Management Of Education In The Information Age:

Management of Education in the Information Age Ian D. Selwood, A. Fung, Christopher D. O'Mahoney, 2003-04-30
This volume presents findings and insights from contemporary thinking and research on the application of Information Technology in Educational Management. It analyzes the ways in which ICT has been used across a range of educational institutions to support various aspects of educational management. It is the latest in a series of books produced by IFIP Working Group 3.7. Information and Communication Technologies in Education Harriet Taylor, Pieter Hogenbirk, 2013-03-09
Information and Communication Technologies (ICT) have already had a significant impact on education in many countries around the world. As the Information Revolution has an impact on world society, education is seen as a priority for the developed as well as the developing countries. It is an opportune moment to reflect on current practice and consider how schools can retain what is best while changing to meet the needs and demands of the new world. This volume examines the many aspects of the integration of ICT into the school of the future. It describes the experiences of different countries in developing models of schools of the future with ICT at the foundation. It provides insights into the essential conditions for developing future new learning environments supported by ICT. It includes perspectives from both developed and developing countries as they prepare for future educational systems of the Information Age. The main themes presented in this book are: Experiences from a variety of national initiatives, policies and strategies; ICT tools for teaching and learning; Distance and online learning; Preparation of teachers for new ICT rich learning environments; Change and impact on learning of ICT; The influence of ICT on school culture and organisation; Cultural and historical perspectives; Future perspectives for the use of ICT in schools. This volume contains the selected proceedings of the International Conference on The Bookmark of the School of the Future, which was sponsored by the International Federation for Information Processing (IFIP) and held in April 2000 in Viña del Mar, Chile. Contributions from experts around the world make this volume an essential addition for professionals in the field of education, government, informatics and development. Handbook of Research on Teaching Ethics in Business and Management Education Wankel, Charles, Stachowicz-Stanusch, Agata, 2011-12-31
This book is an examination of the inattention of business schools to moral education, addressing lessons learned from the most recent business corruption scandals and financial crises, and also questioning what we are teaching now and what should be considering in educating future business leaders to cope with the challenges of leading with integrity in the global environment. Provided by publisher. Ecological Footprint of the Modern Economy and the Ways to Reduce It Bruno S. Sergi, Elena G. Popkova, Anna A. Ostrovskaya, Alexander A. Chursin, Yulia V.
