Nature God And Pulpit:

Nature, God and Pulpit Elizabeth Achtemeier, 1992-11-06 This is a print on demand book and is therefore non returnable
A book whose time has come Nature God and Pulpit draws together and interprets for the church and especially for preachers the biblical materials on the relationship between God and his creation The book is particularly timely because as Elizabeth Achtemeier points out few subjects have been more neglected and less explicated by this country s pulpits than the relation between nature and God Clearly articulating what the Bible says about the material world and God s relation to it this book is all of the following A thoughtful biblical response to recent discussions of ecology A discerning corrective to many current theologies and ideologies An appreciative summary of the findings and notions of modern science A mother lode of materials and sample sermons on the relation of God to his creation A passionate call for preachers to more thoroughly examine and articulate scriptural content An eloquent and inspiring celebration of God in relation to his world While written primarily for preachers Nature God and Pulpit will provide provocative reading for many others as well seminarians homiletics students teachers and anybody who wishes to better understand the Christian view of the bond between Creator and creation Nature's God Matthew Stewart, 2014-06-24 Longlisted for the National Book Award Where did the ideas come from that became the cornerstone of American democracy America s founders intended to liberate us not just from one king but from the ghostly tyranny of supernatural religion Drawing deeply on the study of European philosophy Matthew Stewart brilliantly tracks the ancient pagan and continental ideas from which America s revolutionaries drew their inspiration In the writings of Spinoza Lucretius and other great philosophers Stewart recovers the true meanings of Nature s God the pursuit of happiness and the radical political theory with which the American experiment in self government began Common Places in Christian Theology Mark C. Mattes, 2023-03-21 Common Places in Christian Theology invites readers to discover the rich and complex world of Christian theology Sponsored by the journal Lutheran Quarterly and written by some of the finest contemporary Lutheran theologians this collection of essays helps Christian teachers understand and explain the grammar and inner logic of faith Exploring everything from scriptural authority to salvation and justification and the last things these writers provide a unique and compelling introduction to Lutheran theology As you receive the essentials of each topic you will also consider contemporary concerns whether in theology or from the natural sciences social sciences political theories or hermeneutics Whether you are a seasoned preacher looking to sharpen your understanding of faith or a curious Christian seeking to better articulate your relationship with God Common Places in Christian Theology will challenge and inspire you to think through your faith and share it with others Dusty Earthlings John Mustol, 2018-01-01 The Lord God formed a man from the dust of the ground Genesis 2 7 Made of dust we humans are thoroughly physical beings We are dusty earthlings As such we are also ecological beings or rather eco physical beings firmly embedded in and dependent upon God s earthly ecosystems which support and provide for us and constitute our earthly home Today we are living in ways that are damaging our home As Christian dusty earthlings we are called to oversee God s earthly creation and to follow Jesus Christ God incarnated as a dusty earthling How do we do this in the face of the array of ecological problems we face today How can we obey the ecological principles and limits that govern all of life on God s good earth Mustol argues that the virtues of humility voluntary self limitation and the principles of kenosis and justice will help as we seek to follow Jesus as dusty earthlings in today s world Women, Church, and Leadership: New Paradigms Eunjoo Mary Kim, Deborah Beth Creamer, 2012-04-06 This book is about leadership a scholarly and pastoral response to the urgent demand for the renewal of the contemporary Christian church It challenges readers to articulate the identity and vision of the church in new ways and encourages them to revitalize their ministry with fresh insight and passion from women s perspectives The eight essays written by female scholars in relation to various areas of theological study and the nine pastoral responses to the essays written by ministers from seven different denominations based on their experiences of actual ministerial settings provide new paradigms of church leadership theologically profound practically relevant and historically timely This volume a product of a collaborative process between academia and church promises to be a most useful resource to renew the leadership of the church and its vocational commitment to the transformation of the church and society Lament-Driven Preaching Eliana Ah-Rum Ku, 2024-03-04 This book challenges Christian communities to engage in lament a mode of existence characterized by impassioned expression witnessing and personal or social protest in the face of evil and injustice reflecting a profound yearning for God s saving presence Divine lament responds to and expresses solidarity with human suffering unveiling multiple facets of God s image and demonstrating a profound sense of divine compassion Drawing on the Book of Lamentations Korean concepts related to suffering han and hanpuri the Paschal Triduum narratives and recent homiletic discourses on suffering the author investigates how complex issues related to grief and hope can be addressed in preaching without diminishing the harsh reality of affliction Designed to assist preachers this book encourages a more intentional approach to addressing suffering specifically by advocating for lament as a transitional space between affliction and hope Furthermore readers are invited to contemplate the significance of the church which within a world in decline embodies the body of Christ manifesting both the demise and resurrection of God California "where Sets the Sun", 1876-1904 Eliza A. Otis, 1905 God's Grand Design William R. Arnold, 2021-06-30 God s Grand Design By William R Arnold Edited by Ms Aurora Payad Arnold God s Grand Design is to restore mankind to its original state of sacred perfection after Adam and Eve fell and created the original sin of disobedience hiding and lying to the Lord When God cursed the serpent for tempting Adam and Eve to be like God he promised to send his only begotten Son to save humanity He did via the incarnate word in the womb of the immaculately conceived Virgin Mary God wants to be man and receive a new body to defeat death through Jesus Christ Man wants to become God to receive eternal life Man s journey to become God starts from being an ignorant baby gaining knowledge to a cowardly teenager obtaining courage to an adult converting greed to generosity to a wise man changing selfishness to unselfishness and at last to a free man able to think for himself in eternal service to God in his kingdom The journey requires him to know right from wrong good from evil and God's will from man's will and thus defeat evil worldly temptations and demonic possession Through Christ God and man are destined to become one through three advents making the God-Man-Christ into the new human spirit blessings Then the Man-God Jesus becomes the new human flesh to make all things perfect in the sight of God Jesus Christ came as a priest on a donkey to decode the Torah bring knowledge and remove blindness to defeat sin By his death and resurrection he granted free redemption to man's flesh to give him a new body The second coming of Jesus Christ as thief in the night will bring awakening to remove deafness by teaching God's truths to defeat evil As a just judge on a cloud on his third advent the Lord will remove mankind's dumbness to defeat death And then man can become worthy of receiving God's rewards of paradise in heaven or heaven on earth

