Imago Dei: Man/Woman Created in the Image of God George Hobson, 2019-09-30 The question What is human nature is in vogue today Like everything else this concept is being deconstructed in the context of the reigning ideology of individualistic materialism Is there a fixed human nature or is this simply a manipulatable social construct with no objective reference This book says Yes there is the imago Dei man woman created in the image of God Hobson argues that this text from Genesis 1:26-28 is a God given anthropological revelation that establishes the relational bond of human beings with their Creator and also with his creation for which the imago equips us to be responsible stewards Many of Hobson's essays were delivered as talks in parishes They explore from multiple angles the import of the imago Dei for theological and sacramental reflection apologetics aesthetics art and at a hands on practical level for pastoral counseling and inner healing His texts one of which opens with a discussion of genocide contain incisive critiques of the dark side of modernity alongside wide ranging demonstrations of the pertinence of the imago Dei to the current debates about human dignity and rights His book is a ringing call to the church to take the measure of the value of this anthropological revelation for its proclamation of the gospel

The Man and Woman Manifesto Christopher Alan Anderson, 2017-05-04 In The Man and Woman Manifesto What We Believe the author gives an accounting of what this paradigm shift into man and woman balance is about both individually and for the world at large We are at a turning point in the conscious evolution of mankind on planet earth We all feel the change and turbulence although we are not sure of which way to turn We are being offered an empty sexual progressivism through L G B T Q as well as an existential threat in Islamic radicalism In the meantime our own Constitutional

"The Man Who Thought Himself a Woman" and Other Queer Nineteenth-Century Short Stories

Christopher Looby,2016-11-29 Perhaps it is no coincidence that the nineteenth century the century when it has been said sexuality as such and various taxonomized sexual identities were invented is the period when American short stories were invented and when they were the queerest Christopher Looby from the Introduction A man in small town America wears the clothing of his wife and sisters satisfied at last that he has a perfect suit of garments appropriate for my sex he commits suicide asking only that he be buried dressed as a woman A country maid has a passionate summer relationship with an heiress the memory of which sustains her for the next forty years A girl is carried by a strong wind to a place where she discovers that everything is made of candy including the queer people whom she licks and eats If these are not the kinds of stories we expect to find in nineteenth century American literature it is perhaps because we have been looking in the wrong places The stories gathered here are written by a diverse assortment of writers women and men obscure and famous Herman Melville Willa Cather and Louisa May Alcott among others Exploring the vagaries of gender identity erotic desire and affectional attachments that do not map easily onto present categories of sex and gender they celebrate mourn and question the different modes of embodiment and forgotten styles of pleasure of nineteenth century America

Bernard K. Wong,2017-04-30 Engaging with contemporary thought on love and the family Bernard Wong argues that our notion of love has been deeply influenced by modern technological culture and political ideologies leading to the detriment of familial relationships Dr Wong demonstrates how Christian doctrines can be used to critique and resist these ideologies Through a careful analysis of Christ s love expressed in his life death and resurrection the author presents a notion of Christ s love bearing the characteristics of fraternal incarnational and unfolding love These aspects of Christ s love are pertinent to the relationships between husbands and wives parents and children and families and their neighbours It is through practicing Christ s love that Christians strengthen their familial relationships and bear witness to Christ in the world

The Case Against Man and Woman - Screenplay Christopher Alan Anderson,2014-10-09 The author s original screenplay on the battle of ideas the war of world views and a philosophy on trial What will be your verdict concerning The Case Against Man and Woman we have never been able to touch the eternal for we have never understood that we can only touch it though each other A man touches the eternal in a woman when he gives his life to her That is what the sexual embrace is for a man he is giving his whole life over to woman A woman in receiving that touch unites with it and in turn gives her life to him in the next rebirth of life You see the great discovery of our times is that the procreant and the eternal are one Urge urge urge always the procreant urge of the world as Walt Whitman says in his Leaves of Grass But let us not make the mistake of seeing this procreant process as only physical It is metaphysical It is happening right now Feel it Feel your other half with you right now Touch him or her with your heart and never ever let them go The challenge of our lives is to stand on this procreant love now and forever Keywords Procreant Balance Love Man Woman Two Forces Eternal Metaphysical Philosophy Sex      Words of Weight on the Woman Question A.
