Minefields And Miniskirts Australian Women And The Vietnam War:

Minefields and Miniskirts Siobhan McHugh,1993 Conscription Ho Chi Minh Robert Menzies John F Kennedy Lyndon B Johnson L B J National service Minefields and Miniskirts Terence O'Connell,2005-04-01 Adapted by Terence O Connell from award winning writer Siobhan McHugh s book Minefields and Miniskirts brings to life a collage of true stories the extraordinary experiences of the hundreds of women who played a part in the war in Vietnam Siobhan McHugh's Minefields and Miniskirts Terence O'Connell,2004 Gender and War Joy Damousi,Marilyn Lake,1995 This exciting 1995 collection of essays explores the inter relationship of gender and war in Australia Its focus is women s and men s experiences in WWI WWII and the Vietnam War Challenging the traditional images of men and women in wartime this book shows that war offers opportunities that erode gender boundaries Minefields Amd Miniskirts Siobhan McHugh,1993 Australian Women War Reporters Jeannine Baker,2015-09-01 This is the hidden story of Australian and New Zealand women war reporters who fought for equality with their male colleagues and filed stories from the main conflicts of the twentieth century In Australian Women War Reporters Jeannine Baker provides a much needed account of the pioneering women who reported from the biggest conflicts of the twentieth century Two women covered the South African War at the turn of the century and Louise Mack witnessed the fall of Antwerp in 1914 Others such Anne Matheson Lorraine Stumm and Kate Webb wrote about momentous events including the rise of Nazism the liberation of the concentration camps the aftermath of the atomic bombing of Hiroshima and the Cold War conflicts in Korea and Southeast Asia These women carved a path for new generations of female foreign correspondents who have built upon their legacy Jeannine Baker deftly draws out the links between the experiences of these women and the contemporary realities faced by women journalists of war including Monica Attard and Ginny Stein allowing us to see both in a new light Australian Soldiers in South Africa and Vietnam Effie Karageorgos,2016-03-24 The South African and Vietnam Wars provoked dramatically different reactions in Australians from pro British jingoism on the eve of Federation to the anti war protest movements of the 1960s In contrast the letters and diaries of Australian soldiers written while on the South African and Vietnam battlefields reveal that their reactions to the war they were fighting were surprisingly unlike those on the home fronts from which they came Australian Soldiers in South Africa and Vietnam follows these combat men from enlistment to the war front and analyses their words alongside theories of soldiering to demonstrate the transformation of soldiers as a response to developments in military procedure as well as changing civilian opinion In this way the book illustrates the strength of a soldier s link to their home front lives

Foundational Fictions in South Australian History Carolyn Collins,Paul Sendziuk,2018-10-15 In this lively provocative collection some of Australia s leading historians and a Miles Franklin shortlisted historical novelist challenge established myths narratives and beautiful lies about South Australia s past Some are unmasked as false stories that mask brutal realities like colonial violence while others are revealed as simplistic versions of more complex truths Each generation writes history that speaks to its own interests and concerns write historians Paul Ashton and Anna Clark In Foundational Fictions in South Australian History which grew out of a series of public lectures at the University of Adelaide an impressive range of contributors suggest different ways in which familiar narratives of South Australia can be interpreted These essays tap into wider debates too about the nature and purpose of history and the history wars first flamed by John Howard Stuart Macintyre highlights South Australia s central role in several national events Humphrey McQueen questions the origins and influence of the money behind South Australia s so called progressive founding Lucy Treloar suggests historians can learn from novelists when it comes to understanding the past Steven Anderson argues that Don Dunstan s achievement in abolishing capital punishment owed much to a historical movement And Carolyn Collins highlights the role of anti conscription group Save Our Sons SOS in not just ending the Vietnam War but broadening the appeal of the anti war movement

Historical Dictionary of the War in Vietnam Ronald B. Frankum Jr., 2011-06-10 For Southeast Asia the Vietnam War altered forever the history topography people economy and politics of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam DRV the Republic of Vietnam RVN Cambodia and Laos That the war was controversial is an understatement as is the notion that the war can be understood from any one perspective One way of understanding the Vietnam War is by marking its time with turning points both major and minor that involved events or decisions that helped to influence its course in the years to follow By examining a few of these turning points an organizational framework takes shape that makes understanding the war more possible Historical Dictionary of the War in Vietnam emphasizes the international nature of the war as well as provide a greater understanding of the long scope of the conflict The major events associated with the war will serve as the foundation of the book while additional entries will explore the military diplomatic political social and cultural events that made the war unique While military subjects will be fully explored there will be greater attention to other aspects of the war All of this is done through a chronology an introductory essay an extensive bibliography and over 600 cross referenced dictionary entries This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Vietnam War

The Women and War Reader Lois Ann Lorentzen, Jennifer E. Turpin, 1998-07 Women play many roles during wartime This compelling study brings together the work of foremost scholars on women and war to address questions of ethnicity women and the war complex peacemaking motherhood and more It leaves behind outdated arguments about militarist men and pacifist women while still recognizing differences in men s and women s relationships to war

The Cost of War Professor Stephen Garton, 2020-04-01 War has shaped Australian society profoundly When we commemorate the sacrifices of the Anzacs we rightly celebrate their bravery but we do not always acknowledge the complex aftermath of combat In The Cost of War Stephen Garton traces the experiences of Australia s veterans and asks what we can learn from their stories He considers the long term effects of war on returned servicemen and women on their families and communities and on Australian public life He describes attempts to respond to the physical and psychological wounds of combat from the first victims of shellshock during WWI to more recent understandings of post traumatic stress disorder And he examines the political and social repercussions of war including debates over how we should commemorate conflict and how society should respond to the needs of veterans When the first edition of The Cost of War appeared in 1996 it offered a ground breaking new perspective on the Anzac experience In this new edition Garton again makes a compelling case for a more nuanced understanding of the individual and collective costs of war

