Loving Torment:

This Loving Torment Valerie Sherwood, 1977 Early Modern Women's Writing and Sor Juana Inés de la Cruz

Stephanie Merrim, 1999 This book maps the field of seventeenth century women's writing in Spanish English and French and situates the work of Sor Juana more clearly within that field. It holds up the multi-layered proto-feminist writings of Sor Juana as a meaningful lens through which to focus the literary production of her female contemporaries. Merrim's book advances the integration of Hispanic women authors and women's issues into the panorama of early modern women's writing and opens up unexplored commonalities between Sor Juana and her sister writers. Early modern women writers whose works are explored include Marie de Gournay, Margaret Fell, Fox, Catalina de Erauso, Maria de Zayas, Ana Caro, Mme de Lafayette, Anne Bradstreet, St Teresa and Margaret Lucas Cavendish. Merrim's study provides a full-bodied picture of the resources that the cultural and historical climates of the seventeenth century placed at the disposal of women writers, the manners in which women writers instrumentalized them, the building blocks and concerns of early modern women's writing and the continuities between early modern and modern women's writing. Written in an engaging clear manner, this innovative study will be of interest not only to Hispanists but also to scholars in early modern studies, women's studies, history and comparative literature.

Vindicating God Troy J. Edwards, 2015-12-26 There are sincere worshippers of Christ who are quite ignorant of how to deal with difficult passages in the Bible that might be used by God's enemies to paint a false picture of Him. Many remain confused as to how to deal with passages that seem to go against what they know by their experience is a loving God. I believe that these daily devotions can assist believers in this endeavor. When one meditates daily on the truth of God's character, then they will not be easily swayed by those who speak against it. They will see that there are better ways to understand the passages often presented by those who choose to denigrate God's character.

The Commandments of

Love Marcus A. Allen, 2020-03-09 The Commandments of Love is a book that teaches you how to live by the principles and precepts of God's Agape love. The words of this book came to me as a vision along with the complete knowledge of its contents in 12 seconds. The time it took God to put the knowledge of this book in my head was equal to one human pace; this event occurred as I passed through the door on my way in to work one day. Here is the question that I shall now put before you: What would you do if you were suddenly given a two thousand year old mystery? The answer you announce it LOUDLY to the world. Countless pastors, teachers, and even students will pour over this book. I introduce insightful knowledge of the gospel in this book. Many portions of this book divulge the complete understanding of the parables of Christ. The Commandments of Love opens up the meaning of many of the sayings in the epistles of the apostles, especially in the area of God's love towards man. This book is packed with scripture and it is presented in a skilled demonstration of the Holy Spirit. The Commandments of Love reminds its readers to be ever mindful of the practical application of the gospel. The author has made use of over 500 scriptures in this book to convey the importance of God's love. PROBLEM: The false prophets in the world have 98% of believers off course. God's power is not embedded in faith alone but in his love. Faith cannot work without LOVE. The reason Jesus Christ commanded us to love one another was because love when coupled with a person's FAITH is the true healing power of God. The world and the church are one hundred miles off course from a one mile trip. Just as the Jews walked mindlessly through the desert for 40 years for an eight day trip, even so also is the church today mindlessly marching about. As a result of the knowledge of this, I knew that I had to write this book so that men everywhere could learn of God's true love for his man and find their way home to God. This word of the Lord came unto me with great unrest, compelling me to write this book to his specifications. The words found herein were derived from the message of love given to me by the Lord who instructed me to write The Commandments of Love. The breadth thereof He said was to have twelve 12 parts which represents the twelve tribes of the lost sheep of the house of Israel; the depth thereof He said was to have forty 40 chapters which the Lord declared represented Israel's forty years in the wilderness. The length thereof He said was to be four hundred and eighty 480 pages signifying the four hundred and eighty years after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt until the building of the house of the Lord written in I Kings 6:1. This He said also represents the restoration of the children of God today whose time is now. This word did the Lord give unto me by the mouth of his Holy Spirit sent to signify his love for his people. This is why Jesus asked the question when the Son of Man cometh shall he find faith on the earth? St Luke 18:8. This wasn't a question of FAITH but of LOVE.

Reconsidering Gender, Time and Memory in Medieval Culture Elizabeth Cox, Liz Herbert McAvoy, Roberta Magnani, 2015 A consideration of the ways in which the past was framed and remembered in the pre-modern world. The training and use of memory was crucial in medieval culture given the limited literacy at the time but to date very little thought has been given to the complex and disparate ways in which the theory and practices of memory interacted with the inherently unstable concepts of time and gender at the time The essays in this volume drawing on approaches from applied poststructural and queer theory among others reassess those ideologies meanings and responses generated by the workings of memory within and over time Ultimately they argue for the inherent instability of the traditional gender time memory matrix within which men are configured as the recorders of history and women as the repositories of a more inchoate familial and communal knowledge showing the Middle Ages as a locus for a far more fluid conceptualization of time and memory than has previously been considered Elizabeth Cox is Lecturer in Old English at Swansea University Roberta Magnani is Lecturer in Medieval Literature at Swansea University Liz Herbert McAvoy is Professor of Medieval Literature at Swansea University Contributors Anne E Bailey Daisy Black Elizabeth Cox Fiona Harris Stoertz Ayoush Lazikani Liz Herbert McAvoy Pamela E Morgan William Rogers Patricia Skinner Victoria Turner
