of literary critics and seems to have challenged these established routes for his own sake and to serve his purpose

Encyclopedia of British Writers, 1800 to the Present George Stade,Karen Karbiener,2010-05-12 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide biographical and critical information on major and lesser known nineteenth and twentieth century British writers and includes articles on key schools of literature and genres Philip Larkin and his Contemporaries Philip Hobsbaum,Salem K Hassan,1988-07-26 Graham Greene A. F. Cassis,1981 Covers fifty years of criticism of Graham Greene a leading man of letters on the English literary scene Conversing Identities Konstantina Georganta,2012-01-01 Conversing Identities Encounters Between British Irish and Greek Poetry 1922 1952 presents a panorama of cultures brought in dialogue through travel immigration and translation set against the insularity imposed by war and the hegemony of the national centre in the period 1922 1952 Each chapter tells a story within a specific time and space that connected the challenges and fissures experienced in two cultures with the goal to explore how the post 1922 accentuated mobility across frontiers found an appropriate expression in the work of the poets under consideration Either influenced by their actual travel to Britain or Greece or divided in their various allegiances and reactions to national or imperial sovereignty the poets examined explored the possibilities of a metaphorical diasporic sense of belonging within the multicultural metropolis and created personae to indicate the tension at the contact of the old and the new the hypocritical parody of mixed breeds and the need for modern heroes to avoid national or gendered stereotypes The main coordinates were the national voices of W B Yeats and Kostas Palamas T S Eliot's multilingual outlook as an Anglo American m toikos C P Cavafy's view as a Greek of the diaspora displaced William Plomer's portrayal of 1930s Athens Demetrios Capetanakis journey to the British metropolis John Lehmann's antithetical journey eastward as well as Louis MacNeice's complex loyalties to a national identity and sense of belonging as an Irish classicist translator and traveller Englishness and Post-imperial Space Milton Sarkar, 2016-02-08

Englishness and Post imperial Space The Poetry of Philip Larkin and Ted Hughes probes into the English mindset immediately after the British withdrawal from the colonies and examines how the loss of power and global prestige affected contemporary poetry particularly that of Philip Larkin and Ted Hughes Frustration and disillusionment even anger characterised the era and many of the literary works the period produced Most writers became insular and were obsessed with the English elements in their writing The great international and cosmopolitan themes of Eliot for instance were replaced by those of narrow domestic importance It is in such a context this book argues that Larkin and Hughes returned to the old England most notably to the themes of gradually vanishing pristine landscape and national myths and legends to the archetypal English customs and conventions It examines their poetry mainly from the perspective of Englishness a burgeoning area of academic interest Intricately connected with the values emanating from England as a geographical and socio cultural space Englishness as a concept is intrinsic to the identity of a people who gradually became globally powerful The loss of empire dealt a severe blow to this sense of the self This book explores the dynamics of the representation of this sense of loss and the frustration it produced in the poems of Larkin and Hughes Ezra Pound in Context Ira B. Nadel, 2010-11-11 Long at the centre of the modernist project from editing Eliot's The Waste Land to publishing Joyce Pound has also been a provocateur and instigator of new movements while initiating a new poetics This is the first volume to summarize and analyze the multiple contexts of Pound's work underlining the magnitude of his contribution and drawing on new archival textual and theoretical studies Pound's political and economic ideas also receive attention With its concentration on the contexts of history sociology aesthetics and politics the volume will provide a portrait of Pound's unusually international reach an American born modern poet absorbing the cultures of England France Italy and China These essays situate Pound in the social and material realities of his time and will be invaluable for students and scholars of Pound and modernism Review Essays in Israel Studies Laura Zittrain Eisenberg, Neil Caplan, 2000-01-06 Introduces the cutting edge issues and current scholarship in the interdisciplinary field of Israel Studies The Sporting review, ed. by 'Craven'.