Women and War in the 21st Century Margaret D. Sankey, 2018-08-17 Twenty three countries currently allow women to serve in front line combat positions and others with a high likelihood of direct enemy contact This book examines how these decisions did or did not evolve in 47 countries This timely and fascinating book explores how different countries have determined to allow women in the military to take on combat roles whether out of a need for personnel a desire for the military to reflect the values of the society or the opinion that women improve military effectiveness or in contrast have disallowed such a move on behalf of the state In addition many countries have insurgent or dissident factions in that have led armed resistance to state authority in which women have been present requiring national militaries and peacekeepers to engage them incorporate them or disarm and deradicalize them This country by country analysis of the role of women in conflicts includes insightful essays on such countries as Afghanistan China Germany Iraq Israel Russia and the United States Each essay provides important background information to help readers to understand the cultural and political contexts in which women have been integrated into their countries militaries have engaged in combat during the course of conflict and have come to positions of political power that affect military decisions

Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend Dr Donna Coates, 2023-11-01 War is traditionally considered a male experience By extension the genre of war literature is a male dominated field and the tale of the battlefield remains the privileged and only canonised war story In Australia although women have written extensively about their wartime experiences their voices have been distinctively silenced Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend calls for a re definition of war literature to include the numerous voices of women writers and further recommends a re reading of Australian national literatures with women s war writing foregrounded to break the hold of a male dominated literary tradition and pass on a vital but unexplored women s tradition Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend examines the rich body of World Wars I and II and Vietnam War literature by Australian women providing the critical attention and treatment that they deserve Donna Coates records the reaction of Australian women writers to these conflicts illuminating the complex role of gender in the interpretation of war and in the cultural history of twentieth century Australia By visiting an astonishing number of unfamiliar non canonical texts Shooting Blanks at the Anzac Legend profoundly alters our understanding of how Australian women writers have interpreted war especially in a nation where the experience of colonising a frontier has spawned enduring myths of identity and statehood

Wee Girls Lizz Murphy, 1996 This is a selection of writings by women from Ireland Australia England Canada and other countries compiled and edited by Irish Australian poet Lizz Murphy A moving and often amusing collection of fiction poetry and autobiography by top selling and award winning writers There is a wildness and daring in these voices They call up the legions out of the sea and set fires alight They hang out over garden fences move restlessly are beaming weeping powerful

Living with the Aftermath Joy Damousi, 2001 This text on shifting patterns of mourning and grief focuses on the experiences of Australian women who lost their husbands during World War II and the wars in Korea and Vietnam It makes use of oral testimonies to illustrate how widows internalized the traumas of their husband's war experience

Mediating Memory Bunty Avieson, Fiona Giles, Sue Joseph, 2017-10-16 The argument has been made that memoir reflects and augments the narcissistic tendencies of our neo liberal age Mediating Memory Tracing the Limits of Memoir challenges and dismantles that assumption Focusing on the history theory and practice of memoir writing editors Bunty Avieson Fiona Giles and Sue Joseph provide a thorough and cutting edge examination of memoir through the lenses of ethics practice and innovation By investigating memoir across cultural boundaries in its various guises and tracing its limits the editors convincingly demonstrate the plurality of ways in which memoir is helping us make sense of who we are who we were and the influences that shape us along the way

An American Brothel Amanda Boczar, 2022-02-15 In An American Brothel Amanda Boczar considers sexual encounters between American servicemen and civilians throughout the Vietnam War and she places those fraught and sometimes violent meetings in the context of the US military and diplomatic campaigns In 1966 US Senator J William Fulbright declared that Saigon has become an American brothel Concerned that as US military involvement in Vietnam increased so too had prostitution black market economies and a drug trade fueled by American dollars Fulbright decried an arrogance of power on the part of Americans and the corrosive effects unchecked immorality could have on Vietnam as well as on the war effort The symbol at home and abroad of the sweeping social and cultural changes was often the so called South Vietnamese bar girl As the war progressed peaking in 1968 with more than half a million troops engaged the behavior of soldiers off the battlefield started to impact affect the conflict more broadly Beyond the brothel shocking revelations of rapes and the increase in marriage applications complicated how the South Vietnamese and American allies cooperated and managed social behavior Strictures on how soldiers conducted themselves during rest and relaxation time away from battle further eroded morale of disaffected servicemen The South Vietnamese were loath to loosen moral restrictions and feared deleterious influence of a permissive Western culture on their society From the consensual to the coerced sexual encounters shaped the Vietnam War Boczar shows that these encounters sometimes facilitated and sometimes banned by the US military command restructured the South Vietnamese economy captivated international attention dictated military policies and hung over diplomatic relations during and after the war

APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , Transnational Protest, Australia and the 1960s Jon Piccini, 2016-05-09 Australia is rarely considered to have been a part of the great political changes that swept the world in the 1960s the struggles of the American civil rights movement student revolts in Europe guerrilla struggles across the Third World and demands for women's and gay liberation This book tells the story of how Australian activists from a diversity of movements read about borrowed from physically encountered and critiqued overseas manifestations of these rebellions as well as locating the impact of radical visitors to the nation It situates Australian protest and reform movements within a properly global and particularly Asian context where Australian protestors sought answers utopias and allies Dramatically broadens our understanding of Australian protest movements this book presents them not only as manifestations of local issues and causes but as fundamentally tied to ideas developments and personalities overseas particularly to socialist states and struggles in near neighbours like Vietnam Malaysia and China Jon Piccini is Research and Teaching Fellow at The University of Queensland Brisbane Australia His research interests include the history of human rights and social histories of international student migration Womanspeak ,1991
