The Greatest Treasure-Hunting Stories Ever Told Charles Elliott,2023-12-12 There is something about a treasure says Joseph Conrad in Nostromo that fastens on a man s mind And yes there is something about the subject of treasure hunting that continues to fascinate us One only needs to browse the Web to discover a whole netherworld of treasure hunting magazines metal detector clubs and lost mine information exchanges that apparently engage the funds and spare time of thousands of hopefuls But digging up tin cans and discarded horseshoes or crashing through the Superstitions in a recreational vehicle somehow goes against the romantic grain Charles Elliott recaptures the essential romance of the search in this collection of classic stories Many are true or purport to be They encompass all the great themes obsession tragedy danger crime frustration terrible physical challenge success and disappointment They take place under the sea in jungles on desert islands even in the attics of old houses The treasure itself is not always gold silver and diamonds it may be lost documents the solution to a historical puzzle or an unexpected archaeological discovery What is common to them all is the excitement of the chase and the possibility irrational perhaps but unavoidable that treasure really is there for the finding
