Loving Voice A Caregivers Of Read Aloud Stories For The Elderly:

A Loving Voice Carolyn Banks, Janis Rizzo, 1993 Read aloud stories for the elderly A Loving Voice II Carolyn Banks, Janis Rizzo, 1994 The second of two very popular and unique anthologies of short stories that were written specifically to be read out loud to older adults A Loving Voice II A Caregiver's Book of More Read Aloud Stories for the Elderly offers an imaginative and creative way for family members, friends, and professionals to reach out to communicate with and entertain the older people in their care, particularly those who are bedridden, confined to a nursing home or hospital, and those with dementia or those beginning to slip into it. In a moment of inspiration that has been much welcomed ever since by caregivers the world over, the idea for A Loving Voice came to its editors Carolyn Banks and Janis Rizzo when they recognized the desperate need for, and the serious lack of, reading material for this large and ever-growing segment of the population. In response, they invited hundreds of writers to submit stories and poems for their anthology. The 56 selections they ended up including are those that they and the eldercare experts they consulted felt would be most valuable and entertaining for their elderly audience: stories that evoke nostalgic memories and warm feelings of the past; interesting stories that stimulate conversation; provide a bridge between the past and present; and a bond between reader and listener. All of the selections can be read in one sitting, no longer than 10 minutes; are clear with easy-to-follow plots and simple dialogue that lends itself to reading aloud. Moreover, as Banks and Rizzo discovered, reading aloud is an intimate, warm, and friendly activity that encourages physical closeness, something that is sorely needed as we age. As editor Carolyn Banks reports, "The pieces we have chosen are not insultingly simple. Even those who are able to read these selections on their own will find them engaging and entertaining. These are stories and poems with purpose; stories and poems with heart; stories and poems we are proud to present. Each, we hope, will help you find your own loving voice." Including short stories and poems written by an impressive array of American authors, including Michael Dirda, Judith Bell, and Christopher Woods, as well as writers who are having their work appear in a book for the first time, this book and its accompanying first volume have received critical acclaim from professional caregivers and grateful family members alike and have been enthusiastically reviewed in hundreds of papers, magazines, and journals for its inventive method of communicating with and bringing joy to the older adult. 5-Star Programming and Services for Your 55 Library Customers Barbara T. Mates, 2003-02-07 As the population approaches 55 and above, libraries are faced with an opportunity to serve an underserved population. In this handbook, Barbara Mates explains the ins and outs of planning, developing, marketing, and finding successful programmes and services for the greying population. Aging, 1992 Texas Women Writers Sylvia Ann Grider, Lou Halsell Rodenberger, 1997 A critical survey of over 150 years of Texas women writers, including fiction and nonfiction authors, poets, and dramatists. The Complete Legal Guide to Senior Care Brette McWhorter Sember, 2003 Navigates the world of health care services and long-term care facilities for the reader or for the reader's aging parents. The Family Caregiver's Journal Hank Bruce, 1998
