Sacramental Spirituality:

Touched by Christ: The Sacramental Economy Lawrence Feingold, 2021-05-07 The sacramental economy was instituted by Christ and entrusted to His Church in order to build up the Body of Christ in a twofold communion binding the members together with God and one another Touched by Christ The Sacramental Economy is an introductory course on Sacramental Theology suitable for all who seek a deeper understanding of how the Church's sacraments constitute channels of grace nurture supernatural life and heal us from our sins Lawrence Feingold expertly describes the nature of the sacraments their purpose fittingness and relationship with Christ and the New Covenant their relationship with the Old Covenant rites that prefigured them the character and grace that they communicate and the nature of their causality Touched by Christ shows that the sacraments of the New Covenant should be understood as instruments of Christ's humanity that are used as words of power to communicate the sanctification that they signify infuse grace communicate the Holy Spirit and build up ecclesial communion in those who receive them with the right dispositions

Sacramental Theology Kenan B. Osborne, 1988 A general introduction to the whole study of sacraments that analyzes them from the perspective of the sacrament that is Christ and the Church Ecumenical in its presentation it sets out the complete teaching of the Roman Catholic Church and relates this to a wide range of Anglican and Protestant thought as well The author brings together the teaching of Vatican II on the sacraments with the rich tradition of sacramental theology through the centuries

Pastoral Spirituality Ben Campbell Johnson, 1988-01-01 Is the pastor a performer manager entertainer therapist or bureaucrat While modern pastors are often associated with roles like these Ben Campbell Johnson examines ministry and all its functions from a spiritual perspective and helps pastors see themselves as individuals called by God With exercises designed to help them reflect on their experiences he helps ministers recapture the essence of their calling

Signs of Freedom German Martinez, 2003 Modern secular culture has severely eroded the religious foundations on which traditional sacramental practice was based Built upon the sacramental bedrock the very Christian identity and mission were affected German Martinez looks at this challenge from the perspective of freedom as an opportunity to develop a sacramental worldview relevant to the new millennium To this effect he applies a series of methodologies and fresh pastoral approaches to the highly complex sacramental reality and to each individual sacrament Beginning with ten key interpretative elements he offers a coherent synthesis of the remarkable development of sacramental theology in our time Envisioned for both scholarly research and pastoral ministry this book presents the key issues of a renewed sacramentality rooted in ordinary life and celebrated in the liturgical mystery This theology is grounded in a biblical patristic historical and theological background It tries to articulate especially the Christological ecclesial individual and social aspects of the celebration of the sacraments as a dynamic and organic whole emphasizing their spirituality The material is organized into four parts the Sacramental Way of Life the Initiation and Foundational Church the Healing Church the Church at the service of Communion Highlights scholarly yet pastorally sensitive perfect text for courses on the sacraments solid one volume comprehensive text General Principles of Sacramental Theology Roger W. Nutt, 2017 General Principles of Sacramental Theology addresses a current lacuna in English language theological literature Bernard Leeming's highly respected book Principles of Sacramental Theology was published more than sixty years ago Since that time there has been a noted decrease especially in English language sacramental theology in treatments of the basic topics and principles such as the nature of the sacraments of signs sacramental grace sacramental character sacramental causality sacramental intention the necessity and number of the sacraments sacramental matter and form inter alia which apply to all of the sacraments This book will be of use in seminary graduate and undergraduate courses The sacraments play an irreplaceable role in pursuing a Universal Call to Holiness that is so central to Vatican II's teaching

The Theology and Spirituality of Mary Tudor's Church William Wizeman, 2017-09-29 Few areas of early modern English history have roused such passions and interpretations as the rule of Mary Tudor and her efforts to return the country to Catholicism following the reigns of her father and brother In this book Dr Wizeman explores Catholic theology and spirituality according to the religious literature printed during the reign of Mary Tudor 1553-1558 As part of the strategy to renew Catholic religion in England after the reformations under Henry VIII and Edward VI Marian theologians authors and editors produced numerous works of catechesis religious polemic devotion and sermons These writings demonstrate that the Catholicism of Marian England was not a mere insular reaction to the preceding decades of religious change nor a via media polity which eschewed important elements of traditional religion while embracing tenets of the Reformation Rather the theology and spirituality of Mary Tudor's church as well as many of its strategies for religious renewal was intimately connected to and in fact anticipated or paralleled the theology spirituality and strategies for reform embraced by Counter Reformation Catholicism especially after the promulgation of the decrees of the Council of Trent 1545-1563 After considering the recent historiography of Mary Tudor's reign the book contextualises these writings through a brief history of the Marian church and a discussion of the authors and dedicatees It then presents an analysis of the Marian writers and theologians' views on revelation christology soteriology ecclesiology sacramental theology piety and eschatology Finally the study compares the Catholic belief asserted in these works to that found in texts by English theologians printed before 1553 especially John Fisher and by contemporary theologians in Europe particularly Bartolom Carranza as well as the Tridentine catechism and the decrees and official texts of the English Reformation

