Edward Fullbrook, 2004 During a time of accelerating momentum for radical change in the study of economics A Guide to What's Wrong with Economics comprehensively re-examines the shortcomings of neoclassical economics and considers a number of alternative formulations Managerial Economics M. J. Alhabeeb, L. J. Moffitt, 2012-11-05 Uncertainty is present in every managerial decision and Managerial Economics A Mathematical Approach effectively demonstrates the application of higher level statistical tools to inform and clarify the logic of problem solving in a managerial environment While illuminating managerial decision making from all possible angles this book equips readers with the tools and skills needed to recognize and address uncertainty The book also explores individual firm and market level decisions discusses all possible risks and uncertainties encountered in the decision making process and prepares readers to deal with both epistemic and aleatory uncertainty in managerial decisions Managerial Economics features An emphasis on practical application through real life examples and problems An accessible writing style that presents technical theories in a user friendly way A mathematical and statistical point of view that reveals the presence of uncertainty inherent in managerial decisions Thoroughly class tested material including problems at the end of each chapter case study questions review exercises and objectives that summarize the main discussions Managerial Economics is an excellent book for upper undergraduate and graduate level courses in business and economics departments The book is also an ideal reference and resource for managers decision makers market analysts and researchers who require information about the theoretical and quantitative aspects of the topic Real World Economics Edward Fullbrook, 2007 Economics is extremely sick It is so locked in its past that nearly all of its introductory textbooks are modelled on one that appeared in 1948 The discipline cannot continue in its autistic state much longer This book takes you to the heart of a fiery and many faceted debate It is comprised of 66 articles that have been selected based on their importance to the reform movement and for their accessibility to the general reader Real economic problems concern real people so their analysis must be made intelligible to an educated general public if real democracy is to function All economists must learn to live without the belief that there is only one right way of describing and explaining reality This requires economists to begin the development of an ethos of honesty regarding the limitations of their chosen approaches Managerial Economics for Decision Making John Adams, Linda Juleff, 2017-09-16 Managerial Economics for Decision Making is designed for MBA and final year undergraduates taking a module in Managerial Economics The text is written in a lively and engaging style with the use of mathematics kept to a minimum Ample examples and case studies demonstrate how economics can be used as a tool to tackle issues and problems in a business and management context Multiple-Criteria Decision-Making (MCDM) Techniques and Statistics in Marketing Tarnanidis, Theodore, Papathanasiou, Jason, Ismyrlis, Vasileios, Kittu Manda, Vijaya, 2025-03-13 Marketing has become increasingly popular utilizing multi criteria decision making MCDM methods and statistics to create robust frameworks for making informed and strategic decisions Computational and modeling breakthroughs have resulted in a significant increase in the use of MCDM methods in marketing in the past decade making it an ideal solution for many marketing problems Statistics can now be used to conduct MCDM analyses on a variety of marketing problems including new product introduction and pricing using multiple data sources Businesses can make more informed strategic and effective decisions by using MCDM methods and statistical analysis in marketing By using these tools marketers can improve market performance and competitive advantage by optimizing product development pricing strategies market segmentation and campaign effectiveness Multiple Criteria Decision Making MCDM Techniques and Statistics in Marketing explores the effects of MCDM techniques on marketing practices It covers a wide range of statistics and research to examine MCDM in shaping modern consumer science This book covers topics such as management science product development and consumer behavior and is a useful resource for marketers business owners data scientists academicians and researchers Forestry Economics John

E. Wagner, 2011-07-26 Forestry Economics introduces students and practitioners to all aspects of the management and economics of forestry The book adopts the approach of managerial economics textbooks and applies this to the unique processes and problems faced by managers of forests While most forestry economics books are written by economists for future economists what many future forest and natural resource managers need is to understand what economic information is and how to use it to make better business and management decisions John E Wagner draws on his twenty years of experience teaching and working in the field of forest resource economics to present students with an accessible understanding of the unique production processes and problems faced by forest and other natural resource managers There are three unique features of this book The first is its organization The material is organized around two common economic models used in forest and natural resources management decision making The second is the use of case studies from various disciplines Outdoor and Commercial Recreation Wood Products Engineering Forest Products and Forestry The purpose of these case studies is to provide students with applications of the concepts being discussed within the text The third is revisiting the question of how to use economic information to make better business decisions at the end of each chapter This ties each chapter to the preceding ones and reinforces the hypothesis that a solid working knowledge of these economic models and the information they contain are necessary for making better business decisions This textbook is an invaluable source of clear and accessible information on forestry economics and management for not only economics students but for students of other disciplines and those already working in forestry and natural resources Textbook on Economics for Law

Students Dr. Kalpana Satija, 2009 Opportunity Donald Morris, 2013-05-28 Donald Morris's Opportunity considers choices that promise a significant change in the life of the person making the choice Morris's survey of the literature is wide ranging in terms of both literary sources and topics considered thus offering insights to a variety of readers Elizabeth R Eames Professor Emerita Philosophy Department Southern Illinois University Author of two books on Bertrand Russell's philosophy Can you recognize an opportunity when it comes your way Even though the concept seems fairly basic most people harbor regrets about missed opportunities that in retrospect might have significantly improved their lives This book will give you the critical tools to sort through the complexities that often obscure the perception of an opportunity and help you take full advantage of what author Donald Morris calls high end opportunities pivotal situations that can change your life for the better Morris begins by developing a model of opportunity in the abstract analyzing its elements and the contexts and frameworks that affect our recognition of opportunities Drawing from a wide range of applications including investing business law criminology gambling and even religion he shows how opportunities can be defined in various contexts He also examines highly undesirable situations where opportunity is lacking such as poverty and historical instances of slavery to further illustrate by way of contrast the defining characteristics of opportunity How does a significant opportunity differ from a simple option How does taking advantage of opportunities differ from being an opportunist Does our ability to predict the future affect our opportunities What do we mean by equality of opportunity By addressing these and other probing questions Morris shows how to develop more critical perceptions of real opportunities Donald Morris CPA Ph D is professor of accounting and chair of the Accounting Finance and CIS Department at Eastern New Mexico University The former owner of an accounting firm and a onetime instructor of philosophy he is the author of Dewey and the Behavioristic Context of Ethics
