

NEFERTESU

PRIESTESS of the DAMNED

CUSTODIAN of the KING

Once a respected priestess of the Moon God, Khonsu, Nefertisu, like many of her fellow priest and priestesses, was shocked when the Pharaoh issued a decree banning the worship of all gods except the One. But rather than renounce her beliefs, she left her homeland and travelled among the dark places of the known world, seeking a means to return her people to the Old Traditions.

However, her quest was tragically abandoned when news reached her of the death of the Pharaoh and that his young son and heir, King Tut, was in favour of returning to the old ways. Nefertisu returned and eventually became one the boy King's most trusted advisors.

But the happiness was not to last long. The king suddenly became ill and died. Recognising the work of the League of Assassins from her travels, Nefertisu realised that the King's father still had influence. With the help of the King's bodyguard, the Medjay, she tracked down and killed the assassin, and substituted his memory for that of the King. Nefertisu and the Medjay then fled into exile once more, taking the mummified remains of the King with them.

In the millennia since, Nefertisu has sought and acquired deeper knowledge and understanding of the dark arts, enough to extend her own life and save the legacy of the King's corpse. She hopes to one day use her enough power to be able to resurrect the boy King and together exact their revenge on the League of Assassins.
