Navigating Organizations

Through the 21st Century A Metaphor for Leadership Robert A. Wohl, JD and Louis J. Wolter, 2011-02-02. Leadership needs to go beyond what one does to achieve a particular goal or objective, financial or otherwise, or what one does to direct others to achieve them. To effectively lead an organization today, you must be like the navigators of old, watching for ever-changing winds and keeping an eye on the compass while you look out for shoals, yet always recognizing you're a part of the crew. How do you become such a person?

Entrepreneurial Leadership and Financial Stability in Nonprofit

Organizations Carolyn R. Mattocks PhD, 2017-12-12. Faced with significant budget reductions, nonprofit organizations have moved beyond being one-dimensional entities that rely only on grants. Now they attract social entrepreneurs who are determined to establish relationships before raising money, something that the late Dr. J. Gregory Dees foresaw the need for in 1998 when he wrote about a hybrid structure that was enabling nonprofit organizations to generate additional income. Ultimately, Dees concluded that the hybrid structure with a social enterprise component would slow the mission of the nonprofit organization, leaving the social entrepreneur to think about how to create innovative strategies within social entrepreneurship. This book uses a case study focusing on the nonprofit organization Rising Tide Capital by expanding the scope of Dr. Dees' research through an assessment of the meaning of social entrepreneurship, social enterprises, and financial stability. It also identifies financial stability through two processes of replication: replicable models through strategic partnerships and the mini-franchise of direct selling. Plot a path to bolster financial stability; think creatively about generating cash flow and find alternative sources of funding with this guide to operating a successful nonprofit organization
