Seductress Betsy Prioleau, 2004-10-26 In this road map to restoring feminine sexual power Betsy Prioleau introduces and analyzes the stories and stratagems of history's greatest seductresses These are the women who ravished the world from such classic figures as Cleopatra and Mae West to such lesser known women as the infamous Violet Gordon Woodhouse who lived in a ménage with four men Smarts imagination courage and killer charm helped these love maestras claim the men of their choice and keep them fascinated for life Through an expos of their secrets Seductress provides an authoritative empowering guide to erotic sovereignty Booklovers Edition ... William Shakespeare, 1901 Hiroshima Ran

Zwigenberg, 2014-09-15 In 1962 a Hiroshima peace delegation and an Auschwitz survivor's organization exchanged relics and testimonies including the bones and ashes of Auschwitz victims This symbolic encounter in which the dead were literally conscripted in the service of the politics of the living serves as a cornerstone of this volume capturing how memory was utilized to rebuild and redefine a shattered world This is a powerful study of the contentious history of remembrance and the commemoration of the atomic bomb in Hiroshima in the context of the global development of Holocaust and World War II memory Emphasizing the importance of nuclear issues in the 1950s and 1960s Zwigenberg traces the rise of global commemoration culture through the reconstruction of Hiroshima as a City of Bright Peace memorials and museums global tourism developments in psychiatry and the emergence of the figure of the survivor witness and its consequences for global memory practices Love and Soulmates Albert David Griffith, 2010-04-02 You wish to have love and to be happy This book represents an attempt to give you love and happiness by showing you a view of what love really is and how peace freedom and security surely come with it To help you to be happy the book with your cooperation tries to sneak certain very desirable concepts past your conscious mind and into your subconscious mind The sneaking is necessary because love peace freedom and security can only be known in nonintellectual ways You cannot think your way into them It would be like your trying to learn how an orange tastes by reading about it when you know that the best way to learn that taste is simply to taste an orange In the same way you cannot learn about love by reading about it You have to taste it Here we try to help you to taste love As part of that try we describe what soulmates truly are because the most satisfying of all relationships is the soulmate relationship So what would happen if you found your soulmate Please help us to help you to be happy Shakespeare and

Quotation Julie Maxwell, Kate Rumbold, 2018-04-26 Shakespeare is the most frequently quoted English author of all time Quotations appear everywhere from the epigraphs of novels to the mottoes on coffee cups But Shakespeare was also a frequent quoter himself of classical and contemporary literature of the Bible of snatches of popular songs and proverbs This volume brings together an international team of scholars to trace the rich history of quotation from Shakespeare's own lifetime to the present day Exploring a wide range of media including Romantic poetry theatre criticism novels by Jane Austen Thomas Hardy and Ian McEwan political oratory propaganda advertising drama film and digital technology the

Nitz, 2020-11-04 In Belles and Poets Julia Nitz analyzes the Civil War diary writing of eight white women from the U S South focusing specifically on how they made sense of the world around them through references to literary texts Nitz finds that many diarists incorporated allusions to poems plays and novels especially works by Shakespeare and the British Romantic poets in moments of uncertainty and crisis While previous studies have overlooked or neglected such literary allusions in personal writings regarding them as mere embellishments or signs of elite social status Nitz reveals that these references functioned as codes through which women diarists contemplated their roles in society and addressed topics related to slavery Confederate politics gender and personal identity Nitz's innovative study of identity construction and literary intertextuality focuses on diaries written by the following women Eliza Frances Fanny Andrews of Georgia 1840 1931 Mary Boykin Miller Chesnut of South Carolina 1823 1886 Malvina Sara Black Gist of South Carolina 1842 1930 Sarah Ida Fowler Morgan of Louisiana 1842 1909 Cornelia Peake McDonald of Virginia 1822 1909 Judith White Brockenbrough McGuire of Virginia 1813 1897 Sarah Katherine Kate Stone of Louisiana 1841 1907 and Ella Gertrude Clanton Thomas of Georgia 1843 1907 These women's diaries circulated in postwar commemoration associations and several saw publication The public acclaim they received helped shape the collective memory of the war and according to Nitz further legitimized notions of racial supremacy and segregation Comparing and contrasting their own lives to literary precedents and fictional role models allowed the diarists to process the privations of war the loss of family members and the looming defeat of the Confederacy Belles and Poets establishes the extent to which literature offered a means of exploring ideas and convictions about class gender and racial hierarchies in the Civil War era South Nitz s work shows that literary allusions in wartime diaries expose the ways in which some white southern women coped with the war and its potential threats to their way of life Kierkegaard's Journals and Notebooks, Volume 1 Søren Kierkegaard, 2015-06-22 I would like to write a novel in which the main character would be a man who got a pair of glasses one lens of which reduced images as powerfully as an oxyhydrogen microscope and the other of which magnified on the same scale so that he perceived everything relatively A flight of fancy by an aspiring science fiction writer While it may sound as such this wistful musing is one of the little discussed personal reflections of nineteenth century philosopher Søren Kierkegaard whose remarkable journals and notebooks unpublished during his lifetime are presented here The first of an eleven volume series produced by Copenhagen s Søren Kierkegaard Research Centre this volume is the first English translation and commentary of Kierkegaard s journals based on up to date scholarship It offers new insight into Kierkegaard s inner life In addition to early drafts of his published works the journals contain his thoughts on current events and philosophical and theological matters notes on books he was reading miscellaneous jottings and ideas for future literary projects Kierkegaard wrote his journals in a two column format one for his initial entries and the second for the marginal comments he added later The new edition of the journals reproduces this format and contains photographs of original manuscript pages as well as extensive scholarly commentary Translated by leading experts on Kierkegaard Journals and Notebooks will become the benchmark for all future Kierkegaard scholarship A Dictionary of Quotations in Prose Anna Lydia Ward, 1889 The Artifice of Love Fiona Black, 2009-02-19 The lovers expressions of mutual affection and desire in the Song of Songs include intimate and detailed poetic descriptions of the body These are challenging to interpret because the imagery used is cryptic drawing on seemingly incongruous aspects of nature architecture and war Biblical scholarship frequently expresses some discomfort or embarrassment over this language yet largely maintains the view that it should be interpreted positively as a complimentary and loving description of the body If read without this hermeneutic however the imagery appears to construct nonsensical and ridiculous pictures of the human form which raise interesting questions and pose definite challenges for the Song s readers Fiona Black addresses the problematic nature of the Song s body imagery by using the artistic and literary construct of the grotesque body as a heuristic The resulting reading investigates some issues for the Song that are often left to the margins namely the Song s presentation of desire its politics of gender and the affect of the text The book concludes with the identification of some implications of this reading including the creation of a new framework in which to understand the relevance of the Song s imagery for its presentation of love This is volume 12 in the Gender Culture Theory subseries and volume 392 in the Journal for the Study of the Old Testament

