Sacraments Readings In Contemporary Sacrament Theology Readings In Contemporary Sacramental Theology:

The Sacraments Michael J. Taylor, 1981 Well chosen and readable anthology of articles on contemporary sacramental theology Christian Marriage and Family Michael G. Lawler, William P. Roberts, 1996 A definite shift in the Catholic Church's understanding of marriage took place at Vatican Council II Rather than perceiving marriage as a contract whose primary purpose was the procreation of children the council spoke of marriage as an intimate partnership of life and love Then recapturing an earlier tradition it went on to describe the family as a domestic church In this book seven theologians who have lectured and written extensively on marriage probe the rich theology of marriage and family that emerged from Vatican II and explore some of the implications that flow from this theology Part One reflects on the sacramentality of marriage and on the family as a church of the home Part Two examines the pastoral implications this has for marital and family ministry and spirituality BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Dayspring in Darkness Jeffery Loomis, 1988 Identifying sacramentalism as the key to the poetry and spirituality of Gerard Manley Hopkins this study suggests that Hopkins most dominantly emphasized the sacramental Mystical Body of the Church and that his poems aspire to see past the out scape of nature and humanity to revelations of spiritual inscape

Dancing to the Post-modern Tune Tobias O. Okoro, 2010 Religions and Discourse explores religious language in the major world faiths from various viewpoints including semiotics pragmatics and cognitive linguistics and reflects on how it is situated within wider intellectual and cultural contexts In particular a key issue is the role of figurative speech Many fascinating metaphors originate in religion e g revelation as a garment apostasy as adultery loving kindness as the circumcision of the heart The Active Participation of the Faithful in the Eucharist on the Basis of Common Priesthood Stella Adamma Nneji, 2018-06-15 One of the significant points of the Second Vatican Council is its emphasis on the status of the lay faithful in the church which includes active participation in the life of faith The council spoke of the active participation of all the faithful in liturgical celebrations on the basis of the common priesthood of the faithful which is conferred during baptism and through which every believer shares in the priestly kingly and prophetic offices of Christ In this book Stella Nneji develops an ecclesiological critical reflection on the teaching of the Second Vatican Council with regard to active participation Focusing especially on the church as people of God Nneji shows how the idea of participation is not merely a passive action but an active one Based on the ecclesiological reflection on the church as people of God and its relevance for active participation she maintains that Vatican II's vision on active participation is relevant to the upbuilding of the body of Christ church This vision integrates a critical thinking especially regarding those places where the implementation of Vatican II's teachings seems difficult Divine Enticement: Theological Seductions Karmen Mackendrick, 2013 Divine Enticement argues for a reconception of theology and its subject matter as modes of seduction of both body and mind Theological language as evocation opens onto rereadings of faith sacrament ethics prayer and scripture

The conclusion argues for a sense of theology as calling upon infinite possibility

Urban Ecclesiology Pascal D. Bazzell, 2015-05-21 Pascal D Bazzell brings the marginal ecclesiology of a Filipino ecclesial community facing homelessness FECH into contemporary ecclesiological conversation in order to deepen the ecumenical understanding of today's ecclesial reality He contributes relevant data to support a theory of an ecclesial oriented paradigm that fosters ecclesial communities within homeless populations There is an extensive dialogue occurring between ecclesiologies church planting theories or urban missions and the urban poor Yet the situation with the homeless population is almost entirely overlooked The majority of urban mission textbooks do not acknowledge an ecclesial oriented state of being and suggest that the street level environment is a place where no discipleship can occur and no church should exist By presenting the FECH's case study Bazzell emphasizes that it is possible to live on the streets and to grow in the faith of God as an ecclesial community To be able to describe the FECH's ecclesial narrative Bazzell develops a local ecclesiological methodology that aims to bridge the gap between more traditional systematic and theoretical ideal ecclesiology and practical oriented ecclesiology e.g. congregational studies in order to hold together theological and social understandings of the church in its local reality He articulates a theological framework for the FECH to reflect on who they are the essence of identity studies who they are in relationship to God the essence of theological studies and what that means for believers in that community as they relate to God and to each other in ways that are true to who they are and to who God intends them to be the essence of ecclesial studies The research provides a seldom heard empirical tour into the FECH's social world and communal identity The theological findings from the FECH's hermeneutical work on the Gospel of Mark reveal an understanding of church being developed as gathering around Jesus that creates a space for God's presence to be embodied in their ordinary relationships and activities and to invite others to participate in that gathering Moreover it addresses ecclesial issues of the supernatural world honor shame values and further develop the neglected image of the familia Dei in classical ecclesiology that encapsulates well the FECH's nature mission and place

