Ethics and Consultancy: European Perspectives Heidi von Weltzien Hoivik, Andreas Føllesdal, 2012-12-06 The present volume in a series of books produced from European Business Ethics Network EBEN conferences in Europe is a compilation of plenary speeches and papers presented at the 1993 EBEN conference in Oslo Norway The theme of this year's conference was The Use of Consultancy Ethical Demands and Requirements and there was a special focus on Eastern Europe Of over 40 papers presented at the conference from 165 participants representing 23 countries we present here 20 selected by the editors as providing an overview of the latest thinking from both academicians and practitioners on the subject of ethics in consulting Due to strict constraints on space in this volume several valuable papers presented at the conference must be published elsewhere We have also tried to maintain the unique flavor of the papers by authors whose mother tongue is not English The consulting profession is booming in Europe both in the West and in the former Communist Bloc countries However it has not previously been subjected to rigorous scrutiny from the ethical point of view The conference planning committee thus sought to put the spotlight on the spreading phenomenon of buying and selling consultancy services within the European Union within Europe and with the new Eastern Europe The conference addressed several ethical challenges facing either the buyers or providers of consultancy services in both the private and public sectors

The Professional Knowledge Economy P. Tordoir, 2012-12-06 Knowledge is the great fifth production factor in our economy besides capital labour land and entrepreneurship Perhaps it is the most precious of the five factors because it takes so much effort and money to keep it well nourished Perhaps it is the most strategic of the five factors because we depend on it to develop business the economy and the world at large in a balanced and sustainable direction Knowledge is certainly one of the least understood factors and one of the hardest to grasp This book concerns the largest pool of knowledge which is professional knowledge This form of knowledge albeit being very close to business practice is nonetheless least understood of all Economists have tried to grasp the knowledge factor measuring and assessing it in terms of the pools of R it is intrinsically tied to people the professionals Professional knowledge is the articulation of scientific and documented knowledge and the individual experience and dexterity of individuals It is for this reason that it is so hard to grasp while for this very same reason it is so close to the life of business to the shopfloor of our advanced economies
