Lost And Found Catholics Voices Of Vatican II:

Lost & Found Catholics Christopher M. Bellitto, 1999 Hear the stories of a generation coming to terms with their own experience of Church Christopher Bellitto himself a member of this generation has listened to these prodigal sons and daughters These voices offer poignant and articulate perceptions of the confusion that followed the wake of Vatican II In Lost and Found Catholics those reaching back to the Church or trying to find a comfortable spot to call home will hear echoes of their own stories and perhaps find the catalyst for coming to terms with their own experience of Church Those who minister to returning Catholics will understand more deeply the concerns of these lost and found Catholics Views from the Pew, Pulpit and Women Religious Ed Koncel, 2010-07 In his very personal account Ed Koncel a well read and thoughtful Catholic shares his recollections of the church past his frustrations with the church present and his hopes for Catholicism s more vibrant future Robert McClory author of As It Was in the Beginning Ed Koncel writes from the perspective of a faithful son of the Church faithful over the course of his long life He writes with both passion and compassion in regard to the people and the proceedings of the Second Vatican Council and the developments since the Council Obviously well read and actively involved in various groups working to make real the words and spirit of the documents of the Vatican II he speaks with the authority of knowledge and personal experience and integrity I believe he also speaks as one whose love of the Church motivates him to keep working for its coming to accept the full participation of all in the liturgical and governmental life of its people Mr Koncel strikes me as a man of hope an extraordinary virtue in our time Denise Wilkinson SP General Superior of the Sisters of Providence Faith Formation 4.0 Julie Anne Lytle, 2013-03 Using an ecological approach to study how emerging technologies impact individual and communal formation Faith Formation 4.0 looks at how our efforts to be story keepers story sharers and story makers have evolved over four eras of human communication Framed by the Great Commission imperative to make disciples this book offers a road map to help leaders develop goals to form inform and transform new members as well as long time believers within a faith community The author successfully illustrates that church success depends not only on knowing the Christian message of God s enduring love but also how to use today s tools appropriately for evangelization and faith formation American Law from a Catholic Perspective Ronald J. Rychlak, 2015-03-11 Edited by Ronald J Rychlak American Law from a Catholic Perspective is one of the most comprehensive surveys of American legal topics by major Catholic legal scholars Contributors explore bankruptcy corporate law environmental law family law immigration labor law military law property torts and several different aspects of constitutional law among other subjects Readers will find probing arguments that bring to bear the critical perspective of Catholic social thought on American legal jurisprudence Essays include Michael Ariens s account of Catholicism in the intellectual discipline of legal history William Saunders s assessment of human rights and Catholic social teaching Hadley Arkes s look at the place of Catholic social thought with respect to bioethics and many others on major legal topics and their intersection with Catholic social teaching American Law from a Catholic Perspective is essential reading for all Catholic lawyers judges and law students as well as an important contribution to non Catholic readers seeking guidance from a faith tradition on questions of legal jurisprudence Based on well developed and established ideas in Catholic social thought the evaluations suggestions and remedies offer ample food for thought and a basis for action in the realm of legal scholarship New Generations of Catholic Sisters Mary Johnson S.N.D. de N.,Patricia Wittberg S.C.,Mary L. Gautier,2014-04-01 This volume brings together quantitative and qualitative data canonical and theological perspectives and sociological analyses to present a multilayered portrait of women religious in the United States today especially those who entered religious institutes after Vatican II

