Cawley, 2025-02-06 Tracing the development of Catholic ideas in Japan and China during the late sixteenth and early seventeenth century this book provides an overview of the evolution of the missionary strategy in East Asia while focusing on the early emplantation of Catholicism in Korea Kevin Cawley recreates the tumultuous period for gender relations and explores interreligious interactions between Confucians and Catholics

Highlighting the textual production this period inspired this book examines writings such as the catechism of the Italian Jesuit Matteo Ricci 1552 1610 which went on to convert a group of elite Confucian scholars to the new religion It also underscores the importance of the vernacular catechism written by Chong Yakchong 1760 1801 a convert from a prominent Confucian family who was eventually executed Chong's text made Catholicism easily understandable for women as well as men from lower social classes who eventually converted in significant numbers effecting real social change Outlining the shift from rejection to acceptance of new texts composed by early Korean converts this book explores emergent Catholicism in Japan China and Korea as well as the various challenges encountered and how the mission strategy changed as a result Exploring gender relations both in relation to Confucianism and Catholics during this period this book provides insight into

Creatures of the Same God Andrew Linzey,2009 I don t know why you re spending all your time on this They re only animals for heaven s sake That was the reaction of one of Andrew Linzey s fellow students at King s College London when he was studying theology in the 1970s Since then the now Rev Dr Andrew Linzey has been arguing that animals aren t only anything but rather that they matter to God and should do so to us In this collection of essays Linzey counters with his customary wit erudition and insight some contemporary and perhaps surprising challenges to animal rights from ecotheologians the Church and politicians He contends that far from the sometimes shallow judgments of those who think animals unworthy of theological consideration the Christian tradition has a wellspring of sources and resources available to taking animals seriously Instead of being marginal to the Christian experience Linzey concludes animals can take their rightful place alongside human beings as creatures of the same God There is a long forgotten spiritual tradition that two children both named Jesus were born in Bethlehem to two sets of parents named Joseph and Mary This tradition is supported by the different accounts of the nativity and life of Jesus Christ in the gospels of Matthew and Luke Although the Church chose to ignore this tradition something of it survived in early Christian art and symbolism The full tradition was preserved only in the literature of esoteric sects such as Gnosticism which remained outside the official teachings of institutionalized Christianity

Awakening as Holy Mystery Kevin G. Thew Forrester,2025-07-15 Christianity is an ancient non dual spiritual path of awakening This is not an awakening to God known as a religious object through the lens of belief hewn into shape through a set of religious doctrines This awakening begins with falling in love with the heart of Reality Holy Mystery and comes to fruition in the realization that the soul is one with the Beloved Holy Mystery the soul discovers is the true I of existence The author invites the reader on a journey through reflections and explorations nurtured by worship and prayer Here the soul might begin to slowly awaken to the truth of what she herself is This is the gracious path of Jesus own heart realizing that he and the Beloved are one Jesus awakens as the Christ The spiritual path in the Christian tradition is that each person also realizes Christ heart awakening and knowing not only one s own being as Holy Mystery but all creation as the unfolding flowering of boundless love Awakening becomes the source of servanthood and service Jesus embodies what each is called to realize as the heart s deepest and unceasing longing
