Lord Shaftesbury 1923:

Lord Shaftesbury John Wesley Bready,1927 Lord Shaftesbury and Social-Industrial Progress J. Wesley Bready,2025-02-01 Originally published in 1926 this volume is much more than a biography of an outstanding politician social reformer and philosopher It provides an analysis of the history of social conditions in England during the nineteenth century as well as a discussion of the development of social affairs and the inertia of political psychology The role that faith and religion played in motivating Lord Shaftesbury s desire for social reform is also discussed as is the ways in which he and John Wesley transformed the social and ethical ideas of England to enshrine in law many of the working conditions that we take for granted today such as defined hours of work and rest periods Lord Shaftesbury and Social-industrial Progress John Wesley Bready,1927 The Hammonds Stewart Angus Weaver,1997 Here for the first time is the story of one of history s great scholarly and marital collaborations J L and Barbara Hammond were among the most innovative and influential historians of the twentieth century Between 1911 and 1934 they wrote eight books together that amount in effect to the first sustained social history of modern England Three of their books in particular The Village Labourer 1911 The Town Labourer 1917 and The Skilled Labourer 1919 not only anticipated what came to be known as history from below but also permanently changed the way most people think about the Industrial Revolution which they defined in the apocalyptic terms to which we have become accustomed The Hammonds were also public figures prominently involved along with L T Hobhouse J A Hobson C P Scott and others in the definition and dissemination of the new liberalism From the point of involvement in the politics of one century they helped give enduring historical shape to another and thus exercise like their friends Sidney and Beatrice Webb a dual fascination Of the two Hammonds J L was the more prolific writing six books on his own and serving as a political journalist for virtually his entire professional life which saw him intervene editorially in every public crisis from the Boer War to the Second World War Ireland was after the Industrial Revolution arguably his greatest passion one to which he devoted much of his editorial life and his supreme literary effort Gladstone and the Irish Nation 1938 Barbara Hammond was an accomplished classicist the first woman to earn a First Class degree in Greats at Oxford She is shown here to have done much more work on the labourer books than has been previously recognized and to sustain through her letters an artful running commentary on the foibles of her age Through her especially the author evokes a radical but also doggedly Victorian sensibility that survived uneasily into the age of Bloomsbury and beyond The Hammonds were unique in the extent of their fused identity in the extent to which they became as G M Trevelyan once put it one flesh and one author The Hammonds is part dual biography part evocation of an age but it is also a study of marriage a marriage at a particular moment in history a marriage in the art and craft of history Modern and Contemporary European History (1815-1928) Jacob Salwyn Schapiro,1929 The Bodleian Quarterly Record ,1926 Victorian Britain Sally Mitchell,2011 First published in 1988 this encyclopedia serves as an overview and point of entry to the complex interdisciplinary field of Victorian studies The signed articles which cover persons events institutions topics groups and artefacts in Great Britain between 1837 and 1901 have been written by authorities in the field and contain bibliographies to provide guidelines for further research The work is intended for undergraduates and the general reader and also as a starting point for graduates who wish to explore new fields

Armorial Porcelain of the Eighteenth Century Algernon Tudor-Craig, Sir Algernon Tudor-Craig, 1925 It is curious that so little information is available in connection with armorial china from any published works on Chinese or other porcelain Except for the late Mr F A Crisp's Armorial China which is an illustrated catalogue of his own collection and for Examples of Armorial China which merely gives reproductions in colour by W Griggs of pieces in various collections there is no work definitely devoted to this subject while even these works make no attempt in any way to describe its origin and history Yet the collection of armorial porcelain is a most interesting one dealing as it does not only with the manufacture and quality of the china itself but also by means of the armorial bearings conveying its own date and history and leading the student on to the fascinating study of heraldry and genealogy pg 1
