An original psychological adventure from the author of the Philip K Dick award winning Burton Swinburne series. A tale of Good and Evil where neither is what it seems. With him is Miss Clarissa Stark, a crippled hunchback of exceptional ability, wronged by an aristocrat and cast out from society. On the planet Ptallaya, under two bright yellow suns, they encounter the Yatsill, a race of enthusiastic mimics who shape their society after impressions picked up from Clarissa's mind. Creating a faux London, the alien creatures enroll Clarissa in their Council of Magicians and Aiden in the City Guard. But why does the peaceful city require guards? After a day that in earthly terms has lasted for months, the answer comes for on this planet without night a red sun also rises and brings with it a destructive evil. The Blood Gods' hideous creatures they cause Aiden to confront his own internal darkness while trying to protect his friend and his new home. With a sharp eye for period detail and a rich imagination, Mark Hodder establishes a weirdly twisted version of Victorian London on a convincingly realized alien world and employs them to tackle a profound psychological and moral question. This book breaks new ground by combining the Sword Planet genre with Victorian steampunk while adding an edgy psychological twist. From the Trade Paperback edition.
