Nazare Men And Women In A Prebureaucratic Portuguese Village:

Women and Authority in Early Modern Spain Allyson M. Poska, 2005-12-08 Using a wide array of archival documentation including Inquisition records wills dowry contracts folklore and court cases Poska examines how early modern Spanish peasant women asserted and perceived their authority within the family and community and how the large numbers of female headed households in the region functioned in the absence of men The New Invitation to

Anthropology Luke Eric Lassiter, Eric I. Karchmer, Dana E. Powell, 2023-10-09 Born within and against the violence of European colonial conquest anthropology has aspired to understand the diversity of human experience in ethical and transformative ways The New Invitation to Anthropology is a fresh and accessible text that takes students to the heart of the discipline and reveals the ongoing relevance of anthropology today The New Invitation to Anthropology Fifth Edition has an intimate touch that invites students in and helps them understand the historical roots of anthropology and its connection to recent social and political issues Part I covers the history of the discipline the emergence of the concept of culture and ethnographic field methods in relation to European imperialism and discourses on race Part II illustrates how the concept of culture shaped specific domains of anthropological study including ecological adaptation social class gender family marriage religion and medicine As a timely and engaging non textbook The New Invitation to Anthropology explores anthropological perspectives on real world problems helping students think like anthropologists and become better citizens of the world New To This Edition Significantly revised Chapter 1 The Origins of North American Anthropology demonstrates how modern anthropology emerged out of 19th century theories of race and social evolutionism and develops critical understandings of modern forms of racism New sections on social class and globalization in Chapter 4 offer insights into the complexities of modern global problems like climate change New elaborations of intersectionality in Chapter 5 Sex Gender and Inequality reinforces discussions of gender based inequality Chapter 7 on religious experience now incorporates healing and medicine to expand a framework of studying belief and experience Nazaré Jan Brøgger, 1992 This remarkable study of Nazar a

Portuguese fishing community is much more than an ethnography of small traditional village It is an analysis of styles of social relationship that appear to have been in force in greater Europe before the rise of capitalism and industrial civilization A prebureaucratic style Page vi Port Towns and Urban Cultures Brad Beaven, Karl Bell, Robert James, 2016-05-04 Despite the port's prominence in maritime history its cultural significance has long been neglected in favour of its role within economic and imperial networks Defined by their intersection of maritime and urban space port towns were sites of complex cultural exchanges This book the product of international scholarship offers innovative and challenging perspectives on the cultural histories of ports ranging from eighteenth century Africa to twentieth century Australasia and Europe The essays in this important collection explore two key themes the nature and character of sailortown culture and port town life and the representations of port towns that were forged both within and beyond urban maritime communities The book's exploration of port town identities and cultures and its use of a rich array of methodological approaches and cultural artefacts will make it of great interest to both urban and maritime historians It also represents a major contribution to the emerging interdisciplinary field of coastal studies Masculinity in the Reformation Era Scott E. Hendrix, Susan C.

