Marshall Marcia Colish, Matthew Levering, Augustine Di Noia, Paul Griffiths, Reinhard Hütter, 2023-01-26 Love Become Incarnate is a Festschrift in honor of Bruce D. Marshall, Lehman Professor of Christian Doctrine at Southern Methodist University's Perkins School of Theology. Marshall is one of the most significant Catholic theologians in the English-speaking world. His work exemplifies an intentionally Catholic theology that makes fearless use of the fullness of truth wherever it may be found in conscious service to the Church. Marshall has made significant contributions to the doctrine of the Trinity, Christology, Pneumatology, ecclesiology, ecumenism, Jewish-Christian dialogue, and fundamental theology. St. Thomas Aquinas has been his most constant theological companion, although he has also advanced our understanding of Saints Augustine and Anselm, John Duns Scotus, Martin Luther, Matthias Joseph Scheeben, Karl Barth, and other major figures. Marshall has carefully developed a unique, powerful, and wide-ranging theology of the primacy of Christ over all things. It is this same Christ who is the love of God become incarnate. This series of essays by Marcia Colish, J. Augustine Di Noia, Paul Griffiths, Reinhard Hütter, Matthew Levering, and others engage and advance Marshall's ranging contributions to historical and systematic theology. Monthly musical record, 1892 Plays of the Holocaust Elinor Fuchs, 1987. Discipleship is embodied formation in the Christian life; it is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world, interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life. The Aesthetics of Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard's framing of aesthetic existence, the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play, friendship, and cultural formation. In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer, the work of Iain McGilchrist, Graham Ward, and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below. Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship, such that discipleship integrates aesthetic, ethical, and religious existence. Aesthetic existence, unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom, creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self. Mature aesthetic existence, however anchored in love for God, plays a fundamental role in the Christian life, both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also
