

OBJECTIVES, ROLE AND SCOPE OF MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING

Strategic Cost Management

/RCROQUE

BASIC MANAGEMENT FUNCTIONS AND CONCEPTS

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING FUNCTION provide advice based on information that is provided.

The information provided by management accounting covers all areas of strategy and operations, and includes information to assist with planning, control, and other decision-making by management.

The role of the management accountant today is more concerned with providing complex analysis and information to support business management than with providing routine reports, since much routine work is now computerized. Technology have also made it easier to provide accounting information to non-financial managers. At the same time, the areas covered by management accounting have extended and broadened to include strategic information and non-financial information, and information to support risk management. Developments in technology have also made it easier to provide accounting information to non-financial managers.

MANAGEMENT ACCOUNTING ROLE IN CROSS-FUNCTIONAL TEAMS

accountants provide information to other managers, it has become common to include management accountants within cross-functional teams, or to assign them to work with non-accounting functions.
