Wherein the Copyright Has Been Completed by the Deposit of Two Copies in the Office Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1909 Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. Copyright Office,1958 Reader and Shakespeare's Young Man Sonnets Gerald Hammond,1981-06-18 Get to the End Michael Hickey,2016-03-07 Get to the End is written about the end times i e the end of the world and history as we know it But it is written from a Catholic perspective There are many books on the market that speak to the end times however they are all written from a Protestant perspective and for the most part they are written by Christians from conservative churches who are generally Fundamentalist Christians There are virtually no books written about the end times from a Catholic perspective The few that have been written with a Catholic perspective of the end times have been written for the most part by Catholic priests and they are generally weighed down heavily in doctrine and dogma This will be one of the first on the subject written by a Catholic layman who has a broader perspective than Catholic Doctrine and Dogma and who views himself as uniquely in the world but not of the world The Priceless Thing Marion Nicholl Rawson,1914 The Romance of an Elderly Poet Alexander Meyrick Broadley,1913 Chaucer's Troilus and Criseyde and the Knight's Tale Frieda Elaine Penninger,1993 This book examines Troilus and Criseyde and The Knight s Tale as poems which work the same plot to contrasting tragic and joyous endings but for the same purpose of exploring the folly of electing the temporal world over the eternal It demonstrates that the tragedy of Troilus and Criseyde is a consequence of the folly of relying on Fortune and temporal bliss and works through the pattern of a similar dependence in The Knight s Tale It then develops the portrayal of the protagonists of the poems as Fortune s Fools through a scrutiny of courtship as game of play of caritas and cupiditas contrasted with the implications of pity mercy grace and love as used in temporal contexts in the poem but defined theologically elsewhere in Chaucer and of the limitations of knighthood and chivalry as defined by the world of the poems

Conjugal Love: Our Path of Return Clayten Tylor,2019-03-04 Conjugal love is the Divine as a feeling It is the spiritual heat and light of every soul It is the feeling of gratitude to the Universe together with the feeling of mutual love to the neighbor To receive conjugal love requires that we first will the affection of love upwards and outwards In this way we expand our sense of self to get a glimpse of the feeling of the four fold rhythm of Divine order Once the sensual rhythm of Divine order has been established as the feeling of love it purifies our feeling of self of its identification and attachment with the physical body This new spiritual perspective transforms our sense of self from personality to individuality which then awakens the feeling of conjugal love The feeling of conjugal love is our Path of Return Within the flow of the feeling of conjugal love we can sense our spiritual self first as the feeling of profound peace but then as higher states of love as feelings of being infinite and eternal The Lumber Room Catherine Bellairs Gaskoin,1913

The Evolution of Love Sheldon W. Liebman,2021-04-06 This book an examination of Judaism as it evolved over a period of approximately 1 500 years is an analysis of the Hebrew Bible and other ancient Jewish writings with special emphasis on theology and morality By the middle of the first millennium with the writing of Deuteronomy the Psalms and the works of the prophets Judaism had embraced the idea that God is a compassionate father that His relationship with His people is based on love rather than fear and that His response to their commission of sins is based on the assumption that they are capable of repentance and worthy of forgiveness In the final stage of its development culminating in the first and second centuries AD Judaism was understood to require its adherents to enact the will of God specifically to establish a community based on political economic and social laws that enforce the principles of justice and mercy And that process came to be seen as inevitably dependent on human agency the need for human beings to fulfill God s commandments In Judaism loving neighbors and strangers came to be understood as the principal and for many Jews the only way of loving God

The Fabric of Hope Glenn Tinder,2001 This superb new volume is addressed to everyone interested in hope regardless of their religious or philosophical beliefs Glenn Tinder one of our most astute and creative thinkers probes the failure of modern secular hope and shows with great sensitivity and openness why the tenets of Christian faith offer a true and meaningful source for hope amid the widespread distress confusion and despondency of contemporary life From The Critics Jean Bethke Elshtain Glenn Tinder argues compellingly that modern despondency flows from a collapse of unreasonable optimism about our individual and collective prospects By contrast to despondency and brittle optimism Tinder calls for a renewal of hope Framed by Christian belief Tinder s elegant essay reaches out to appeal to all men and women troubled by our current condition A beautifully written and touching work Michael Novak Tinder s weighty essay on the nature spirituality and politics of hope offers an illuminating perspective on a central pillar of civilization Mary Ann Glendon A pristine intellectual and spiritual achievement by one of the most penetrating thinkers of our day Richard John Neuhaus With this essay Tinder once again vindicated his reputation as one of the most incisive thinkers and graceful writers working today His is a most powerful argument that only a hope that has come to terms with all the reasons for despair can sustain us into a future that we do not and cannot control Tinder s wisdom is in knowing that attention to first things requires facing up to last things
