What Now?: Finding Renewed Life in Christ After Loss Kaitlyn Odom Fiedler, 2023-04-04 How do you find hope after loss Kaitlyn Odom Fiedler was eight years old when she woke up alone in a hospital room the victim of a horrible car accident that had claimed the lives of six of her family members as they traveled on their way to vacation at the beach Left with only one living brother young Kaitlyn was left with the question What now How do you find hope after loss Twenty years later Kaitlyn has found her hope and wants to encourage others as they struggle with their own trials What Now Finding Renewed Life in Christ After Loss brings a refreshing perspective of hope and will help answer the questions of how to move forward not just move on when it seems there is nothing left on which to cling Readers will discover how Kaitlyn moved from questioning to trusting God in times of sorrow and they will find hope and healing in their own grief journey along the way Endorsements In What Now Kaitlyn shares her pain struggle and personal wrestling with grief love and hope with courageous vulnerability Although her story is her own she invites us to find our own stories in it and by doing so we find hope outside of ourselves Kaitlyn writes as if she is introducing us to her family her home and her hope She has found Christ sustaining patient and present and introduces Him as one friend introduces another Lee Anne Cavin Grace Church Campus Support Staff Kaitlyn opens the door to her grief and invites you in Asking the question What now she gently places your hand in the hand of Jesus and walks with you into the light of healing and hope Hers is a story honestly told laying her suffering open welcoming you to share with her God s living and sufficient grace Georgia

Tanner Author of Genesis Small Stories of a Big God What Now challenged me to see God's goodness amid insurmountable suffering Kaitlyn's use of storytelling kept me engaged and inspired With vulnerability and boldness Kaitlyn shares her experience of unimaginable loss and brings hope to hurting people This book will support people who have encountered trauma suffering or loss and What Now will guide the rest of us as we journey with them Peter Hyatt Campus Minister Clemson Baptist Collegiate Ministry In her book What Now Kaitlyn did a phenomenal job of addressing an extremely painful topic and shared openly and honestly about her journey through her own grief What she revealed depicts a process that can make or break a person Kaitlyn genuinely is a wounded healer who can understand another's pain and also know that there is light that can come out of darkness Vicky Maclin Psy D Associate Professor at Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary Charlotte and Psychological Associate In What Now Kaitlyn shares her story with raw vulnerability and I felt immediately connected to her Throughout her story you will be inspired by her strength and amazed at the faithfulness of our great God This book is a survival guide for anyone who needs a reminder that God is good and our strength in times of hardship Grace Valentine Author of four best selling books and host of Water Into Wine podcast In his book The Wounded Healer Henri Nouwen wrote that The great illusion of leadership is to think that man can be led out of the desert by someone who has never been there Kaitlyn has been in the desert of great pain and loss And she's emerged as a wounded healer able to speak with both awareness and hope for those who find themselves in the throes of grief Chrystie Cole Author of Redeeming Sexuality and A Woman's Words How Children Grieve Corinne Masur, 2024-07-09 Understand how children process grief at every age and stage of development in this accessible guide for parents and caretakers An award winning childhood grief expert shares clinically informed advice for supporting kids and teens through difficult times from family deaths and lost pets to unexpected moves and beyond A necessary and impactful guide to understanding children's grief from the inside and to guiding children through loss from the death of a parent and other family members to the loss of friends pets and even the family home Dr Masur an award winning clinical psychologist specializing in grief and mourning describes how to understand help and guide children at each age and stage of development and uses her own childhood experience with loss through empathetic yet clinically informed advice When Dr Masur was fourteen years old her father died Like most children and teens facing loss Masur didn't know how to handle her grief and she was never encouraged to acknowledge or share what she was feeling with her family teachers or friends Her experience of shock and emotional paralysis around her loss is what led her to become an expert in childhood grief in order to help grieving children and to help others to support the children in their lives who have experienced loss As a psychologist and child psychoanalyst Dr Masur has helped many children recognize and express their feelings after loss In How Children Grieve Masur shares her expertise with caregivers of all kinds giving them the tools they need to help a child or teenager mourn move forward and make meaning of terrible loss

