State Control of the Media NEWSPAPER/ MAGAZINES	Lenin 21-28 Stalin 28-53 Khrushchev 53-64 Brezhnev 64-85	Mass media was characterised by state control through Nationalisation, restriction of information and censorship. Government had to constantly change to adaptations in technology.	Lenin - Stamp down on press freedom, newspapers seen as bourgeois mouthpiece. Printing press was nationalised. Approval from censorship office for all articles to be written. Stalin - Used one paper to highlight successes and socialism. Cheap prices so all read papers. Fabricated figures put in papers so looks like targets are met. Khrushchev - Prohibited all topics showing signs of negativity. Brezhnev - Follows on from Stalin & Lenin	Censorship and restriction was imminent but not always successful, a lot of people read between the lines. Technology of mass media changed rapidly but the government insured there was a steady supplement of propaganda continuing throughout the change. Video recorders mass produced making it easier to share footage amongst public. Challenge for the government who want to restrict public access to information.
