Cuban Literature in the Age of Black Insurrection Matthew Pettway, 2019-12-30 Juan Francisco Manzano and Gabriel de la Concepción Valdés Plácido were perhaps the most important and innovative Cuban writers of African descent during the Spanish colonial era Both nineteenth century authors used Catholicism as a symbolic language for African inspired spirituality Likewise Plácido and Manzano subverted the popular imagery of neoclassicism and Romanticism in order to envision black freedom in the tradition of the Haitian Revolution Plácido and Manzano envisioned emancipation through the lens of African spirituality a transformative moment in the history of Cuban letters Matthew Pettway examines how the portrayal of African ideas of spirit and cosmos in otherwise conventional texts recur throughout early Cuban literature and became the basis for Manzano and Plácido's antislavery philosophy The portrayal of African Atlantic religious ideas spurned the elite rationale that literature ought to be a barometer of highbrow cultural progress Cuban debates about freedom and selfhood were never the exclusive domain of the white Creole elite Pettway's emphasis on African inspired spirituality as a source of knowledge and a means to sacred authority for black Cuban writers deepens our understanding of Manzano and Plácido not as mere imitators but as aesthetic and political pioneers As Pettway suggests black Latin American authors did not abandon their African religious heritage to assimilate wholesale to the Catholic Church By recognizing the wisdom of African ancestors they procured power in the struggle for black liberation

Botello,2019-01-09 This book reconstructs the poetics of Carmen Martín Gaité by viewing the concept of journey as a fundamental principle upon which she bases and elaborates her narrative writing of the 1990s Five novels published in this period receive critical attention all of which coincide with the last trips taken by the writer to New York Capercucita en Manhattan 1990 Nubosidad variable 1992 La reina de las nieves 1994 Lo raro es vivir 1996 and Irse de casa 1998 To the extent that the journey is the essence of the narrative under consideration the concept is analysed as an aesthetic practice and an attempt to identify a series of actions which allow us to link the writer's novels with two areas that have previously received only scant critical scrutiny geography and the visual dimension This book presents a comparative and interdisciplinary analysis of space in Martín Gaité's narrative as well as in her collages drawings and paintings

Afro-Peruvian Spanish Sandro Sessarego,2015-10-15 The present work not only contributes to shedding light on the linguistic and socio historical origins of Afro Peruvian Spanish it also helps clarify the controversial puzzle concerning the genesis of Spanish creoles in the Americas in a broader sense In order to provide a more concrete answer to the questions raised by McWhorter's book on The Missing Spanish Creoles the current study has focused on an aspect of the European colonial enterprise in the Americas that has never been closely analyzed in relation to the evolution of Afro European contact varieties the legal regulations of black slavery This book proposes the Legal Hypothesis of Creole Genesis which ascribes a prime importance in the development of Afro European languages in the Americas to the historical evolution of slavery from the legal rules contained in the Roman Corpus Juris Civilis to the codes and regulations implemented in the different European colonies overseas This research was carried out with the belief that creole studies will benefit greatly from a more interdisciplinary approach capable of combining linguistic socio historical legal and anthropological insights This study is meant to represent an eclectic step in such a direction Selections from Don Quijote Miguel de Cervantes