California "Where Sets the Sun" Eliza A. Otis, 1905 Writings in poetry and prose Nature Sermons Charles Edward Jefferson, 1925 Remember Creation Scott Hoezee, 1998 Why is it that many Christians find a theological scientific debate about creation's ancient origins far more engaging than a speech about how to live responsibly in the creation today Are we more fascinated by academic debates that focus our gaze on what happened long ago than by the hands-on discussions that focus our gaze on the world of wonders outside our windows right now In Remember Creation Scott Hoezee challenges readers to make today's world more central to the Christian faith by enjoying and preserving God's cosmos as a part of daily discipleship Solidly grounded in a wealth of Scripture passages this book reveals God's ecology of praise which all Christians should want to explore and preserve Throughout the book Hoezee also offers suggestions to help congregations families and all Christians to take more delight in God's world while working to keep alive the wonders that bring God joy Scott Hoezee adds a refreshing new twist to the discussion on the environment Shouldn't we start by simply enjoying creation and honoring it for what it is With illustrations both biblical and personal Hoezee makes a compelling case Philip Yancey Christian Register and Boston Observer, 1929 A Trinitarian Theology of Nature Lianne Winslow, 2020-03-20

In its attempt to ascertain the mechanisms of nature contemporary science seems to be generating unanswerable questions One way forward might be by appealing to a theistic metaphysics of the fundamental workings in natural science Moving beyond Barth's objection to natural theology this work arrives at some of Emil Brunner's exegetical insights indicating that nature is divine communication This communication and revelation is understood through natural types or onto-types building upon the insights of Jonathan Edwards Edwards proposed messages in nature as a language of God intending to convey spiritual biblical and theological messages to the creature as part of God's end in creating Edwards's insights are brought forth to determine the usefulness of his typological method all the way down to cellular and molecular mechanisms Edwards also proposed that God's acting in nature reflects the Trinitarian God of the Christian faith Therefore a Trinitarian theology of Nature composing a Theology of Nature a Christology of Nature and a Pneumatology of Nature explores how each divine person of the Godhead acts in perichoretic unity in the world we encounter God's Trinitarian powerful and magnificent glory is not merely displayed by what has been made but is also intimately shared in a gospel of nature

The Essential Nature of New Testament Preaching Robert H. Mounce, 2005-12-01 This book makes plain that the man in the pulpit occupies a position of unrivaled significance in the life and destiny of his fellow man. It concerns the kerygma or as Professor A. M. Hunter of King's College Aberdeen states in the Foreword the preached Gospel which the first heralds of Christ proclaimed to the great pagan world of their day that Gospel which after nineteen centuries remains the Word from the Beyond for our human predicament. It tells what the Proclamation really was and how it runs like a golden thread through the whole New Testament. Dr. Mounce introduces his study with a survey of related terms as they appear in classical Greek, proceeds to show the role of the herald in the life and culture of the Old Testament world through a careful investigation of the Septuagint and more importantly gives a detailed analysis of the nature of preaching as it occurs in the New Testament itself. The closing chapter forcibly demonstrates that true Christian preaching has ever been and always should be the medium through which God contemporizes His historic self-disclosure in Christ and offers man the opportunity to respond in faith. As a study of the heart of the joyful message that the first heralds of Christianity proclaimed, this book breaks fresh ground for a new understanding of the vital significance of preaching.

The New Generation of Worshipers in the 21st Century Pastor Stephen Kyeyune, 2010-05 This book is good for all classes of people both lay men and clergy men. It covers the lifestyle of a believer and the ordained way that God intended us to worship Him. This book is meant to revive the worship of this generation.

An Able and Faithful Ministry James M. Garretson, 2014-03-03 Samuel Miller 1769-1850 played an integral part in founding Princeton Theological Seminary which became one of the most influential training grounds for Presbyterian ministers in the nineteenth century. While Miller is most commonly remembered for his writings on church office, he also played a significant role instructing students and shaping their theology of preaching and pastoral ministry. In the present volume, Jim Garretson highlights the narrative of Miller's life and the major ministerial emphases found in his published writings, sermons, and unpublished lecture notes. As a result, readers will come to know the spiritual convictions of Miller's heart and understand the theology of ministry he imparted over the course of his lifetime.