Understanding Children's Spirituality Kevin E. Lawson, 2012-03-22 How important is childhood in the spiritual formation of a person How do children experience God in the context of their lives as they grow What does God do in the lives of children to draw them to himself and help them grow into a vital relationship with him How can adults who care about children better support their spiritual growth and direct it toward relationship with God through Jesus Christ These are critical questions that church leaders face as they consider how best to nurture the faith of the children God brings into our lives In this book over two dozen Christian scholars and ministry leaders explore important issues about the spiritual life of children and ways parents church leaders and others who care about children can promote their spiritual formation

The Spirituality of the Diocesan Priest Donald B. Cozzens, 1997 Beyond the dramatic drop in seminarians and the declining numbers of priests beyond the sexual misconduct scandals shaking the confidence and trust once readily given to priests a spiritual deepening and maturing is renewing the spirit and confidence of the diocesan priest In this collection of essays twelve priests including four bishops reflect on the spirituality of the diocesan priest from their personal and pastoral experience Have diocesan priests finally transcended the monastic and religious order spiritualities that have shaped their prayer and interior lives for centuries Is a spirituality particular to the diocesan priest emerging precisely at a time when the priesthood is under such close scrutiny The contributors pastors theologians poets and bishops grapple with the maturing of the diocesan priest's soul touch the mystery of the priesthood and unveil personal often moving dramas of grace Contributors and their articles include Tenders of the Word by Donald B Cozzens Personal Symbol of Communion by Denis Edwards Confessions of a Pilgrim Pastor by William Hammer A Kindled Heart by Frank McNulty A Glorious and Transcendent Place by Robert F Morneau The Conciliar Documents and the 1983 Code by Edward G Pfnausch Ruminations of a Canonist by James H Provost Heralds of the Gospel and Experts in Humanity by Sylvester D Ryan Servant of the Servants of God by Robert Schwartz Speaking Out for the Inside by William H Shannon Paul of Tarsus A Model for Diocesan Priesthood by Richard J Skiba and Spirituality of the Diocesan Priest Using the Wrong Measure by Kenneth Untener

Finding All Things in God Hans Gustafson, 2017-05-25 In Finding All Things In God Hans Gustafson proposes pansacramentalism as holding the potential to find the divine in all things and all things in the divine Such a proposition carries significant interreligious implications particularly in the practice of theology Presupposing theological practice as divorced from spirituality lived religious experience Gustafson presents pansacramentalism as a bridge between the two In so doing Gustafson offers a history of spirituality sketching the foundations of a classical approach to sacramentality through Aquinas as well as a contemporary approach to the same through Rahner and Chauvet Through three fascinating case studies this book presents particular instances of sacramentality in lived religious experience Gustafson offers an exciting method of doing theology one which is entirely compatible with the interdisciplinary field of interreligious studies

Christian Marriage and Family Michael G. Lawler, William P. Roberts, 1996 A definite shift in the Catholic Church s understanding of marriage took place at Vatican Council II Rather than perceiving marriage as a contract whose primary purpose was the procreation of children the council spoke of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love Then recapturing an earlier tradition it went on to describe the family as a domestic church In this book seven theologians who have lectured and written extensively on marriage probe the rich theology of marriage and family that emerged from Vatican II and explore some of the implications that flow from this theology Part One reflects on the sacramentality of marriage and on the family as a church of the home Part Two examines the pastoral implications this has for marital and family ministry and spirituality BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved A New Old Spirituality? Tone Stangeland Kaufman,2017-07-11

