Milk Horses Rebecca Newth,1998 The Year of the Horses: A Memoir Courtney Maum,2022-05-03 As seen on The Today Show A Good Morning America Vanity Fair TODAY NYLON and PureWow Best Book of May and a Publishers Weekly and Boston com Best Book of Summer An Amazon Best Book of 2022 So Far Biography Memoir Category Sharp heartfelt and cathartic The Year of the Horses captures a woman s journey out of depression and the horses that guide her physically and emotionally on a new path forward At the age of thirty seven Courtney Maum finds herself in an indoor arena in Connecticut moments away from stepping back into the saddle For her this is not just a riding lesson but a last ditch attempt to pull herself back from the brink even though riding is a relic from the past she walked away from She hasn t been on or near a horse in over thirty years Although Maum does know what depression looks like she finds herself refusing to admit at this point in her life that it could look like her a woman with a privileged past a mortgage a husband a healthy child and a published novel That she feels sadness is undeniable but she feels no right to claim it And when both therapy and medication fail Courtney returns to her childhood passion of horseback riding as a way to recover the joy and fearlessness she once had access to as a young girl As she finds her way once again through the world of contemporary horseback riding Courtney becomes reacquainted with herself not only as a rider but as a mother wife daughter writer and woman Alternating timelines and braided with historical portraits of women and horses alongside history s attempts to tame both parties The Year of the Horses is an inspiring love letter to the power of animals and humans to heal the mind and the heart Memoirs of the Geological Survey of India Geological Survey of India,1884 Memoirs of the Geological Survey of India Richard Lydekker,1884 The Autobiography of a Race Horse L. B. Yates,1920 Healed by Horses Carole Fletcher,2005 One of the best known trick trainers in the United States offers the powerful and inspiring story of a young woman s physical and psychological recovery and the key role of horses in the process Pain and Memory Gregory Tague,2009 From the PREFACE by Fredericka A Jacks publisher These writers recall not only the suffering but also the courage demonstrated by those who are sick and by those who participate in their illness The writings consistently reminded us in some ways of Paul Tillich s expression and the title to one of his books the courage to be In many of these writings the reader will be grasped by the human need for connection and the desire for existential meaning when confronted with pain and suffering In pain we suffer a fear of non existence and want to forget but in the anxiety of forgetting we risk denying life From the FOREWORD by John F Lennon PAIN AND MEMORY refuses to shy away from looking at those tender moments of pain Whether it is unflinchingly writing about the moment of death Mack the Hermit or trying to come to grips with the loss of a loved one Cartography or the reeling that happens at the end of a relationship Heartless or attempting to understand an injury After the Accident or finding the exact words to discuss the feeling of being abandoned Kiribiri this anthology does not Hollywoodize pain or sanitize its imprint on those who are affected by it Instead these stories pull back the gauze that hides

the day to day wounds of our lives and with surgical precision allows us to viscerally experience them In the process what this anthology will allow us to do as readers is revisit our own stories that we comfortably tell and retell forcing us to dissect our own memories under the harsh light of truth And if we are brave enough to look at this pain as these authors do what we might discover is a strength that reveals itself at the core of our humanity After all if it is true that from our birth to our death we are wrestling with pain then as these stories can attest we are also spending every second of this time persevering as well

George Cole - The World Was My Lobster: The Autobiography George Cole,2013-10-17 The World was my Lobster tells the story of George Cole s more than 70 years in the acting profession that began with a walk on part at the age of 14 in the stage musical The White Horse Inn in 1939 and continues today having included such roles as David Bliss in the radio and television versions of A Life of Bliss Flash Harry in the St Trinian s films and Arthur Daley in television s Minder Adopted when he was only 10 days old George Cole grew up in south London in the 1920s On the day he left school he saw a newspaper advertisement seeking a small boy to join the cast of The White Horse Inn and was selected the following day A year later he found himself in the West End play Cottage to Let playing a cheeky wartime evacuee Here he met legendary comic actor Alastair Sim who with his wife took him as an evacuee in their country house and coached him in the finer skills of acting A flurry of films and theatre performances in the late 1940s after his RAF service culminated in a memorable role as a young Ebenezer Scrooge in the classic 1951 film Scrooge alongside Sim Henry V Cleopatra with Elizabeth Taylor Don t Forget to Write Blott on the Landscape Henry Root and Dad are among other titles for which he is well known But it was in 1979 that he landed the role that would elevate him to international recognition when he was offered the role of Arthur Daley in Thames Television s new series Minder alongside Dennis Waterman In The World was my Lobster a title taken from a classic line in a Minder episode George Cole talks candidly humorously and sensitively about his adoption his life his roles and many of the people he has worked with throughout his long career