Seasoltz OSB In the Celtic Tradition Irish Church Architecture Sacramental Theological Thinking in the African Symbolic Universe Isidore Okwudili O. Igwegbe, 1995 Sacramental thinking is that world view of a believer which understands and explains certain signs and symbols as purveyors of a sacred and salvific reality The Church's evangelization mission includes the project of educating her members to think and live sacramentally Africans can easily cultivate sacramental thinking on the basis of the fact that sacramental thinking presupposes the symbolic Using expository and critical analytic methods the study clarifies the need for a passage from the mere symbolic to the more perfect sacramental reasoning while at the same time deploying J H Newman as a springboard for the African intelligentsia The World as Sacrament Mathai Kadavil, 2005 Sacramentology is one of the few theological disciplines that have undergone tremendous changes in the past In the background of all these developments this study aims to look for a paradigm the world as sacrament that encompasses various trends and is relevant to the multi religious context of contemporary society The aim of this study is to rediscover this paradigm that existed from the beginning of Christianity Its main concern is to see the different possibilities it offers for today as well as observing the different concerns that are present in it It is done from the perspectives of Latin Greek and Syrian Christian traditions The Eucharistic Liturgy Jameson K. Pallikunnil, 2017-03-20 The Malankara Mar Thoma Syrian Church exists as a hybrid church by blending the Eastern liturgical elements of the Oriental Orthodox Church and the evangelical ideas of the Protestant Reformation of the sixteenth century This Church is a bridging church connecting Protestantism and Oriental Orthodoxy The reformation in the Malankara Church 1836 instigated a new impetus for this church in constructing an ecclesial identity and pattern of mission A major missiological imperative employed by CMS missionaries in India was solely centered on the scripture Against this popular understanding the Mar Thoma Church through its reformation process showed that liturgy can also be an imperative for mission The translation and revision of the Eucharistic liturgy is the basic visible expression of reformation in the Malankara Church Hence this book explicitly places how the Eucharistic liturgy of the Mar Thoma Church is observed as the foundation for mission in its course of growth In order to accomplish this objective the writer has examined the historical evolution and the developmental process of the Eucharistic liturgy of the church which is a revised version of the liturgy of St James In a nutshell this study is an appraisal of various missiological themes reflected in the Eucharistic liturgy of the church This study throws ample light on how the Mar Thoma Church integrated liturgy and evangelism in its course of development The writer systematically illustrates how the church made a serious effort to bring missional themes employed in the liturgy into the practical realm by its ancillary organizations convention gatherings and sociocharitable works This volume asserts that an emphasis on Eucharist centred ecclesiology guides and motivates the church to enliven a mission oriented life which is crucial for accomplishing a relevant mission Introduction to the Sacraments John P. Schanz, 1983 Beginning with an exposition of religion and ritual worship as a constant in human life the author brings the reader to the Biblical statement of a loving God who gave himself to humankind through the Father's free gift of his Son to form a new family. Thus saving history comes to a climax in a sacramental Church. The author shows the sacraments to be the actualization of Christ's saving acts alive through word and rite in the world today.

Faith and Culture Emmanuel Osigwe, 2022-12-05 The recognition of the intersection of faith and culture has become a significant trend in contemporary theology. Cultures are locations of divine activity. The Sacramental Theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu in Light of Vatican II and Its Application in African Context brings freshness to the dominant Catholic sacramental thinking by offering an African appropriation of the Christian faith through African cultures. It demonstrates the historical interaction of the Christian faith with multiple anthropologies that resonates with different peoples to celebrate rituals that convey divine activity. This work engages the theology of Elochukwu Uzukwu, a recent African sacramental liturgical theologian whose work reflects the elements of sacramental and liturgical renewal of the Second Vatican Council, especially in its openness to a plurality of cultures. This book retrieves resources from the African universe to offer a contextual appropriation of the interface between faith and African cultures. It highlights the African view of the body in its expressive worship and significance of relationality as an undergirding existential philosophy of life. Consequently, it offers a flexible theological methodology that avoids polarities. It provides an additional resource to the philosophical and theological approach to the perennial problem of duality and theologies constructed on this template. This study moves beyond monocultural sacramental expression to engage symbols and indigenous resources to articulate an African sacramental theology.

Sacramental Theology Bruce T. Morrill, 2019-11-18 Throughout the second half of the twentieth century, sacramental theology has evolved as a discipline advancing comprehensive theories of sacraments and sacramentality as integral to the Christian faith while also studying the history and theology of the particular rites. Now in the twenty-first century, the need for attention to the actual performance and specific social settings of sacramental worship has become well established. This makes the work of sacramental theology necessarily engaged with multiple cross-disciplinary theories attentive to particular contexts, whether local, national, or global. Still, the divine-human encounter at the heart of Christian symbol and ritual likewise beckons to philosophical-theological reflection. The essays in this volume begin with profound philosophical perspectives on the personal and communal sacramental experience, expanding from traditional cosmology to evolutionary and chaos theories of our planetary existence, continuing with shifts, especially among youth, to interreligious and non-institutional perspectives, consideration of change in popular notions of guilt and social ethical issues in relation to liturgical theology and practice, so as finally to return to fundamental theological reflection on human sacramentality and divine revelation.