Karant-Nunn, 2008-05-01 These essays add a unique perspective to studies that reconstruct the identity of manhood in early modern Europe including France Switzerland Spain and Germany The authors examine the ways in which sixteenth and seventeenth century authorities both secular and religious labored to turn boys and men into the Christian males they desired Topics include disparities among gender paradigms that early modern models prescribed and the tension between the patriarchal model and the civic duties that men were expected to fulfill Essays about Martin Luther a prolific self witness look into the marriage relationship with its expected and actual gender roles Contributors to this volume are Scott H Hendrix Susan C Karant Nunn Raymond A Mentzer Allyson M Poska Helmut Puff Karen E Spierling Ulrike Strasser B Ann Tlusty and Merry E Wiesner Hanks To be a Sailor's Wife Hanna Hagmark-Cooper, 2012-01-17 The duality of maritime family life the relationship between reconstruction and discourse and the symbolic status of the seafarer's wife are at the core of this book which brings maritime women's experiences to the fore widening the perspective of maritime history Based on the collected life stories of seafarers' wives from the land Islands in Baltic Sea Hanna Hagmark Cooper draws attention to the cyclical nature of maritime family life and to the seafarers' wives' perception of leading two parallel lives one when they are on their own and one with their husbands at home The author considers how discourses change over time and colour narratives and she investigates the women's attitudes to the myths surrounding the image of the seafarer's wife The Anthropology of Health and Healing Mari Womack, 2010 The Anthropology of Health and Healing provides the first holistic approach to the study of medical anthropology Over the past two decades medical anthropology has been the most rapidly growing subfield in anthropology and a number of medical anthropology texts have been published focusing primarily on public policy and health care delivery systems Yet while anthropologists have researched topics related to medical anthropology for more than one hundred years here Mari Womack thoroughly surveys this richly diverse field and provides an integrated approach that links together the biological psychological social communicative epidemiological philosophical historical and developmental factors that shape health and healing Book jacket From Cabin 'Boys' to Captains Jo Stanley, 2016-04-04 Traditionally a woman's place was never on stormy seas But actually thousands of dancers purserettes doctors stewardesses captains and conductresses have taken to the waves on everything from floating palaces to battered windjammers Their daring story is barely known even by today's seawomen From before the 1750s women fancying an oceangoing life had either to disguise themselves as cabin boys or acquire a co operative husband with a ship attached Early pioneers faced superstition and discrimination in the briny monasteries Today women captain cruise ships as big as towns and work at the highest level in the global maritime industry This comprehensive exploration looks at the Merchant Navy comparing it to the Royal Navy in which Wrens only began sailing in 1991 Using a wide variety of interviews and sources Jo Stanley vividly reveals the incredible journey across time taken by these brave and lively women salts The White Man Will Eat You! William Edward Wormsley,1993 After spending years as an integral part of the Imbonggu community Wormsley provides special insight into the lives of these people In this fascinating narrative readers learn about the Imbonggu s social structure political process leadership social and economic exchange and obligations bridewealth religion and magic as well as what it is like to be an anthropologist Invitation to Anthropology Luke E. Lassiter,2009 Lassiter s accessible introduction to anthropology encourages students to evaluate its relevance in our increasingly complex world Part I focuses on the underlying assumptions and concepts that have driven anthropological theory and practice since its modern inception Part II explores cross cultural human issues showing how anthropological studies offer relevant insight into human beings and valuable models for thinking and acting Invitation to Anthropology is an ideal text for undergraduate students easily supplemented with case studies in anthropology Nazaré Jan Brøgger,1992 This remarkable study of Nazar a Portuguese fishing community is much more than an ethnography of small traditional village It is an analysis of styles of social relationship that appear to have been in force in greater Europe before the rise of capitalism and industrial civilization A prebureaucratic style Page vi Carnival and Culture David D. Gilmore,1998-01-01 An exploration of the meanings of the Andalusian carnival focusing in particular on the songs or coplas The author offers translations of many of these carnival productions and contends that they are less about revolution or politics than about the ambivalence of all human feeling Invitation to Anthropology Luke Eric Lassiter,2014-01-09 In this concise introduction to cultural anthropology now in its 4th edition Lassiter takes a fresh and accessible approach to stimulating student interest in the human experience He uses timely and engaging examples to showcase the ongoing relevance of anthropology today He also explores how the anthropological perspective can be applied to real world problems on the local regional and global scale The 4th edition features updates and clarifications throughout the text including expanded discussion of evolution language fieldwork gender identities and belief systems New Anthropology Here and Now sidebars encourage readers to delve deeper into particular subjects and to connect with current and ongoing conversations among working anthropologists Taken as a whole the book serves as an ideal text for introductory undergraduate courses Anthropologica ,1999 Portuguese Studies Review ,1993 Himalayan Herders Naomi Hawes Bishop,1998 This first general case study about the Sherpa people in the Yolmo region of Nepal helps to place the more familiar Sherpa of the Solu Khumbu region of Mt Everest in comparative context This study provides an ethnographic description of a village within the broad context of human adaptation to mountain environments Tibetan regional cultures and culture change The Isthmus Zapotecs Beverly Chiñas,1992 Originally published Fort Worth Texas Harcourt Brace Jovanovich College Publishers 1992 Lives on the Line Alexandra Brewis,1996 Intended as a supplement to women s studies human ecology medical anthropology or Pacific anthropology courses LIVES ON THE LINE examines women s issues in Butaritari an equatorial Pacific atoll 15 kilometers long and a few hundred meters wide This case study shows how the constraints of ecology and the contingencies of history weave through patterns of human activity on Butaritari Atoll

Ethnology ,1997 The Mi'kmaq Harald E. L. Prins,1996 This book details the historical dynamics that have marked their culture over the last 500 years It chronicles the endurance of a tribal nation its ordeals in the face of colonialism and its current struggle for self determination and cultural revitalization