My Memoirs Charles Frederick Foreman,2008-12 Fred Foreman was born just before the great depression on the family farm near Blue Rapids Kansas His story written for his grandchildren starts with the difficult economic times for his family during his youth He describes the feelings of a young lad in his late teens who was desperately needed at home to help his family and could see no independence for himself until he was drafted into the military in 1942 It was there that he gained confidence in his own abilities and following four years of service he took advantage of the G I Bill earning B S and M S degrees from Kansas State University and the PhD at the University of Missouri in just five years He served on the faculties of Kansas State University the University of Missouri and the University of Minnesota before his 31 years at Iowa State University During his career Foreman was recognized by Iowa State University The National Dairy Shrine The American Dairy Science Association and the University of Missouri for his student teaching academic advising and leadership contributions to the dairy industry During his professional career he developed skills in the physical evaluation of dairy cattle and he describes some of his experiences in this work in 43 states and 14 foreign countries Harry Dee Memoirs Harry Dee,2016-07-06 During what came to be called the Great Depression families struggled to make ends meet In 1933 at the depth of the Depression sixteen million people one third of the labor force were unemployed In January 1934 while sixteen years old I was a sophomore a liberal arts major at Alexander Hamilton High School on Albany Avenue and the corner of Bergin Street My mother worked in Commercial Credit at National City Bank 55 Wall Street Manhattan I walked both going to school as well as returning regardless of the weather ten cents would have been the round trip fare in the Bergin Street trolley car I'd rather have spent the nickels for licorice drops Memoirs of an American Cowboy Sherman Hand, Steven A. Hand, 2008-11 These stories represent a small portion of the life and times of a man who impacted a lot of people's lives from family neighbors life long friends and recent acquaintances He has left his mark whether it was in the mountains of Wyoming the prairies of Nebraska or a stretch of highway in South Dakota They would not be what they are now in part for who he was He saw the better part of a century when the United States was coming into its own internationally brought electricity to the country and met with two of its greatest battles on its own turf He has seen man go to depths in the ocean never before possible and soared to heights far into our galaxy He has seen the development of television and computers and global positioning satellites What an ever growing world his generation has left for us and what broad shoulders on which we are able to stand This second edition reflects the editor's thoughts and sentiments after the death of his two grandparents and so puts a final chapter to close the book Memoirs of seventy years of an eventful life Charles Hulbert, 1852 Memoirs of E. Ludlow, esq: lieutenant general of the horse, commander in chief of the forces in Ireland, one of the council of state, and a member of the parliament which began on Nov. 3, 1640. (With a collection of original papers, etc.) Edmund Ludlow, 1721 The Farmer's Cabinet, and American Herd Book, 1837 Memoirs of Peasant Tolstoyans in Soviet Russia William Benbow Edgerton, 1993-09-22 Following the 1917 revolution thousands of Leo Tolstoy's Russian followers intellectuals and peasants workers and former soldiers inspired by his ideas about the great moral significance of productive labor joined together in agricultural communes believing that they would implement the ideals proclaimed by the Russian revolution the building of a humane stateless society free of violence and exploitation The goals of the Tolstoyans soon came into conflict with the policies of the Soviet state With the forced collectivization of agriculture in the late 1920s most of the Tolstoyan cooperatives were closed down however one group the Life and Labor Commune was permitted to relocate to Siberia where it became a haven for Tolstoy's peasant followers until it too was shut down on the eve of World War II Persecuted by the authorities and frequently arrested and imprisoned during the 1930s members of the Life and Labor Commune persisted in their pacifist beliefs vegetarianism and commitment to farming The powerful and moving memoirs presented here throw light on a long suppressed chapter in the history of Tolstoy's religious and social influence in the Soviet Union They also document the history of the Russian peasantry from what appears to be a unique source the peasants themselves

The Memoirs of Ceija Stojka, Child Survivor of the Romani Holocaust Ceija Stojka, 2022 First English translation of the memoirs of Austrian Romani Holocaust survivor writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933 2013 along with poems an interview historical photos and reproductions of her artworks Is this the whole world This question begins the first of three memoirs by Austrian Romani writer visual artist musician and activist Ceija Stojka 1933 2013 told from her perspective as a child interned in three Nazi concentration camps from age nine to twelve Written by a child survivor much later in life the memoirs offer insights into the nexus of narrative and extreme trauma expressing the full spectrum of human emotions fear and sorrow at losing loved ones joy and relief when reconnecting with family and friends desire to preserve some memories while attempting to erase others horror at acts of genocide and hope arising from dreams of survival In addition to annotated translations of the three memoirs the book includes two of Stojka's poems and an interview by Karin Berger editor of the original editions of Stojka's memoirs as well as color reproductions of several of her artworks and historical photographs An introduction contextualizes her works within Romani history and culture and a glossary informs the reader about the concentrationary universe. Because the memoirs show how Stojka navigated male dominated postwar Austrian culture generally discriminatory to Roma and the patriarchal aspects of Romani culture itself the book is a contribution not only to Holocaust Studies but also to Austrian Studies, Romani Studies, Women's and Gender Studies.
