Lost World Of The Kalahari:

The Lost World of the Kalahari Laurens Van der Post, 1958 An account of the author's search for the vanishing Bushmen of South Africa The Lost World of the Kalahari with "The Great and the Little Memory" a New Epilogue Laurens Van der Post, 1963 The Lost World of the Kalahari Laurens Van der Post, 1988 Seventy five stunning color photographs have been added as well as an epilogue by the author The Lost World of the Kalahari, 1996 San Representation Keyan Tomaselli, Michael Wessels, 2017-12-22 The San or Bushmen of southern Africa have exerted a fascination over generations of writers and scholars from novelists and anarchists to ethnologists and geneticists and also occupy a special place in the popular imagination as the First People and the contemporary remnant of spiritual and natural man The ways in which particular groups of people from southern Africa have been traditionally categorised and positioned as objects of scrutiny by a range of academic disciplines is increasingly being contested and questioned There is a growing awareness of the cultural economic and genetic entanglement of the peoples of the region This book examines how San and Khoe people are represented by others as well as by those who identify as San or Khoe The book interrogates the ways in which disciplines through their methodologies and ways of authorising knowledge not only discover or reveal knowledge but produce it in ways that involve complex and often ambiguous relationships with power structures and forms of intellectual symbolic and cultural capital One major trend that emerges is that the San and Khoe can no longer be seen as people of the past but have to be acknowledged as contemporary and socially situated individuals and communities who are increasingly contesting the representations which others have imposed on them This book was originally published as a special issue of Critical Arts A Journal of South North Cultural and Media Studies The Lost World of the Kalahari. (New Edition with Illustrations.). Laurens Van der Post, 1961 Loneliness and Time Mark Cocker, 1992 Refreshing original and eminently readable The Literary Review Loneliness and Time is a pioneering study of travel writing as a literary form and of travel as a cultural phenomenon Mark Cocker offers a fertile mixture of biography history and literary criticism in his portraits of some of the most prominent twentieth century British explorer writers including Wilfred Thesiger Laurens van der Post Gavin Maxwell and Lawrence Durrell and of the places Greece Tibet that obsessed them In scrutinizing the deep drives that impelled these men to the outer reaches Cocker makes clear the immensely powerful idea of the journey as quest as pilgrimage and how it has come to carry mythological and spiritual import In each portrait the journey's meaning is unearthed layer by layer and we see not only how it operates in the lives of the travelers themselves but its importance to the modern industrial and largely secular societies from which these figures emerge Cocker shows how foreign landscapes and their inhabitants have been used by travel writers as a means to self definition as well as a source of image fantasy even self image Loneliness and Time illuminates the appeal of travel the desire to explore the unfamiliar and the strange that captivates us all BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The

Forsaken Garden Nancy Ryley,1998 When documentary filmmaker Nancy Ryley first became ill few people had heard of environmental illness Her symptoms fatigue depression hypersensitivity to foods and chemicals puzzled doctors and resisted treatment Unable to work Nancy with her husband moved from Toronto to rural west Canada where a lifestyle free of urban pollutants helped her slowly to rebuild her health Nancy s struggle is also the spiritual struggle of the planet To explore the connections between the state of our bodies and souls and the condition of the earth she interviewed four leading thinkers each with a unique perspective on spiritual health Laurens van der Post African explorer and journalist Marion Woodman psychologist and best selling author Ross Woodman expert on Blake and the Romantic poets Thomas Berry theologian and cultural historian These thought provoking conversations woven with Nancy s own search for answers shine beacons of hope for personal and planetary healing

Recreating First Contact Joshua A. Bell,Alison K. Brown,Robert J. Gordon,2013-11-06 Recreating First Contact explores themes related to the proliferation of adventure travel which emerged during the early twentieth century and that were legitimized by their associations with popular views of anthropology During this period new transport and recording technologies particularly the airplane and automobile and small portable still and motion picture cameras were utilized by a variety of expeditions to document the last untouched places of the globe and bring them home to eager audiences These expeditions were frequently presented as first contact encounters and enchanted popular imagination The various narratives encoded in the articles books films exhibitions and lecture tours that these expeditions generated fed into pre existing stereotypes about racial and technological difference and helped to create them anew in popular culture Through an unpacking of expeditions and their popular wakes the essays 12 chapters a preface introduction and afterward trace the complex but obscured relationships between anthropology adventure travel and the cinematic imagination that the 1920s and 1930s engendered and how their myths have endured The book further explores the effects both positive and negative of such expeditions on the discipline of anthropology itself However in doing so this volume examines these impacts from a variety of national perspectives and thus through these different vantage points creates a more nuanced perspective on how expeditions were at once a global phenomenon but also culturally ordered
