Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving Michelle M. Falter, Steven T. Bickmore, 2018-11-23 Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving considers how secondary English language arts teachers and teacher educators can sensitively and thoughtfully teach pieces of literature in their classrooms in which large scale deaths are a significant if not central aspect of the texts As mass shootings and violence against black and brown bodies increase and issues such as AIDS war and genocide remain important to discuss as part of a shared critical and social consciousness this book provides resources for educators to directly tackle and discuss these topics through the texts they read in their ELA classrooms Whether it is canonical or contemporary literature middle grades or young adult literature fiction nonfiction or graphic novels literature provides a vehicle to have these difficult but needed conversations about not only the personal but social effects of death and grief in our society Each chapter in this book focuses on 1-2 texts and provides practical activities that ask students to engage with death dying and loss through writing assignments projects activities and discussion prompts in order to build empathy understanding and develop critically minded and engaged students Moving Beyond Personal Loss to Societal Grieving will be of interest to English language arts teachers teacher educators librarians and scholars who wish to explore with their students the complex emotions that revolve around discussing deaths that occur in literature

Loss, Grief and Transformation Shoshana Ringel, 2021-10-21 This book is a timely and relevant book for psychotherapists and psychoanalysts who process loss both in their own lives and in the lives of their patients offering perspectives from a range of theoretical backgrounds clinical vignettes and personal insights This volume addresses the scope of grief and mourning between the therapeutic dyad and carefully examines how the patient and therapist experience intersect and imbue the analytic space and the therapeutic process The book examines personal loss of parents and partners as well as loss generated by mass trauma through the lens of the Holocaust the immigrant experience the COVID 19 pandemic and the environment There are chapters that cover how the lost other continues to live within one's mind and within the analytic relationship how loss impacts one's internal self system and how loss associated with traumatic experience with the deceased continues to reverberate With a unique focus on the therapist's personal experience of loss and how it shapes the clinical situation as well as a broad range of perspectives on managing and working with loss in patients this is an invaluable book for all practicing psychoanalysts and psychotherapists
