

The background of the image is a vibrant, high-contrast sky. A large, billowing cloud formation, possibly a cumulonimbus or a volcanic plume, is the central focus. It is illuminated from within or below, giving it a bright orange and yellow glow. The top of the cloud is jagged and reaches towards a deep, clear blue sky. The lower parts of the cloud and the surrounding sky are in shadow, appearing in various shades of purple and magenta. The overall effect is one of awe and divine presence.