Supplement series Latina/o Sexualities Marysol Asencio,2009-10-26 Latina/os are currently the largest minority population in the United States. They are also one of the fastest growing. Yet we have very limited research and understanding of their sexualities. Instead stereotypical images flourish even though scholars have challenged the validity and narrowness of these images and the lack of attention to the larger social context. Gathering the latest empirical work in the social and behavioral sciences, this reader offers us a critical lens through which to understand these images and the social context framing Latina/os and their sexualities. Situated at the juncture of Latina/o studies and sexualities studies, Latina/o Sexualities provides a single resource that addresses the current state of knowledge from a multidisciplinary perspective. Contributors synthesize and critique the literature and carve a separate space where issues of Latina/o sexualities can be explored given the limitations of prevalent research models. This work compels the current wave in sexuality studies to be more inclusive of ethnic minorities and sets an agenda that policy makers and researchers will find invaluable. Dictionary of Quotations

Alone Together Henry Berlin,2021-07-05 Alone Together reinterprets the explosion of sentimental poetry and prose in fifteenth century Iberia

Falling in Love ,2006-05-31 Falling in love with all its accompanying problems was a subject of obsessive interest among writers and readers in the Ming Dynasty when society held strictly to arranged marriages The stories in this engaging collection all deal with this theme in very different ways sometimes comically sometimes tragically They portray young people choosing their own lovers resorting to ingenious stratagems and risky escapades in defiance of contemporary mores Chosen to represent the best works from the great age of the vernacular story they offer an admirable introduction to the world of Chinese fiction in this era All of the stories in Falling in Love have been translated especially for this volume and most appear here in translation for the first time They are taken from two works Constant Words to Awaken the World Xing shi heng yan and a related collection The Rocks Nod Their Heads Shi dian tou both published in the early seventeenth century

Married Love Marie Carmichael Stopes,2004 In my own marriage I paid such a terrible price for sex ignorance that I feel that knowledge gained at such a cost should be placed at the service of humanity The book that was to become Married Love grew from Marie Stopes s conviction that the state of modern middle class marriage was like her own desperate and that the cause of this desperation was sexual unhappiness She knew her book would probably electrify this country and it remains one of the best known sex manuals ever written. It combines a lyrical evocation of marital love with a no-nonsense and detailed account of sexual intercourse and sexual pleasure that was a sensation when it was published in 1918. Stopes advocated equality in marriage and the importance of women's sexuality and sexual desire as well as openly supporting birth control. In this edition of Stopes's ground-breaking work, Ross McKibbin's introduction reveals fascinating insights into Stopes and prevailing attitudes to class, religion, science, and above all, sex.

His introductory essay looks closely at the dialogues themselves and includes the following sections: Socrates and the Art of Love, Socrates and Athenian Paiderastia, Loving Socrates, Love and the Ascent to the Beautiful, The Art and Psychology of Love Explained, and Writing about Love.

Making Love in the Twelfth Century Barbara Newman, 2016-06-13
Can the Letters of Two Lovers be the previously lost love letters of Abelard and Heloise? Making Love in the Twelfth Century presents a new literary translation of the collection along with a full commentary and two extended essays that parse its literary and intellectual contexts and chart the course of the doomed affair.
