Sacreds Of Confucius Other Confuc:

Confucianism and Sacred Space Chin-shing Huang, 2020-12-01 Temples dedicated to Confucius are found throughout China and across East Asia dating back over two thousand years. These sacred and magnificent sanctuaries hold deep cultural and political significance. This book brings together studies from Chin shing Huang's decades long research into Confucius temples that individually and collectively consider Confucianism as religion. Huang uses the Confucius temple to explore Confucianism both as one of China's three religions with Buddhism and Daoism and as a cultural phenomenon from the early imperial era through the present day. He argues for viewing Confucius temples as the holy ground of Confucianism, symbolic sites of sacred space that represent a point of convergence between political and cultural power. Their complex histories shed light on the religious nature and character of Confucianism and its status as official religion in imperial China. Huang examines topics such as the political and intellectual elements of Confucian enshrinement, how Confucius temples were brought into the imperial ritual system from the Tang dynasty onward, and why modern Chinese largely do not think of Confucianism as a religion. A nuanced analysis of the question of Confucianism as religion. Confucianism and Sacred Space offers keen insights into Confucius temples and their significance in the intertwined intellectual, political, social, and religious histories of imperial China.

The Varieties of Confucian Experience Sébastien Billioud, 2018-07-17 Although the development of a popular brand of Confucianism in China is today a massive phenomenon, research on the topic remains scarce. Based on fieldwork carried out by a team of scholars in different parts of the country, the ambition of The Varieties of Confucian Experience is to contribute to the limited body of ethnographic accounts that aim to document and understand the diversity of phenomena encapsulated under the label 'Confucian revival' in the first two decades of the 21st century.

Confucian Perfectionism Joseph Chan, 2013-12-22 Since the very beginning, Confucianism has been troubled by a serious gap between its political ideals and the reality of societal circumstances. Contemporary Confucians must develop a viable method of governance that can retain the spirit of the Confucian ideal while tackling problems arising from nonideal modern situations. The best way to meet this challenge, Joseph Chan argues, is to adopt liberal democratic institutions that are shaped by the Confucian conception of the good rather than the liberal conception of the right. Confucian Perfectionism examines and reconstructs both Confucian political thought and liberal democratic institutions, blending them to form a new Confucian political philosophy. Chan decouples liberal democratic institutions from their popular liberal philosophical foundations in fundamental moral rights such as popular sovereignty, political equality, and individual sovereignty. Instead, he grounds them on Confucian principles and redefines their roles and functions, thus mixing Confucianism with liberal democratic institutions in a way that strengthens both. Then he explores the implications of this new yet traditional political philosophy for fundamental issues in modern politics, including authority, democracy, human rights, civil liberties, and social justice. Confucian Perfectionism critically reconfigures the Confucian political philosophy of the classical period for the contemporary era.

New Confucian Horizons Jonathan Keir, Peter C. Phan, Young-chan Ro, 2024-10-08 New Confucian Horizons Essays in Honor of Tu Weiming represents both a sustained reflection on Tu Weiming's legacy from those who have worked with him and an original contribution to the field of intercultural dialogue that Tu himself spent a lifetime cultivating. The importance of Sino American intellectual relations in an era of mounting geopolitical rivalry between the United States and China scarcely requires explanation. Tu Weiming's work has significantly deepened Sino American cultural relations and continues to provide a vital antidote to those who would sow division between the two worlds. This book deals with Confucianism and New Confucianism and Tu Weiming's contribution to both of these Chinese philosophical traditions. It studies how Confucianism has been received especially in Asia and considers Confucianism in connection with contemporary challenges. Those new to Tu Weiming will sense by the end of the volume just how vast his influence as a teacher, scholar, and public intellectual has been. Those more familiar with Tu's work will uncover lacunae in their understanding of his legacy and new angles from which to savour the value of Confucian intellectual resources. Sacred Heritage and Pilgrimages in Cities Rana P. B. Singh, Olimpia Niglio, 2025-10-28 This book aims to examine the role and status of sacred cities in the context of the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and associated cultural and sacred landscapes with an emphasis on awakening the deeper cultural sense in harmonising the world and enhancing religious and spiritual tourism all in the frame of Future of the Earth. The book adds a new dimension of cultural understanding to the broad domain of emerging human geoscience which is considered as a platform for contributing to the role of holy heritage cities towards sustainable development. Chapters include contributions from Austria, Canada, China, Germany, India, Indonesia, Italy, Japan, Korea, Lithuania, Sri Lanka, the UK, and the USA. Interfacing heritage cities and pilgrimages is a global concern in the contemporary world which covers many points of view of the common impacts of socio-economic, cultural, and jurisprudence planning, wellbeing, and related domains. Concerned with the complex interactions between development and environment, the aim is to seek paths and implications for framing sustainability in all social activities through the status and role of holy heritage cities. As many essays in this book examine striking a proper balance between the tourist and pilgrim uses of sacred sites, remains a major concern particularly in urban contexts. Prof. Francesco Bandarin, ex-Director UNESCO World Heritage Centre, Paris. This book is a masterpiece that illuminates the multitude of relationships between sacred space, urban environments, religious heritage, and pilgrimages. Prof. Dallen J. Timothy, Arizona State University, Phoenix, USA. The book genuinely an important collection of papers has focussed on the interrelationship, interaction, and transformations in sacred heritage and pilgrimages in cities. Prof. Rima Hooja, President ICOMOS India, SPA, New Delhi, India. This book, the first of its kind, paves a solid path for understanding the interfaces between sacred heritage and pilgrimages in cities which will help to strengthen cultural sustainability. Emer. Prof. Taigen Hashimoto, Indology, Toyo University, Tokyo, Japan. The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies Lucinda Mosher, 2022-06-01 The Georgetown Companion to Interreligious Studies provides fifty
