Account of the Russian Discoveries Between Asia and America William Coxe, 2015-07-01 Excerpt from Account of the Russian Discoveries Between Asia and America To Which Are Added the Conquest of Siberia and the History of the Transactions and Commerce Between Russia and China. The late Russian Discoveries between Asia and America have for some time engaged the attention of the curious, more especially since Dr Robertson's admirable History of America has been in the hands of the public. In that valuable performance, the elegant and ingenious author has communicated to the world with an accuracy and judgement which so eminently distinguish all his writings, the most exact information at that time to be obtained concerning those important discoveries. During my stay at Petersburg, my inquiries were particularly directed to this interesting subject in order to learn if any new light had been thrown on an article of knowledge of such consequence to the history of mankind. For this purpose, I endeavoured to collect the respective journals of the several voyages subsequent to the expedition of Beering and Tschirikoff in 1741, with which the celebrated Muller concludes his account of the first Russian navigations.