McHugh,Johan Verstraeten,2000 These essays are an attempt to recover something of the form style and force of Catholic non official social thinking in the face of contemporary social thought and contemporary injustice in advanced societies After an opening essay by the doyen of Catholic writers in this field Jean Yves Calvez SJ the book is divided into three sections The first and largest group of essays discuss patterns and predicaments of Catholic social thought in general terms and from different points of view The context here is partly the debate on modernity high modernity and post modernity partly the issue of how far and in what ways Catholic Social Thought can claim to be distinctive relative to contemporary secular thought The second section of the book focusses on relationships between Catholic social thought and its restatement and a number of contemporary debates on public issues Particular attention is given in successive essays to issues of anti poverty human rights economic theory and international finance A third and shorter section describes a number of institutional projects which attempt to carry Catholic social values forward into concrete action focussing on work in health and welfare grass roots economic co operation anti poverty and international peace and justice Final contributions by the reputed international scholar in this field John Coleman SJ and the book editors respectively evaluate the collection as a whole and discuss further steps American Catholics, American Culture Margaret O'Brien Steinfels,2004 Essays by scholars journalists lawyers business and labor leaders church administrators and lobbyists novelists activists policymakers and politicians address the most critical issues facing the Catholic Church in the United States From Page to Proclamation Clare Schwantes, 2024-11-19 This pioneering work invites readers to embark on a transformative journey through the heart of liturgical worship and scriptural proclamation It introduces a new tier to biblical hermeneutics exploring the ways in which the liturgical event and the ecclesial community color the interpretation of Scripture Weaving together insights from Gadamer's philosophical hermeneutics with the rich tapestry of Catholic liturgy the author proposes that the meaning of a proclaimed Scripture passage emerges not from an analysis of the text itself but in the vibrant interplay of multiple horizons Bible Lectionary homilist and worshiper Through a lens of play and festival the intricate relationship between tradition and contemporary worship is explored showcasing how the sensory richness of the Catholic liturgy shapes the interpretation of Scripture It challenges readers to view the Lectionary as a living text intimately connected to the worshiping assembly and the modern world This thought provoking work offers both theoretical insights and practical implications for scholars clergy and worshipers alike It inspires a fresh perspective that resonates with the contemporary Catholic experience guiding worshipers toward a profound engagement with Scripture in the dynamic event of liturgical celebration Social Catholicism for the Twenty-First Century?--Volume 1 William F. Murphy, 2024-09-12 This first of two volumes introduces the tradition of social Catholicism not only in its earlier realizations but regarding how a contemporary renewal might address the crisis in which constitutional democracies and the postwar liberal order are under assault by populist and even neo fascist movements that could soon usher in a frighteningly dark future unless a broad movement in defense of constitutional democracy quickly arises In this context some of the most influential voices among American Catholics are focused on criticizing liberal democracy on advocating a postliberal order and the establishment of a Catholic integralist state or on insisting that abortion should be the primary sociopolitical concern for Catholics treating these threats to democracy as largely irrelevant This volume shows the rich tradition of social Catholicism and how the Social Doctrine of the Church came to appreciate the key tenets of constitutional democracy As Pope Benedict XVI wrote this social doctrine leads us to take a stand for the common good to take the institutional or political path of charity to be solicitous for the institutions that give structure to the life of society juridically civilly politically and culturally It engages some of the most influential contemporary Catholic thinkers and argues that they too should recognize the grave threats facing the human family and join in working to defend and renew our constitutional democracy Catholicism Engaging Other Faiths Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Jason Welle, O.F.M., 2018-12-08 This book assesses how Vatican II opened up the Catholic Church to encounter dialogue and engagement with other world religions Opening with a contribution from the President of the Pontifical Council for Interreligious Dialogue Cardinal Jean Louis Tauran it next explores the impact relevance and promise of the Declaration Nostra Aetate before turning to consider how Vatican II in general has influenced interfaith dialogue and the intellectual and comparative study of world religions in the postconciliar decades as well as the contribution of particular past and present thinkers to the formation of current interreligious and comparative theological methods Additionally chapters consider interreligious dialogue vis vis theological anthropology in conciliar documents openness to the spiritual practices of other faith traditions as a way of encouraging positive interreligious encounter the role of lay and new ecclesial movements in interreligious dialogue and the development of Monastic Interreligious Dialogue Finally it includes a range of perspectives on the fruits and future of Vatican s II s opening to particular faiths such as Judaism Islam Hinduism and Buddhism

Lost for Words? Goetz Frank Ottmann,2010-10-06 Lost for Words explores the rise and decline of progressive Catholic grassroots activism and its drive for social justice and democratic change in four low income neighborhoods in S o Paulo Brazil Ottmann focuses on the obstacles faced by the poor who took seriously the claim that the people were to transform Brazilian society from the bottom up He follows their travails through periods of democratization mass unemployment and conservative backlash within the Church Goetz Frank Ottmann moves beyond purely political analysis to record how residents and progressive Catholic activists were drawn into a struggle for a juster society and how this movement began to unravel even before it reached its peak in the early 1980s Based on in depth interviews and participant observation and drawing on theoretical insights from recent debates on social movements and the sociology of religion he examines how by the early 1990s the liberationist movement had lost its following lost its allies failed to achieve its core goals and seemed to die Ottmann then shows how in recent years activists have worked to create a new and pragmatic form of religious activism one that draws on a range of agendas including Catholic feminism The American Directory of Writer's Guidelines Brigitte M. Catholic Church in the United States Arthur J. McDonald, 2019-10-29 In the summer of 1966 one year after the conclusion of the Second Vatican Council a group of nineteen Roman Catholic priests met clandestinely in a church hall in a suburb of Pittsburgh to discuss forming an independent group of ordained clergy Fearful that meeting publicly might be viewed as a threat to the authority of the local bishop thus potentially risking sanctioning from him they used numbers not names when circulating the minutes of the first two meetings Once the word spread among the local clergy that such a group was meeting and they realized there was widespread interest they went public and invited all of Pittsburgh's Catholic clergy including the bishop to their third meeting They chose a name the Association of Pittsburgh Priests APP and the group was launched Shortly after forming and with interest from among over two hundred clergy APP began advocating for major church renewal and involvement in any number of social justice issues Regarding church renewal they grounded themselves in the documents of Vatican II most especially Gaudium et Spes Church in the Modern World and soon lobbied for optional celibacy and married priesthood women's ordination lay empowerment including the promotion of the early church notion of the priesthood and prophethood of all believers To this day APP remains a force for change in the church and in society ever true to its initial intuition to fully implement the renewal of church and society called for by the bishops at Vatican II
