Strangers from a Different Shore, 2012-11 In an extraordinary blend of narrative history personal recollection oral testimony the author presents a sweeping history of Asian Americans He writes of the Chinese who laid tracks for the transcontinental railroad of plantation laborers in the canefields of Hawaii of picture brides marrying strangers in the hope of becoming part of the American dream He tells stories of Japanese Americans behind the barbed wire of U S internment camps during World War II Hmong refugees tragically unable to adjust to Wisconsin s alien climate culture Asian American students stigmatized by the stereotype of the model minority This is a powerful moving work that will resonate for all Americans who together make up a nation of immigrants from other shores Superpowers On The Shore Sejal

Mehta, 2022-05-16 Our coasts are large vast wildernesses that witness the mystical pageantry of life They have given us monsters and myths they are fathoms deep and full of whispers home to unknown creatures and sprawling ecosystems They are chasms of beauty and frontiers of possibility From the space between land and sea revealed only at low tide comes a coruscating kaleidoscope of colours and brilliance the intertidal zone And the marine lifeforms of these zones are capable of superpowers Yes superpowers Of the kind that comic book characters can only dream of The Indian coastline hosts some magnificent intertidal species solar powered slugs escape artist octopuses venomous jellies harpooning conus sea snails to name just a few It is as biodiverse as a forest wildlife safari and twice as secretive From bioluminescence and advanced sonic capabilities to camouflage and shapeshifting these cloaked assassins are capable of otherworldly skill Superpowers on the Shore by Sejal Mehta is a dazzling assured look at some of the creatures with whom we share our world our water our monsoons our beaches and the sandcastles therein Come witness the magic of our intertidal superheroes their fragile beauty and their iridescent drama Put on your waterproof shoes pack a bottle of whimsy bring your sense of wonder And prepare to be mesmerized Proceedings American Concrete Institute, 1925 Footsteps on Other Shores Lanny

Waitsman, 2024-03-01 Take a series of journeys to other worlds some close in space and time others so far removed that they may not be in the same universe Habitat What happens when two old friends fight over ways to save people on Earth from the effects of global warming by creating habitats in space When the two men now rivals must work together to save their respective projects can they put aside their differences Dragon Redux How did dragons appear on Earth Will they be our friends Or will humans just be food Castle Erewhon in which a young prince comes of age and must confront his destiny by going through the Door leaving behind a family in crisis Will he go alone Where will he end up Prism of Lost Leng When a man comes back to his fianc after years of travel with no communication what did he find Does it have anything to do with the outr sculptures she has been producing A Shifting Shore Alice Garner, 2018-07-05 How does tourism transform fishing communities into vibrant resorts working shores into bathing beaches In A Shifting Shore Alice Garner traces the ways fisherfolk bathers investors and engineers understood claimed and remade the shores of the Bassin d Arcachon a prime fishing and oyster farming site in southwestern France over the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Garner's interest in the coastline a zone that resists all attempts at definition shapes this generously illustrated book Rather than taking a straightforward chronological approach to the settlement and evolution of the towns of Arcachon and La Teste Garner investigates the development of the Bassin d Arcachon's southern shores with the aim of recovering something of the lived space experienced by locals and visitors Drawing on guidebooks newspapers bylaws engineers reports medical pamphlets postcards and the accounts of literary minded holidaymakers Garner shows how investors and developers transformed Arcachon and its community beaches were rezoned and jetties constructed to favor bathers and a new railway line brought ever increasing numbers of visitors to the area She explores how fishermen and women resisted developments that threatened their livelihood or their particular sense of belonging and shows how they adapted to the changing environment and to their new roles as guides and entertainers A Shifting Shore while anchored in Arcachon and La Teste has much to contribute to a nuanced understanding of relations between hosts and guests in any community Experiments in Ecology
