Loves Of Joao Vencio:

The Loves of João Vêncio José Luandino Vieira, 1991 A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula Fernando Cabo Aseguinolaza, Anxo Abuín González, César Domínguez, 2010

A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula is the second comparative history of a new subseries with a regional focus published by the Coordinating Committee of the International Comparative Literature Association. As its predecessor for East Central Europe, this two-volume history distances itself from traditional histories built around periods and movements and explores from a comparative viewpoint a space considered to be a powerful symbol of inter-literary relations. Both the geographical pertinence and its symbolic condition are obviously discussed when not even contested. Written by an international team of researchers who are specialists in the field, this history is the first attempt at applying a comparative approach to the plurilingual and multicultural literatures in the Iberian Peninsula. The aim of comprehensiveness is abandoned in favor of a diverse and extensive array of key issues for a comparative agenda. A Comparative History of Literatures in the Iberian Peninsula undermines the primacy claimed for national and linguistic boundaries and provides a geo-cultural account of literary inter-systems which cannot otherwise be explained.

Multiculturalism & Hybridity in African Literatures African Literature Association. Meeting, 2000. This volume of essays covers all phases and geographical areas of African literature, including lesser-known areas such as oral literature, literature written in African languages, and Lusophone literature. Also included are articles on Caribbean literature, developments in South African theatre, and two articles on African film. Several writers receive special attention: Chinua Achebe, Maryse Conde, Wole Soyinka, Niyi Osundare, Ngũgĩ wa Thiong'o, and Hampate Ba. Also included are the key-note addresses by Achebe, Conde, and Osundare.

Lusophone Africa Fernando Arenas, 2011. Situates the cultures of Portuguese-speaking Africa within the postcolonial global era.

How Peripheral is the Periphery? Translating Portugal Back and Forth João Ferreira Duarte, Rita Bueno Maia, Marta Pacheco Pinto, 2015-09-18. This volume is a result of the need to reflect upon Portugal's position from the viewpoint of the literary assets imported and exported through translation. It brings together a number of scholars working in the field of Translation Studies directly concerned with the Portuguese cultural system in order to analyse this question from various theoretical perspectives and from case studies of translation flows and movements in Portuguese culture. By Translating Portugal Back and Forth, the articles discuss issues such as: how can one draw the borderline between a peripheral and a semi-peripheral system? Is this borderline useful or necessary? How peripheral is the Portuguese cultural system as far as translation transfers are concerned? How stable or pacific has this positioning been? Does the economic and historical perception of Portugal as peripheral entail that from the viewpoint of translation it would behave similarly? By addressing some of these questions and as shown by the second subtitle Essays in Honour of João Ferreira Duarte, the volume pays homage to one of the most prominent Translation Studies scholars in Portugal who has extensively reflected on the binary discourse on translation.
