Lost Keys:

The Lost Keys Chris Smith, 2013-03-20 The Lost Keys is a brutally honest personal and humorous account of a young man's spiritual journey. Following an unconventional upbringing with his single parent mother, Chris moved to London at nineteen. He was broke, depressed, and had no real direction in life. He discovered a new age book that reawakened his spiritual connections and motivated a five-year journey that led to happiness. Chris has been exposed to surreal moments that supported his adventure in more ways than he could have possibly imagined. He worked with the Prime Minister for two years and as a Diplomat in Iraq for eight months where he came close to death twice and taught an Army Major how to meditate. Chris has met Kings, Queens, Presidents, and the Dalai Lama, but it was a monk in Burma who taught him the most important lesson of all and gave him the inspiration to write The Lost Keys. People from all walks of life are looking for a greater sense of purpose. In a recent UK Census, 79 percent agreed that religion was the main cause for misery and conflict in the world, and 61 percent agreed that organised religion was in terminal decline. Religion and materialism are not enough anymore; something else is missing. The Lost Keys will show you the world in a different light, inspire you to change your mindset for the better, and help you see hidden messages. They unlock the secrets to happiness and help you find that missing something.

40 lessons to get children thinking: Philosophical thought adventures across the curriculum Peter Worley, 2015-10-31 This is the type of book many teachers will keep on their desk and use the exercises very regularly. For me, it is up there with Geoff Petty's Evidence Based Teaching and Paul Ginnis's The Teacher's Toolkit as an essential resource. Worley is an excellent clear writer who communicates very complex ideas very well. Francis Gilbert <http://www.francisgilbert.co.uk> teacher, teacher trainer, and author of I'm a Teacher Get Me Out of Here. Inspire your class to think more deeply about curriculum subjects and get them actively taking part in exciting philosophy experiments today. This new book by bestselling author and founder of The Philosophy Foundation, Peter Worley, is a collection of practical lesson and activity plans to use in the primary classroom to get children thinking philosophically and creatively around different curriculum areas. The sessions, called thought adventures, use thought experiments, stories, and poems to get children discussing and understanding topics more deeply. Each session is explained step by step with everything you need to do and say spelled out, and all the equipment you need listed with instructions on how to set up each session. You can implement the sessions in the classroom either as a complete lesson or as an activity within another lesson. All the sessions are tried and tested by Peter and his colleagues at The Philosophy Foundation who work with primary schools on a regular basis
