Ngwainmbi, Rev. Fr. John Berinyuy, 2023-08-30 This book is a theological reflection of Sheen s contribution to humanity and society It analyzes the modern person from the Catholic doctrinal perspective explores Fulton Sheen s perception of the contemporary individual and demonstrates that global economic religious and political crises cannot be resolved by focusing only on the mundane It further underscores some contemporary anthropological challenges and proposes a philosophy and theology of life that can enable contemporary humans to know themselves better and make life worth living The authors argue that advancements in science and technology have failed to prolong happiness people are still frustrated disillusioned cynical bored and suicidal This book enters the landscape of Sheen s controversial pause before he was sanctified and provides a lengthy liturgical extrapolation of Sheen s Christian anthropology wrestling with other thinkers and general concerns surrounding human angst in modern society Repair, Do-It-Yourself and Circular Economy Michael Jonas, Sebastian

Efrat Biberman,Shirley Sharon-Zisser,2017-09-18 Art Death and Lacanian Psychoanalysis examines the relationship between art and death from the perspective of Lacanian psychoanalysis It takes a unique approach to the topic by making explicit reference to the death drive as manifest in theories of art and in artworks Freud s treatment of death focuses not on the moment of biological extinction but on the recurrent moments in life which he called the death drive or the compulsion to repeat the return precisely of what is most unbearable for the subject Surprisingly in some of its manifestations this painful repetition turns out to be invigorating It is this invigorating repetition that is the main concern of this book which demonstrates the presence of its manifestations in painting and literature and in the theoretical discourse concerning them from the dawn of Western culture to the present After unfolding the psychoanalytical and philosophical underpinnings for the return of the death drive as invigorating repetition in the sphere of the arts the authors examine various aspects of this repetition through the works of Gerhard Richter Jeff Wall and contemporary Israeli artists Deganit Berest and Yitzhak Livneh as well as through the writings of Virginia Woolf and James Joyce First to articulate the stimulating aspect of the death drive in its relation to the arts and the conception of art as a varied repetition beyond a limit Art Death and Lacanian Psychoanalysis will be indispensable to psychoanalysts scholars of art theory and aesthetics and those studying at the intersection of art and psychoanalysis

Enough of the dead ends, which way should I go? Fara Faith, 2012-05-02 God desires all men to receive His salvation and to grow spiritually so they can reach their destiny which is being transformed into the image of Christ But many people including Christians do not know how For lack of knowledge my people perish says the LORD Those who do not know the word of God suffer much at the hands of the devil yet likewise Christians who know the word of God but do not understand it suffer as much as those who does not know the word at all Many Christians though saved are not growing because they failed to grasp with understanding the elementary workings of God at the point of their initial salvation These elementary workings of God at initial salvation are the same elements required for continued growth of all believers This book therefore brings to light knowledge that will better lead people seeking after their initial salvation and spiritual growth from then on The intentions of this book are that people would gain understanding and refrain from and rebuke the frustrating failures conceived by futile practices conceived from error understanding The way to God is simple really if you understand how therefore the hope intended is that in gaining understanding the reader will redeem time and begin to invest in ways that will see them receive the promises of the word of God so that they may have fullness of joy and glorify God

Studies and his family has received much attention and critical acclaim This collection of essays provides an overview of the author as well as the controversial novel Renewable Resources for Regional Development Moonis Raza,1989 The Meaning of Repentance William Douglas Chamberlain,2018-02-28 The contents of this volume consist largely of the Smyth Lectures delivered at Columbia Theological Seminary 1941 Chapters III and VI have been completely rewritten and there has been some revision in each of the other four The conclusions stated in these chapters have grown out of firsthand investigation of the materials lying in the twenty seven canonical books of the New Testament The method pursued has been to study the New Testament directly rather than to read what others say about it It is an increasingly strong conviction with me that we as ministers have not done enough of this kind of study Reference to the various theories of authorship date and provenance of the books has been studiously avoided for the simple reason that I wanted to examine the New Testament as a body of writings expressing the convictions and faith of the Early Church From the Preface