understand their difficulties Most children have secret worlds but for some these worlds contain secrets that are both permanent and damaging Originally published in 1992 this moving account of the secret lives of such vulnerable and disturbed children will enable professionals working with these children to find out what is going on in their minds what they are thinking what they are feeling why they behave as they do The contributors all experts in their field at the time show how vulnerable children can be assessed and how they can be helped most effectively Living in the Victory of Jesus Aloysious Okechukwu Ogbonnaya,2008-03-15 Living in the Victory of Jesus Bible Lessons to Deepen Faith examines the lives of powerful biblical characters such as the Prodigal Son Joseph and of course Jesus to demonstrate the power we can have over very real challenges in life such as grief sin sickness and those who try to limit us Claim victory over lifes turmoil and become the champion God created you to be Grief and Loss Across the Lifespan, Second Edition Judith L. M. McCoyd,Carolyn Ambler Walter,2015-09-11 The book addresses grieving patterns and intervention strategies according to the life trajectory and provides clinical intervention tools and strategies for coping according to the developmental stage of an individual It incorporates losses beyond death loss with special focus on losses related to maturational development The second edition reflects new research that has clarified and underscored the value of theories examined in the first edition particularly in the areas of continued bonds disenfranchised grief and ambiguous grief It describes how grieving is influenced by biological responses to stress psychological responses to loss and social norms and support networks publisher Living Beyond Loss Robert A. Neimeyer,2025-04-02 Listening to the bereaved really listening brings into sharp focus two things their pain and their questions In Living Beyond Loss Questions and Answers about Grief and Bereavement noted psychologist Robert Neimeyer compassionately engages the heartfelt inquiries of real bereaved people who have lost parents and partners siblings and children to illness tragic accident suicide and violence and offers practical counsel on how to move forward toward a life that can again have meaning Drawing on more than fifty years of experience in grief therapy and grounded in contemporary research on loss and resilience this book is an indispensable guide to understanding the nuances of grief and adaptation which is equally relevant to the bereaved themselves and to the therapists and professionals who strive to support them The Lost Child Julie Myerson,2012-01-05 The most controversial book in Britain Urgent and vivid A serious writerly self critical account of what it means to feel that despite love and hope and good intentions you have failed as a parent and that the child you bore while still eerily painfully familiar is lost to you Daily Telegraph An aching empty nest memoir a mother mourning for her uncomplicated little children now grown whom she could care for write about without comeback love and control The Times One bleak late winter s day Julie Myerson finds herself in a graveyard looking for traces of a young woman who died nearly two centuries before As a child in Regency England Mary Yelloly painted an exquisite album of watercolours that uniquely reflected the world she lived in But Mary died at the age of twenty one and when Julie comes across this album she is haunted by the potential never realised the barely lived life cut short And most of all she is reminded of her own child Because only days earlier Julie and her husband locked their eldest son out of the family home He was just seventeen How could it have come to this After a happy growing up it had taken only a matter of months for this bright sweet good humoured boy to completely lose his way and propel his family into daily chaos He had discovered cannabis and was now smoking it everyday and nothing they could say or do no help they could offer seemed to reach him And Julie whose emotionally fragile relationship with her own father had left her determined to love her children better had to accept that she was for the moment at least powerless to bring back the boy she had known Honest warm and often profoundly upsetting this is the parallel story of a girl and a boy separated by centuries The circumstances are very different but the questions remain terrifyingly the same What happens when a child disappears from a family What will survive of any of us in memory or in history And how is a mother to cope when love however absolute however unconditional is not enough to save her child

The Making of a Refugee Tasoulla Hadjiyanni, 2002-03-30 Through an examination of interviews provided by 100 children of refugees in Cyprus born after their family's displacement Hadjiyanni illustrates the formation of a refugee consciousness an identity adopted by many children who never experienced the actual displacement of their family Focusing on the process by which a child born into a refugee family develops a refugee identity the book identifies nine dimensions that inform this consciousness Establishing the family as the primary transmitter of the refugee identity and the child as its constructor the author points to the power of homeplace in forming and supporting such an identity The book challenges the notion that refugee consciousness is a separate identity and a crisis by reinterpreting it as a resistance to adversity Shedding new light on what it means to be a refugee this work is a welcome addition to the field Beginning with a discussion of the meaning of the term refugee and how it has been adopted by the children of some refugees in Cyprus the author moves to an examination of the meaning of past and present to the formation of a refugee consciousness She then looks to the causes of such identity formation focusing on the transference of identity from parent to child and the effects of past loss on children who have not actually experienced displacement Housing issues are also examined as a contributing factor as refugee housing is typically distinct and constrained compared to housing for native citizens of a community The author concludes her work with a discussion of the implications of the Cyprus example for both the future and for general refugee studies