Divine Promise and Human Freedom in Contemporary Catholic Thought Kevin A. McMahon, 2015-07-01 It has always been understood that the central claim of Christianity—that Jesus, born of Mary, is the Son of God—is as much a declaration of the mystery of the human as it is the mystery of God. Just as the claim that, in virtue of this identity, he is the Christ who restores and more transforms the created order, intensifies the mystery of the human.

even further When the age of revolution was followed by the age of science and the effort to shape the environment by technology was joined by an injunction to shape societies and economies and class conflicts became part of world conflicts the question about the human emerged as a crisis in the meaning of being human Yet the Catholic mind preoccupied like every other with the crisis has conducted its reflection within a tradition of Christian humanism insisting on the mystery and the tragedy and still the dignity of the human This collection of essays by thirteen Catholic scholars of philosophy theology and political thought investigates a range of topics from human sexuality and marriage to moral freedom and responsibility in a pluralistic society while demonstrating that the Gospel passed on in an ecclesial tradition entered into through a sacramental tradition remains the one radical source of confidence in the quest for human truth The Oxford Handbook of Sacramental Theology Hans Boersma, Matthew Levering, 2015-08-06 As a multi faceted introduction to sacramental theology the purposes of this Handbook are threefold historical ecumenical and missional The forty four chapters are organized into the following parts five parts Sacramental Roots in Scripture Patristic Sacramental Theology Medieval Sacramental Theology From the Reformation through Today and Philosophical and Theological Issues in Sacramental Doctrine Contributors to this Handbook explain the diverse ways that believers have construed the sacraments both in inspired Scripture and in the history of the Church s practice In Scripture and the early Church Orthodox Protestants and Catholics all find evidence that the first Christian communities celebrated and taught about the sacraments in a manner that Orthodox Protestants and Catholics today affirm as the foundation of their own faith and practice Thus for those who want to understand what has been taught about the sacraments in Scripture and across the generations by the major thinkers of the various Christian traditions this Handbook provides an introduction As the divisions in Christian sacramental understanding and practice are certainly evident in this Handbook it is not thereby without ecumenical and missional value This book evidences that the story of the Christian sacraments is despite divisions in interpretation and practice one of tremendous hope Sacramental Presence after Heidegger Conor Sweeney, 2015-01-19 Theology after Heidegger must take into account history and language as constitutive elements in the pursuit of meaning Quite often this prompts a hurried flight from metaphysics to an embrace of an absence at the center of Christian narrativity In this book Conor Sweeney explores the postmodern critique of presence in the context of sacramental theology engaging the thought of Louis Marie Chauvet and Lieven Boeve Chauvet is an influential postmodern theologian whose critique of the perceived onto theological constitution of presence in traditional sacramental theology has made big waves while Boeve is part of a more recent generation of theologians who even more wholeheartedly embrace postmodern consequences for theology Sweeney considers the extent to which postmodernism a la Heidegger upsets the hermeneutics of sacramentality asking whether this requires us to renounce the search for a presence that by definition transcends us Against both the fetishization of presence and absence Sweeney argues that metaphysics has a properly sacramental basis and that it is only through this reality that the dialectic of presence and absence can be transcended The case is made for the full but restless signification of the mother's smile as the paradigm for genuine sacramental presence The Oil of Gladness Martin Dudley, Geoffrey Rowell, 1993 This is a comprehensive survey of the use of oils in the Christian tradition The 16 essays discuss anointing in the Catholic Orthodox Anglican and Reformed Churches and covers the period from Old Testament times to the revival of the use of oils in contemporary culture

T&T Clark Handbook of Sacraments and Sacramentality Martha Moore-Keish, James Farwell, 2022-12-29 Introducing readers to the contemporary field of sacramental theology this volume covers the biblical and historical foundations a survey of the state of the discipline and a collection of constructive essays representing major themes practices and approaches to sacraments and sacramentality in the contemporary world The volume starts with a set of foundational essays that offer broad introduction to the field of sacramental theology from contemporary scholars analysing a number of historical figures in order to illumine and inform contemporary sacramental theology The second part of the volume is dedicated to a series of essays on sacramentality and includes attention to elements of space time ritual action music and word all as aspects of what Christians have termed sacramental reality The third set of essays includes attention to each of the seven practices that have most commonly been termed sacraments in Christian traditions baptism eucharist Lord's Supper confirmation confession forgiveness and reconciliation marriage ordination and anointing The final part of this volume features scholars who are working on sacraments in conversation with contemporary academic disciplines critical race theory queer theory comparative theology and disability studies
