

A LOSS FOR WORDS

THE STORY OF
DEAFNESS IN A FAMILY

"A deeply moving, often humorous, and beautiful account of what it means to be the hearing child of profoundly deaf parents. . . .

[An] extraordinary personal account." —OLIVER SACKS

A painting of a child sitting on a stone ledge in a landscape. The child is wearing a light-colored dress and is looking down. The background shows a field with trees and a sky with soft clouds.

Loss For Words The Story Of Deafness In A Family:

A Loss for Words Lou Ann Walker, 1987-09-16 From the time she was a toddler Lou Ann Walker was the ears and voice for her deaf parents Their family life was warm and loving but outside the home they faced a world that misunderstood and often rejected them

The History of Special Education Robert L. Osgood, 2007-11-30 Osgood examines the history of the school lives of children placed in formal or informal special education settings in American public schools during the last 120 years As the public school system in the United States grew throughout the 20th century special education became a recognized and dependable but marginalized arm of public schooling Throughout the 1900s special education emerged as its own world in many ways developing policies practices structures and an identity that became more diverse and inclusive This work describes and interprets the nature and characteristics of special education It examines carefully the human aspects of identification and placement the nature of work and play in the classroom the relationship among students teachers administrators and parents involved in the process the status and relation of children with disabilities to their non disabled peers in various school settings and the impact of school experiences on the lives of these children beyond school

Mother Father Deaf Paul M. Preston, 1998-07-21 Mother father deaf is the phrase commonly used within the Deaf community to refer to hearing children of deaf parents Preston one of these children takes us to the place where Deaf and Hearing cultures meet His work is based both on personal experience and on 150 interviews with adult hearing children of deaf parents throughout the U S

A Guide to Deaf Ministry DeAnn Sampley, 1990 What must be seen to be fully appreciated is sign s singular appropriateness for religious worship It is perhaps in the church service that the beauty of sign becomes most evident Some churches have sign choirs Watching the robed members sign in unison can be an awe inspiring experience Jerome D Schein Speaking the Language of Sign DeAnn Sampley s book is about ministry to the deaf not only worship but also nurture service and understanding A Guide to Deaf Ministry reveals that serving deaf people involves cross cultural communication Those who would minister to the deaf must understand their needs their language their world This book encompasses all these things showing readers how to begin a deaf ministry the resources that are available what the deaf culture is like and the special aspects of interpreting through sign in the church and worship settings This is a book for all who seek to minister to deaf people who live with them or who number themselves among them

Recovering Bodies G. Thomas Couser, 1997-11-01 This is a provocative look at writing by and about people with illness or disability in particular HIV AIDS breast cancer deafness and paralysis who challenge the stigmas attached to their conditions by telling their lives in their own ways and on their own terms Discussing memoirs diaries collaborative narratives photo documentaries essays and other forms of life writing G Thomas Couser shows that these books are not primarily records of medical conditions they are a means for individuals to recover their bodies or those of loved ones from marginalization and impersonal medical discourse Responding to the recent growth of illness and disability narratives in the United States such works as Juliet Wittman s Breast Cancer Journal John Hockenberry s Moving Violations Paul Monette s Borrowed Time An AIDS Memoir and Lou Ann Walker s A Loss for Words The Story of Deafness in a Family Couser addresses questions of both poetics and politics He examines why and under what circumstances individuals choose to write about illness or disability what role plot plays in such narratives how and whether closure is achieved who assumes the prerogative of narration which conditions are most often represented and which literary conventions lend themselves to representing particular conditions By tracing the development of new subgenres of personal narrative in our time this book explores how explicit consideration of illness and disability has enriched the repertoire of life writing In addition Couser s discussion of medical discourse joins the current debate about whether the biomedical model is entirely conducive to humane care for ill and disabled people With its sympathetic critique of the testimony of those most affected by these conditions Recovering Bodies contributes to an understanding of the relations among bodily dysfunction cultural conventions and identity in contemporary America The

SAGE Deaf Studies Encyclopedia Genie Gertz,Patrick Boudreault,2016-01-05 The time has come for a new in depth encyclopedic collection of articles defining the current state of Deaf Studies at an international level and using the critical and intersectional lens encompassing the field The emergence of Deaf Studies programs at colleges and universities and the broadened knowledge of social sciences including but not limited to Deaf History Deaf Culture Signed Languages Deaf Bilingual Education Deaf Art and more have served to expand the activities of research teaching analysis and curriculum development The field has experienced a major shift due to increasing awareness of Deaf Studies research since the mid 1960s The field has been further influenced by the Deaf community s movement resistance activism and politics worldwide as well as the impact of technological advances such as in communications with cell phones computers and other devices A major goal of this new encyclopedia is to shift focus away from the Medical Pathological Model that would view Deaf individuals as needing to be fixed in order to correct hearing and speaking deficiencies for the sole purpose of assimilating into mainstream society By contrast The Deaf Studies Encyclopedia seeks to carve out a new and critical perspective on Deaf Studies with the focus that the Deaf are not a people with a disability to be treated and cured medically but rather are members of a distinct cultural group with a distinct and vibrant community and way of being Human Behavior in the Social Environment Caryl B. Germain,Martin Bloom,1999 It also takes into account the expected and unexpected stresses challenges and life tasks that can influence development within social environments BOOK JACKET New Essays on Life Writing and the Body Christopher Stuart,Stephanie Todd,2009-03-26 In light of materialist revisions of the Cartesian dual self and the increased recognition of memoir and autobiography as a crucial cultural index the physical body has emerged in the last twenty five years as an increasingly inescapable object of inquiry speculation and theory that intersects all of the various subgenres of life writing New Essays on Life Writing and the Body thus offers a timely original focused and yet appropriately interdisciplinary study of life writing This collection brings together new work by established authorities in autobiography such as Timothy Dow Adams G Thomas Couser Cynthia Huff and others along with essays by emerging scholars in the field Subjects range from new interpretations of well known autobiographies by Edith Wharton Gertrude Stein and Lucy Grealy as well as scholarly surveys of more recently defined subgenres such as the numerous New Woman autobiographies of the late 19th century adoption narratives and sibling memoirs of the mentally impaired Due to their wide interdisciplinary focus these essays will prove valuable not only to more traditional literary scholars interested in the classic literary autobiography but also to those in Women's Studies Ethnic and African American Studies as well as in emerging fields such as Disability Studies and Cognitive Studies