How do pastors live their spiritual lives both as private persons and as professionals How can their spirituality be characterized and understood Drawing on in depth interviews with Norwegian clergy as well as literature from the fields of Christian spirituality practical theology congregational studies and the sociology of religion this book offers a nuanced understanding of clergy spirituality Tone Stangeland Kaufman identifies three locations and sources of spiritual nurture for pastors the ministry itself vocational spirituality daily life everyday spirituality and spiritual practices located at the margins of daily life intentional spirituality The participants in this study engage in classic Christian practices yet approach them in a subjective and new way that also potentially revitalizes their spiritual lives Hence the author makes the case that their spirituality can aptly be described as a new old spirituality The book also seeks to nuance Paul Heelas s and Linda Woodhead s Spiritual Revolution claim and thus engages in the broader spirituality vs religion discourse A New Old Spirituality is an exciting example of how qualitative empirical research can be used in creative ways to make a practical theological argument It is a book for scholars students and practitioners The Spirit Driven Church Terje Hegertun,2017-06-28 Must the church be either charismatic or sacramental In this book Terje Hegertun argues that she has the privilege of being both The Day of Pentecost formed her identity and shaped her conviction of being lifted on the arms of grace and pushed forward by the power from on high In the midst of her vulnerability and failure the worldwide faith community is a composition of the Spirit One of the greatest gifts the church may offer the world is simply to be church a charismatic sacramental fellowship a dwelling place of God s Spirit A church nurtured by graceful charismatic and sacramental gifts fosters a mature congregational spirituality distinguished by hospitable relations Thus the Spirit of God plays the main role of being the comprehensive principle of Christian unity across denominational lines Paul Tillich and Pentecostal Theology Nimi Wariboko,Amos Yong,2015-11-17 Paul Tillich 1886 1965 is widely regarded as one of the most influential theologians of the 20th century By bringing his thought together with the theology and practices of an important contemporary Christian movement Pentecostalism this volume provokes active productive critical and creative dialogue with a broad range of theological topics These essays stimulate robust conversation engage on common ground regarding the work of the Holy Spirit and offer significant insights into the universal concerns of Christian theology and Paul Tillich and his legacy Gerontology in Theological Education Barbara Payne,Earl D. C. Brewer,2013-12-19 Gerontology in Theological Education Local Program Development provides a source book for administrators and faculty in theological schools who are concerned about the increasing number of older persons in congregations and communities Theoretical theological and practical chapters offer guidance to those interested in adventuring into aging for the first time or in revising present commitments Sacramental Religion subversive of Vital Christianity. Two sermons, etc William BROCK (Baptist Minister, the Elder.),1850 Formation and Development for Catholic School Leaders: The principal as educational leader, expectations in the areas of leadership, curriculum, and instruction Maria J. Ciriello,1996 A three volume preparation program for future and neophyte principals Cover Includes bibliographical references p 279 285 Faith, Scholarship, and Culture in the 21st Century Alice Ramos,Marie I. George,2002 While some intellectuals at the end of the nineteenth century argued that scientific progress would eventually cause the demise of religion it is evident that this has not been the case and that contemporary science is in fact not necessarily inimical to a religious worldview So a fruitful dialogue between science and religion has become a reality But there is also a more fundamental question that arises which is not simply the relationship of the sciences or of other disciplines to religion but rather whether faith can and should have an impact on teaching and research The majority of the essays in this volume hold that the Christian faith provides definite cognitive advantages and that to leave one's faith at the entrance of the campus thus separating faith from reason leads to a schizophrenic view of the Christian's intellectual life This volume thus shows how the religious faith of intellectuals not all of whom are Christian exercises a real influence on their scholarship In consonance with the thought of Pope John Paul II it is the contention of the scholars whose essays make up this volume that a faith that imbues research and teaching will effect a transformation not only in themselves but also in their students and eventually in society Hence a faith that is fully received thought out and lived will penetrate culture and there is no doubt that present day culture stands in need of transformation In fact the encyclical Fides et Ratio from which a number of the essays draw inspiration attributes the secularization of the West in great part to the separation of faith from culture Jacques Maritain himself more than fifty years ago recognized that modern and contemporary culture had severed its ties with the sacred and in so doing had turned its back on humanity Now in the twenty first century as always human beings have a profound need for meaning and transcendence a need which scholarly reflection such as that found in this volume can help to satisfy In addition to the editors the contributors are David Arias Jr Mariano Artigas Gavin T Colvert John Goyette Frederick Erb III Heather McAdam Erb Alfred J Freddoso Jeanne M Heffernan Leon Klenicki Ralph McInerny John F Morris Warren Murray Peter A Pagan Teresa I Reed Robert Royal James V Schall S J William Sweet and Dallas Willard Alice Ramos and Marie I George are both Associate Professors of Philosophy at St John's University
