Anne Westhues

Rutgers Art Review 2000 Rutgers Art Review 1998:

Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom, 2022-11-21 In Light as Experience and Imagination from Medieval to Modern Times David S. Herrstrom synthesizes and interprets the experience of light as revealed in a wide range of art and literature from medieval to modern times. The true subject of the book is making sense of the individual's relationship with light rather than the investigation of light's essential nature while telling the story of light seducing individuals from the Middle Ages to our modern times. Consequently, it is not concerned with the progress of scientific inquiries into the physical properties and behavior of light, optical science, but rather with subjective reactions as reflected in art, architecture, and literature. Instead of its evolution, this book celebrates the complexity of our relation to light's character. No individual experience of light being truer than any other.

Artemisia Gentileschi and the Business of Art Christopher R. Marshall, 2024-06-11 A new account of the renowned Baroque painter revealing how her astute professional decisions shaped her career, style, and legacy. Art has long been viewed as a calling, a quasi-religious vocation that drives artists to seek answers to humanity's deepest questions. Yet the art world is a risky, competitive business that requires artists to make strategic decisions, especially if the artist is a woman. In Artemisia Gentileschi and the Business of Art, Christopher Marshall presents a new account of the life, work, and legacy of the Italian Baroque painter, revealing how she built a successful four-decade career in a male-dominated field and how her business acumen has even influenced the resurrection of her reputation today when she has been transformed from a footnote of art history to a globally famous artist and feminist icon. Combining the most recent research with detailed analyses of newly attributed paintings, the book highlights the business considerations behind Gentileschi's development of a trademark style as she marketed herself to the public across a range of Italian artistic centers. The disguised self-portraits in her early Florentine paintings are reevaluated as an effort to make a celebrity brand of her own image. And challenging the common perception that Gentileschi's only masterpieces are her early Caravaggesque paintings, the book emphasizes the importance of her neglected late Neapolitan works, which are reinterpreted as innovative responses to the conventional practices of Baroque workshops. Artemisia Gentileschi and the Business of Art shows that Gentileschi's remarkable success as a painter was due not only to her enormous talent but also to her ability to respond creatively to the continuously evolving trends and challenges of the Italian Baroque art world.

Foxe's 'Book of Martyrs' and Early Modern Print Culture John N. King, 2006-10-12 This book was first published in 2006. Second only to the Bible and Book of Common Prayer, John Foxe's Acts and Monuments, known as the Book of Martyrs, was the most influential book published in England during the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries. The most complex and best illustrated English book of its time, it recounted in detail the experiences of hundreds of people who were burned alive for their religious beliefs. John N. King offers the most comprehensive investigation yet of the compilation, printing, publication, illustration, and reception of the Book of Martyrs. He charts its reception across different editions by learned and unlearned sympathetic and antagonistic readers The many illustrations included here introduce readers to the visual features of early printed books and general printing practices both in England and continental Europe and enhance this important contribution to early modern literary studies cultural and religious history and the history of the Book

Dutch Paintings in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Walter A. Liedtke, Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), 2007 Presents a catalog that surveys the Dutch paintings found in the Metropolitan Museum of Art Modernism for the Masses Jody Patterson, 2020-11-17 A mural renaissance swept the United States in the 1930s propelled by the New Deal Federal Art Project and the popularity of Mexican muralism Perhaps nowhere more than in New York City murals became a crucial site for the development of abstract painting Artists such as Stuart Davis Arshile Gorky Willem de Kooning and Lee Krasner created ambitious works for the Williamsburg Housing Project Floyd Bennett Field Airport and the 1939 World's Fair Modernism for the Masses examines the public murals realized and unrealized of these and other abstract painters and the aesthetic controversy political influence and ideological warfare that surrounded them Jody Patterson transforms standard narratives of modernism by reasserting the significance of the 1930s and explores the reasons for the omission of the mural's history from chronicles of American art Beautifully illustrated with the artists' murals and little known archival photographs this book recovers the radical idea that modernist art was a vital part of everyday life Orazio and Artemisia Gentileschi [published to accompany the exhibition held at the Museo Del Palazzo Di Venezia, Rome, 15 October - 6 January 2002 ; the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, 14 February - 12 May 2002 ; the Saint Louis Art Museum, 15 June - 15 September 2002] Keith Christiansen, Judith Walker Mann, Orazio Gentileschi, Artemisia Gentileschi, 2001 This beautiful book presents the work of these two painters exploring the artistic development of each comparing their achievements and showing how both were influenced by their times and the milieus in which they worked Canadian Social Policy Anne Westhues, 2006 What are the major issues confronting social policy makers today What theoretical perspectives shape our thinking about the causes of social problems and how we should respond What can we do to influence decision makers about which policy choice to make In this completely revised and updated edition of Canadian Social Policy a new generation of social policy analysts discusses these important questions Readers who are interested in discovering the current policy debates and who want to understand the policy making process at various levels of government as well as how they can influence the process and assess whether policies are working will find this book invaluable Guide to the Literature of Art History 2 Max Marmor, Alex Ross, 2005 This bibliography supplements the greatest of modern art bibliographies Etta Arntzen and Robert Rainwater's Guide to the literature of art history ALA 1980 Preface Dutch Seventeenth-century Genre Painting Wayne E. Franits, 2004-01-01 The appealing genre paintings of great seventeenth century Dutch artists Vermeer Steen de Hooch Dou and others have long enjoyed tremendous popularity This comprehensive book explores the evolution of genre painting throughout the Dutch Golden Age beginning in the early 1600s and continuing through the opening years of the next century Wayne Franits a well known scholar of Dutch genre painting offers a wealth of information about these works as well as about seventeenth century Dutch culture its predilections and its prejudices The author approaches genre paintings from a variety of perspectives examining their reception among contemporary audiences and setting the works in their political cultural and economic contexts The works emerge as distinctly conventional images Franits shows as genre artists continually replicated specific styles motifs and a surprisingly restricted number of themes over the course of several generations Luxuriously illustrated and with a full representation of the major artists and the cities where genre painting flourished this book will delight students scholars and general readers alike Social Issues in America James Ciment,2015-03-04 More than 150 key social issues confronting the United States today are covered in this eight volume set from abortion and adoption to capital punishment and corporate crime from obesity and organized crime to sweatshops and xenophobia
