Building Art Paul Goldberger, 2017-11-14 From Pulitzer Prize-winning critic Paul Goldberger, a full-fledged critical biography of Frank Gehry, undoubtedly the most famous architect of our time. Fascinating. An informative, startling journey into the inner sanctums of modern architecture's power structure. The New York Times Book Review. Riveting. Full of little-known facts about the Pritzker Prize winner that will surprise the most knowledgeable. Gehry's architectural digest. Goldberger follows Gehry from his humble origins, the son of working-class Jewish immigrants in Toronto, to the heights of his extraordinary career. He explores Gehry's relationship to Los Angeles, a city that welcomed outsider artists and profoundly shaped him in his formative years. He surveys the full range of his work, from the Bilbao Guggenheim to the Walt Disney Concert Hall in L.A. to the architect's own home in Santa Monica, which galvanized his neighbors and astonished the world. He analyzes his carefully crafted persona, in which an amiable surface masks a driving ambition. And he discusses his use of technology, not just to change the way a building looks but to revolutionize the very practice of the field. Comprehensive and incisive, Building Art is a sweeping view of a singular artist and an essential story of architecture's modern era.

It Happened in the Old West Erin H. Turner, 2017-06-01 These are the stories of what happened in the West as the trickle then flood of Easterners and immigrants first began to flow into the plains, deserts, and mountains between the Pacific Ocean and the Mississippi River, and finally far north into The Last Frontier. While some events would have happened regardless of who was there, earthquakes, storms, droughts, and other natural disasters, it was because of this influx of humanity that those events were recorded and have become part of America's history. Amid tales of loss and horror are accounts of survival and success. And among the countless adventurers who found the lure of wide open spaces and untapped resources to be as strong as the Sirens' song to Odysseus, many found the determination to thrive in the West. And thrive they did, even better for what they lacked in resources, they made up in resourcefulness, becoming inventors, entrepreneurs, scientists, activists, explorers, and more.
